THE STANDING RULES

[All paragraph references are to the 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church except as otherwise noted, and these numbers are printed in bold]

INTRODUCTION

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church shall be organized and structured according to the mandates of the latest edition of The Book of Discipline, and shall act in all respects in harmony with the policy of The United Methodist Church. In keeping with those standards, this conference commits itself to the elimination of discrimination on the basis of race and gender (see ¶ 604.1). The following Standing Rules are adopted by the Alabama-West Florida Conference for its own governance and to fit its specific setting for mission and ministry. The Alabama-West Florida Conference shall follow Roberts Rules of Order except where superseded by explicit rules in The Book of Discipline or in these Standing Rules.

1. These Standing Rules shall be implemented, applied or amended as follows:
 - A. These rules shall be effective at the end of the annual conference at which they are passed. All rules remain in effect until they are rescinded or amended by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting on the next day after the proposed amendment has been presented in writing.
 - B. Any proposed changes in the Standing Rules should be received in writing by the chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules no later than February 1.
 - C. Any of these rules, except Standing Rule (SR) 1D, may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting at annual conference.
 - D. A change in the number of districts may not be made later than the first business session.

OFFICERS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

2. The conference secretary and the Journal editor, (nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations, see SR 5B) and the treasurer/statistician and the conference registrar (nominated by the Council on Finance and Administration) shall be elected at the first session of the annual conference following the general conference, with tenure of office to begin on December first, following their election, and to serve for the succeeding quadrennium. (¶ 603.7 and ¶ 619)

COMMITTEES RELATING TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

3. There shall be a Committee on Standing Rules, composed of the conference secretary, the director of Connectional Ministries (see SR 5A), the conference treasurer, the Journal editor and five at-large members including the chairperson. This committee shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations (see SR 5B), shall include both lay and clergy, and shall be elected by the annual conference. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

4. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Petitions, composed of four clergy and four lay persons, nominated by the Committee on Nominations, which shall consider all petitions addressed to the general, jurisdictional, and annual conferences. After consideration, the committee shall submit the petitions, with its written recommendation and the rationale for each recommendation, to the annual conference for action. Resolutions shall be submitted to the committee by February 15, except in cases where it can be demonstrated by the author of a late petition that the situation which gave rise to making the petition was not apparent until after the deadline for petitions. The committee shall provide copies of all resolutions submitted by February 15 to all voting members present at the conference session. The maker of the resolution shall supply these copies of his/her resolution if submitted after February 15. No resolution will be received on the last day of the session.

5. A. The leadership, missional and administrative structures of the Alabama-West Florida Conference shall come together at a “common table” or organization known as the “Connecting Our Resources and Empowerment” Team or CORE Team. The means of electing and appointing representatives connected to the CORE Team, which includes boards, committees, councils, commissions and divisions of the Leadership Team, the Mission Team, and the Administrative Team, are spelled out in these Standing Rules (also see SR 24 and following).

B. There shall be a Committee on Nominations, composed of: the resident bishop, who shall be the chairperson; the conference lay leader; the conference secretary, who shall be the secretary of this committee; the director of connectional ministries; the conference treasurer; the conference presidents of United Methodist Men (UMM) and of United Methodist Women (UMW); a United Methodist youth; the eight district lay leaders; the eight district superintendents; the Conference Resource Center program staff; and three at-large members chosen by the bishop with attention given to the need for inclusive representation. This committee shall nominate persons quadrennially to the CORE Team, conference boards, commissions, committees, councils, etc., as listed in these Standing Rules and as needed by other conference institutions (per the bishop's discretion). Nominations shall be consistent with the most recent Book of Discipline, with attention given to inclusiveness, diversity and expertise. The committee shall submit its nominations as early as possible in the annual conference session. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

6. There shall be a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions, composed of three lay and two clergy members, which shall be responsible for presentation of visitors to the conference, and for a report in the closing session expressing appreciation to persons and groups who have rendered special services in the program.

7. There shall be a Committee on the Journal, appointed quadrennially by the bishop, composed of two members, who shall examine the minutes of daily sessions for accuracy and report the findings to the conference.

8. The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) shall handle expenses of the conference session. There shall be a Conference Administration Fund, the amount to be fixed annually by the Council on Finance and Administration, with assessments for the fund to be allocated annually to individual pastoral charges on the apportioned formula basis. When the Annual Conference makes available lodging for the annual conference session, CFA will establish reasonable fees.

When the Annual Conference makes available meals for the annual conference session, CFA will establish reasonable fees. Conference meals for which there is no charge, shall be funded by the Annual Conference Administration Fund. Instructions shall be provided in advance by the conference registrar. C. A period of recognition of retiring clergy shall be held during the conference session, with a suitable program arranged by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

D. A memorial service commemorating each clergyperson or "surviving spouse" or diaconal minister who died since the last annual conference shall be arranged by the Commission on Archives and History. The Commission shall also provide a memoir of the deceased for publication in the Journal.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

10. The rules of order of the preceding general conference shall govern parliamentary procedure in this conference in all matters not covered by the standing rules. In order to be recognized to address the conference, each person must identify him/herself as to name and the capacity in which he/she is entitled to speak to the session.

11. Reports and resolutions:

A. All reports and resolutions shall be consistent with the Guidelines for Reports; and shall be placed on the conference agenda by the conference secretary in the order designated by the Annual Conference Session Planning Committee. Proposed resolutions and changes to the conference standing rules shall lie on the conference secretary's desk for at least one business session before being acted upon by the conference.

B. By a two-thirds vote of those present and voting an agenda item may be taken up out of order for consideration.

C. All amendments to reports of boards and agencies as printed in the Brochure of Reports and all motions arising from the floor of the conference shall be made in writing to the conference secretary.

D. At the annual conference session, no materials (handouts, etc.) shall be placed on the pews or seats when the conference is in recess, unless a prior majority vote approves an exception to this rule.

12. In order to expedite the business of the conference, the Consent Agenda Committee, composed of the secretary of the annual conference, the chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules, the director of connectional ministries, and the Journal editor, in consultation with agencies or individuals presenting reports, recommendations or resolutions, may present in the Brochure of Reports a written list of items which shall be known as the Consent Agenda. Items on the Consent Agenda shall be considered as adopted by consent of the annual conference. An individual item may be removed from the Consent Agenda by a written request signed by twelve lay and/or clergy members of the annual conference and presented to the conference secretary prior to the first business session. When a matter has been removed from the Consent Agenda, it shall be placed into the regular agenda at an appropriate time.

13. Election of General and Jurisdictional delegations:

A. Delegates to the general and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected according to stipulations in ¶ 502.4 and ¶ 515 respectively of the Book of Discipline. In compliance with the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 35, all eligible clergy shall be listed on the ballot for General and Jurisdictional Elections. They shall serve in all sessions of these conferences held during the quadrennium. In addition to those delegates funded by the general and jurisdictional conferences, the Alabama-West Florida Conference shall pay the expenses of only one more alternate delegate, lay and clergy, to the general and jurisdictional conferences at the rate paid to the delegates.

B. In the election of delegates, the presiding bishop shall appoint four teams of tellers (two clergy teams and two lay teams), each team consisting of one representative from each district, one of whom shall serve as head teller.

C. In the election of these delegates, the ballots shall be furnished to the conference by the conference secretary at the time of voting. No vote shall be valid unless cast on the ballot designated by the presiding bishop.

D. One year prior to an electing annual conference, the Board of Laity shall make plans and policies regarding the lay elections, and give guidance to laity regarding the process of caucusing, nominating and electing the lay delegation. Following the opening session of the electing annual conference, the laity, in their orientation session, will give opportunity for any persons seeking election (whose name has not been put in nomination in advance) to provide a single printed profile sheet for distribution.

E. A general code of ethical standards will be demonstrated by every candidate, lay and clergy. Every individual's right to exercise his/her voting or political expression should be consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

F. Endorsements of candidates will be made only by individuals and/or local churches, or the district electing caucus.

14. Annual Conference lay members:

A. Lay members to the annual conference shall be elected yearly in the charge conferences. One youth member to the annual conference (age 12-17) (expenses to be paid by their district) and one young adult member (age 18-30) shall be selected from each district. The conference secretary (if lay), the conference lay leader, the director of conference lay speaking ministries, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, a member of the conference United Methodist youth, the conference secretary of Global Ministries (if lay), the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, active deaconesses and home missionaries under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the annual conference, district lay leaders, and diaconal ministers, shall be lay members to the annual conference. (For churches with more than one clergyperson under appointment, see ¶ 32 of the Book of Discipline.)

B. In compliance with the disciplinary requirement (¶ 32) to keep lay representation in the annual conference session equal to that of clergy, the conference secretary shall ascertain whether the upcoming session will be in balance with respect to lay and clergy membership as of January 1 each year. If additional lay members are needed, the conference secretary shall add them using the following guidelines:

(1) The first eight shall be the district presidents of United Methodist Women. In the event that fewer than eight are needed, the secretary shall make the determination on the basis of the last reported church membership totals of the districts, moving from the largest downward in scale.

(2) The second eight shall be the district presidents of the United Methodist Men. In the event that fewer than eight are needed, the secretary shall make the determination on the basis of the last reported church membership totals of the districts, moving from the largest downward in scale.

(3) Next the secretary shall name full-time lay workers on the professional staff of the Conference Resource Center.

(4) Next the secretary shall name the lay members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

(5) Next the secretary shall name lay members of the general and jurisdictional delegations (including alternates) in the order of their election.

(6) Next the secretary shall name lay persons who are chairpersons of CORE Team boards, commissions, councils, etc., in the order listed in the CORE organizational document, and the at-large members of the CORE Team.

(7) Next the secretary shall name lay members of the Council on Finance and Administration.

(8) The remainder shall be at-large members divided among the eight districts and selected by each district. In the event that there is a remainder of less than eight, the secretary shall make the determination on the basis of the last reported church membership totals of the districts, moving from the largest downward in scale.

(9) If a person is selected by the above process who is already a member of annual conference as the delegate from his/her church/charge, he or she may serve in the new capacity and thus empower the church's alternate delegate to go as the voting representative of the charge. The district superintendent and district lay leader of each district may assist in this process in conjunction with their district's orientation session in preparation for the annual conference.

15. The Conference Journal and Brochure of Reports:

The publication and distribution of The Annual Conference Journal and the Brochure of Reports shall be supervised by the Editorial Committee, chaired by the Journal editor and composed of the conference secretary, the Director of Ministerial Services, the treasurer/statistician, and the director of Connectional Ministries. The Journal editor shall be responsible for preparation of the Brochure of Reports and its distribution to all eligible persons. Materials and reports to be included in the Brochure of Reports shall be in the hands of the Journal editor NO LATER THAN the last Monday in February. The Brochure of Reports shall contain an order blank for the Journal. The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine the cost of each Journal including mailing. All names, addresses, reports, resolutions, and/or other materials to be included in the Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Conference shall be in the hands of the conference secretary no later than ten working days after the close of annual conference.

Except as provided by the Book of Discipline, one's term on a quadrennial agency shall not exceed eight years within any twelve consecutive years. Elected membership on non-quadrennial agencies is limited to no more than eight of any twelve consecutive years, with the exception of the Board of Laity. For the sake of administrative and program continuity, this standing rule shall not apply where existing constitutions require the retiring chair to continue to serve for a period not to exceed two years. D. Persons who fail to attend and participate in the meetings and programs expected of their elected position for one year without legitimate excuse shall be replaced. The person chosen by the Committee on Nominations to fill the unexpired term may also be elected to serve an additional quadrennium.

The District Committee on Nominations may submit to the district conference the names of one clergy and one lay person for election for each district work area and age-level ministry, and such other persons as are needed for membership to the District Council on Ministries or District CORE Team. Persons to be nominated shall be consulted by their district superintendent prior to the submission of their names. The District Committee on Nominations may fill vacancies with replacements to take office immediately. Such persons shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the district conference (¶ 659.1).

21. Neither a district superintendent nor a paid staff person of the annual conference shall serve as an elected member on a quadrennial board, commission, or committee, except as specifically provided by the Book of Discipline. Vacancies occurring by appointment of mem-

ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA

DAILY PROCEEDINGS and REPORT OF THE CABINET

Montgomery, Alabama
Sunday June 1, 2014

Theme: The Great Commission: Engaging Disciples

EVENING SESSION – Sunday, June 1, 2014

OPENING WORSHIP CELEBRATION

Bishop Paul L. Leeland opened the 2014 Annual Conference session as he greeted members of the conference and guests in the sanctuary of Frazer United Methodist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. Rev. Dr. Tim Thompson, senior pastor of Frazer United Methodist Church, added his welcome on behalf of the host congregation and staff. Dr. J. Cameron West, President Huntingdon College preached the opening sermon based on II Samuel 7:1-14a and Mark 6:30-34, 53-56 entitled, “Christianity is a Fulltime Job”. He reminded our conference that, “Jesus never hung out a ‘do not disturb’ sign.” He told of real-life stories exemplifying what it means to be a disciple in ministry and what Jesus requires of us to serve the present age. He stated that Christianity is a calling and a full-time job but does require rest—the kind only God can give. A conference mass choir, under the direction of Wayne Sigler, Director of Worship and Music at Frazer UMC provided inspiring music for the service.

STATISTICIAN’S REPORT

Mr. Frank Dunnewind thanked the members of the Fiscal office staff for their hard work and dedication including Heidi Mitchell, Controller, BeLinda Carnegie, Benefits Coordinator, Sharon Beasley, Accounts Clerk and Terri Pickering, Administrative Assistant. Mr. Dunnewind presented the following statistics:

- We began the year with professing membership of 145,049. We received 2,484 professing members, a reverse of 2% over 2012.
- We removed by charge conference action 3,941 members. That is 83% more members removed in 2013 than in 2012.
- There was 4% increase in reported member deaths: 1,667 deaths in 2012 versus 1,747 in 2013. This statistic is what we might expect to see, given the aging population in the United Methodist Church.
- We ended 2013 with professing membership of 141,989 a net decrease over 2012. There was a net loss of 3,060 members in 2013 versus a 1,029 net loss in 2012. This statistic would indicate that churches are seriously conducting membership audits and ‘right sizing’ their membership rolls.
- The reported Average Attendance at weekly worship services decreased slightly from 65,781 on 2012 to 65,110 in 2013; a decrease of 1%.
- Fewer members left for non-United Methodist churches than joined from non-United Methodist churches.
- Another interesting statistic was that the reported Asian population increased by 8%.
- For the second year in a row baptisms increased. There were 2,013 baptisms in 2013.

- You may remember that I mentioned that we learned that one of the measures of vital churches is number of small groups centered on Christian formation. There was a 3% decrease in weekly attendance in Sunday church school. One of the factors that I identified as I looked at this year's report was that a number of pastors that reported attendance last year did not report data this year. However, other categories of Christian formation groups showed increases.
- The number of persons served in community ministries for daycare and/or education increased by 40% from just over 19,000 in 2012 to more than 26,800 in 2013.
- Similarly, the number of persons served by community ministries for out reach, justice and mercy increased by 18% from just over 388,800 in 2012 to more than 461,000 in 2013.
- Again, this year, Vacation Bible School attendance increased by 2%.
- The market value of church property was up by about 1% and debt was down by 16%.
- Building improvement and major equipment purchases increased by about 25%.
- Turning to benevolence giving in 2012 churches reported giving $1,017,023 to United Methodist causes which was not given through the conference office, increased to $1,603,996 in 2013 a 57% increase. Giving to non-United Methodist causes showed a decrease of 11%.
- In 2013, churches reported $2.7 million more income than in 2012. They reported $1.78 million more income than expenses.

I want to express my appreciation to the pastors who made an effort to submit timely and accurate reports and to the Administrative Professionals in the districts for their hard work in following up on delinquent reports and for their attention to detail in validating the reports.

The report was received.

ACTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND PETITIONS

BAYPINES

The Baypines District Leadership Team began the summer with a challenge to each church to Engage their communities with the love of Christ. One of the tools offered to help accomplish this was a Percept study for each local church.

Our Lay Leader, Michael Ard, attended many of the Charge Conferences in the Fall of the year encouraging the churches to circle Valentines Day Weekend on their calendar as a time to share God's Love with a family, a school, prison, or nursing home. Many churches planned and spent this weekend seeking to engage new families and ministries with God's love.

The Brewton area, under the leadership of Dr. Ed Glaize, began an ecumenical study of When Helping Hurts, How to Alleviate Poverty Without Hurting the Poor or Yourself, by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert. Fred and Laura Blackwell and the Circle's Initiative in our Conference inspired this study. The Brewton community is currently in a time of discernment and prayer about ways to be in partnership and ministry with all areas of poverty.

The District Conference was held at FUMC Andalusia on January 26, 2014. The worship service centered on the themes of the "Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations," by Bishop Robert Schnase. During the time of celebration churches from all areas of the District, large and small, shared testimony of ways their church participated and practiced these areas of fruitfulness. Micheal Ard led two trainings in the fall for church Lay Leaders and Lay Delegates. Dr. Cory Smith led two trainings in the winter for PPR Committees. And, during the District Conference we had trainings on the Five Practices...And The Wesleyan Way.

We are now engaged and excited about "Imagine No Malaria." It is now our big emphasis in the District. We are grateful to Rev. Jim Batchelor for organizing a District Wide Golf Tournament. We are also thankful for our Missions chair, Pat Shubird, for his many efforts in educating and inspiring churches in our District to participate in this important outreach of our church. We are busy sharing ideas in our cluster groups on how to support this emphasis of the District.

Dream Discover and Design God's Purpose for Your Church is scheduled for May 3. At the time of this writing a one day retreat is being planned for church leaders to gather and learn ways to discern and design ministries of fruitfulness for their congregation based upon the strengths and resources God has given them. Peg Alderidge from Passion in Partnership will help us in this important day.

We continue to offer Disaster Response certification classes and many churches are ready to respond to disasters.

Our United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women continue to active in ministry and mission in many ways throughout our district.

We also continue to offer training in Lay Speaking/Ministry.

Our Scouting ministry remains strong in many of our local churches.

Our Native American ministries remain strong as well.

This has been a great year for the Baypines District. We thank God for the things we have been able to accomplish under the direction of our Superintendent, Dr. Cory Smith. We give God thanks for him, his family, and his leadership. We also give God thanks for the vision he is giving us for our District. We continue to strive to be all God would have us be and engage in ministry and mission to reach as many as possible. We are thankful for our past and look with great anticipation toward the future!

Respectfully,
Dr. Timothy R. Trent

2013 was an active year in the Dothan District as the CORE team led by our District Superintendent, Rev. Dan Morris, worked to enable district churches to live out our mission, "Growing Healthy Churches." Below are Highlights of our ministry.

Super Sunday: United Methodists from throughout the Dothan District met on the afternoon of January 27 at Covenant United Methodist Church for this annual training event. The opening worship service led by Jeff Wickell, Director of Music at Covenant UMC, focused on blended worship. Music was by an orchestra and mass choir from Covenant UMC Enterprise UMC and Dothan First UMC. The Youth Choir and hand bells from Covenant UMC, the interpretive dance group from Harvest Church, and the praise band from Covenant UMC also provided leadership. Workshops for adults included: Staff Parish Relations Committee training; Stewardship; Missions; United Methodist Women; United Methodist Men; a gathering for Retired Ministers, Spouses and Widows; Spiritual Formation; Lay Leader Training and a session for Church Secretaries. Children from throughout the district participated in a high energy worship time and then enjoyed recreation in the gym with inflatables and games. Around 200 youth participated in games and were led in worship songs by West Main Rush from Covenant UMC. They were then inspired by the events main speaker, Bill Rife, who spoke about being chosen by God for a personal relationship. Their time was closed with a meaningful time of Holy Communion.

Laity: At Super Sunday a training session was held for church lay leaders. We had 35 people present for this event which was designed to help church lay leaders understand their duties and responsibilities and to equip them to be effective church lay leaders. We had two District Gatherings for laity and pastors during 2013. The first was on Monday evening April 29, 2013 at Samson UMC. Music by the Samson UMC music group with the assistance of the Enterprise First UMC music group entertained the gathering for this event which also served as our meeting to prepare delegates for Annual Conference. Our second District Gathering was held on Monday evening September 30, 2013 at Tabernacle UMC. The program was coordinated by Robert Powell focused on the United Methodist Children's Home.

United Methodist Men: The Dothan District United Methodist Men were active this year in continuing to serve their churches and communities. A total of fifteen chapters were chartered with one reactivating. The district is fortunate to have two men, Allen Dunham of Enterprise and Mike Woodham of Dothan, certified as Men's Ministry Specialists. Workshops introducing the Men's Ministry Program are being held and a new covenant group was begun at the Dothan District office based upon John Eldredge's book, "Wild at Heart." UMM groups continue to support the Upper Room Prayer Center and many attended the Annual UMM Advance meeting held at Blue Lake. A special thank you is extended to the Ozark First UMM for hosting the District Pastor's Appreciation Dinner recognizing our current and retired clergy. Activities within the district men's ministry are varied and determined by the local church chapter to include working with local scouting programs, small support groups to assist and grow men's role in the church, support of senior citizens, assisting the disabled, supporting food pantries, conducting Bible and scripture studies, and conducting fund raising activities to support the mission outreach programs of their church.

Pastor Appreciation Banquet: On February 18 Lay Leaders and Staff Parish Relations Chairpersons gathered with their pastors at First United Methodist Dothan for this annual event organized by Robert Powell and the people of First Methodist. The large crowd was treated to a wonderful time of fellowship and to the wisdom of Dr. Eddie Fox, the evening's speaker.

United Methodist Women: Dothan District United Methodist Women had a great 2013. The 22 active units contributed $28,569.19 to the work for women, youth & children. We were able to give four $500 scholarships in honor of Mattie Kolb to students pursuing their degrees around the wiregrass. Our Mission Studies which were held in May at Enterprise UMC and in November at Headland UMC were both well attended. We held Spiritual Day in April at Dothan First UMC and in September we held Annual Day at Elba UMC where our new officers for 2014 were installed.

MOBILE

The Mobile District gives thanks for the gracious work of God among us as we continue to seek his guidance and respond with bold faith. This was a year of great fruitfulness as United Methodists worked shoulder to shoulder to serve the spiritual, emotional, and physical needs of our communities in the name of Jesus Christ. We are awed by the love and power of God made visible through the faithfulness of his people across our district. The lost are being reached, the poor helped, and by the power of the Holy Spirit we are growing in our own walks of faith, becoming more the disciples we were created to be. As we join Jesus in the mission field around us, we have experienced him more deeply, and have developed a new willingness to take whatever risks faithfulness requires.

One such risk was the establishment of Open Doors, a 501c3 established by the district in 2013. It is already bearing much fruit. The organization's first major initiative has been the establishment of the Open Doors Resale and Thrift Shop. Through the hard work and countless hours of volunteers and through the generous donations of United Methodists, the operation has outgrown its original space and now has its own its own expansive retail space. Despite normal start-up costs, the store has already distributed $20,000 to deserving agencies such as the United Methodist Inner City Mission, Dumas Wesley Community Center, the University of South Alabama Wesley Foundation, Mobile Metro Jail Chaplaincy Program, West Wilmer United Methodist Mission Church and United Methodist Babies First. The Open Doors store is currently averaging $1,000 per day in sales! These are monies that will support existing missions and help launch new ones. The beauty of the United Methodist "connection" is in full display as members from many congregations come together to make this ministry possible!

The Catapult Conference returned April 29 - May 1, 2013 and was again graciously hosted by Christ UMC. It was an incredible time of both challenge and encouragement for the missional movement in our Conference. We heard from leading thinkers and practitioners including Rudy Rasmus, Becca Stevens, Lance Ford, Rob Wegner and Hugh Halter. As always, proceeds from the Catapult Conference were given back in the form of grants to help launch new missional initiatives. Many thousands of dollars have been distributed since Catapult began and we rejoice in the long-term effect these grants have had across the connection! The magnitude of this effort is doubling this year as Catapult 2014 will be held September 15 - 17 at both Cornerstone UMC in Auburn and Christ UMC in Mobile. The leadership team of Catapult works tirelessly to provide this transformational event for us and we are grateful for their faithfulness.

The Mobile District received three General Board of Global Ministries Young Adult Missionaries in 2013. Deborah Strausbaugh, Stephanie Norton, and Ash Norton have been a tremendous help in our missional efforts, and we are happy to report that each plans to stay in the Mobile area when they complete the program this fall. We anticipate the arrival of two to four "Global Mission Fellows" in August as part of our district's on-going partnership in the redesigning of GBGM's young adults mission programs.

In November 2013, the North Mobile Sub District inspired us all with their hard work and generosity. The North Mobile Planning Council and twelve churches from the North Mobile District in Washington County raised over $13,000 for the United Methodist Children's Home at their Annual White Christmas Dinner held at Ebenezer UMC! Their sacrificial giving reminded us all of Christmas' real meaning, and their cooperative effort demonstrated again the power of our United Methodist connection and its capacity to do great good when we work together in faithfulness to God.

Our local agencies continue to humble us as they persist in providing critical ministry amidst ever growing needs and scarce resources. They walk in faith, boldly serving in the most challenging contexts, often not knowing how the bills will be paid, but confident that God will ensure they are. Consequently, miracles are experienced regularly at the United Methodist Inner City Mission, Dumas Wesley, Babies First, and the University of South Alabama Wesley Foundation! Our heartfelt thanks goes to each of these ministries, their directors, staffs, and boards, as well as the hundreds of volunteers who serve at each.

The district's United Methodist Women's groups are a profound strength of the Mobile District. They are a major part of missional efforts whether in their local congregations, or at the District, Conference, or denominational level. Their contributions are invaluable. Their pioneering spirit, dogged determination, and immeasurable hours have been instrumental in the Church's missional effectiveness. Our district is also working to launch the Circles of Transformation program later this year. Preliminary meetings and a visit to the program in Pensacola have made us eager to see the program in place across our district. After a district study of works such as "When Helping Hurts" and "Toxic Charity," we are excited to come alongside those in poverty to truly help them overcome the obstacles in their lives and experience the fullness of God's plan for each of them.

The QuadW Missional Internship Program (formerly "3.0") continues to grow. Its goals are to provide a life-changing experience for interns; to serve in under-resourced communities; and to help congregations connect more deeply with their communities. In 2014, the program will include sites in Mobile, Montgomery, Kansas City, and Pine Bluff, Arkansas. The joint effort of churches across the Mobile District has made this an incredibly fruitful ministry in Mobile. Now we look forward to working with others across the country as the internship continues to expand.

At district conference in January we had guest speakers present the material from "Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations" by Bishop Robert Schnase, and "The Wesleyan Way" by Bishop Scott Jones. These books outline important principles and values for ministry that our conference holds in common. Several pastors have already made plans to offer church-wide studies of these books in their own congregations.

Many of our congregations have discovered great purpose and joy in serving God “out there.” As our churches have prioritized the mission of God over their own preferences, they have grown in their discipleship and fruitfulness. Some have launched new worship services designed to reach people different than those in the current congregation. Others have pioneered new Hispanic ministries. Some congregations have embraced ministries for the homeless while still others are focusing on those struggling with addictions. Recognizing the profound needs of our schools, some of our rural churches have launched an effort to provide every elementary school child a new book and every school with a set of “Accelerated Reader” books. The number of community gardens continues to grow and more will be planted in the coming weeks. Several of our congregations are providing food, transportation, and practical help to isolated senior citizens whose basic needs have gone unmet. There just is not adequate space to recount all the Christ-honoring, community blessing ministry happening in and through our churches.

As the new DS in Mobile, I’d like to add a personal note. Before I came to be superintendent here, the Mobile District already had the reputation for taking risks and launching ambitious new ministries. As a pastor, I attended Catapult and brought staff and church leaders here to Mobile to learn about the missional model of ministry and apply these principles in our local setting. Now that I am serving in the role of superintendent in Mobile, I am deeply indebted to my predecessor, Rev. Tonya Elmore, whose vision and labor created a vibrant, permission-giving environment in the Mobile District where new ideas for transforming communities are welcomed and nourished. I hope to build on the excellent foundation that has been laid in the Mobile District. And I trust God will open new doors and provide new opportunities for us to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Respectfully submitted,
Don Woolley, District Missioner
Doug Pennington, Superintendent

MONTGOMERY-OPELIKA

This has been another great year for the Montgomery-Opelika District as we welcomed our new District Superintendent, Dr. Robbins Sims, on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership and that of our District CORE Team, we are together committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Reaching from Brantley to Beulah, the Montgomery-Opelika District encompasses over 4,000 square miles and is home to more than 350,000 people. Our district touches the Coastal Plain, Black Belt, and Piedmont sections of Alabama and is the only district in the Alabama West Florida Conference with churches in both the Central and Eastern Time Zones. Our 85 active congregations are located in open country, towns and cities and range in membership from 7 to over 7,000. There are more than 25,000 United Methodists in our district. An additional 6,000 friends relate to our churches as active constituents. Average weekly worship attendance exceeds 12,000. The Montgomery-Opelika District is also served by 85 dedicated clergy and hundreds of dedicated lay servants/leaders.

The CORE Team conducted planning meetings on August 19, 2013, in Troy, AL, on November 19, 2013, in Montgomery, AL, and on February 20, 2014, in Union Springs, AL. We will meet again on May 22, 2014, in Auburn, AL before the Annual conference in June as we finalize our plans as the host district for our Annual Conference at Frazer UMC in Montgomery.

On January 12, 2014, the Montgomery-Opelika District held its annual District Conference and Lay Academy again at Aldersgate UMC, Montgomery, AL. This conference and lay training was very well attended. During the business session conducted by our District Superintendent, we approved our district nominations for the present term, adopted our budget for 2014, and approved a motion made to contribute $10,000 from the district missions reserve to help fund the construction of a worship chapel at Draper Prison. At the conclusion of our business session, Dr. Sims introduced our Conference-wide emphasis of "Imagine No Malaria." We closed with a moving altar call for our clergy and laity to come forward together to receive the number of lives each respective church would commit to save during this emphasis. Our District as a whole committed to saving 18,000 lives in this effort to eradicate the deadly disease of malaria.

The Lay Academy that day was also equally powerful and informative. For the first time, we divided the clergy and the laity into two classes with a presentation to the laity on the "Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations" led by Micheal Ard and John Croft, and a presentation to the clergy on "The Wesleyan Way" led by Rev. Emily Kincaid and Rev. Michael Precht. For the laity presentation, we set up tables where the laity from similarly-sized churches could sit together and share experiences and ideas about fruitful congregations in churches close to their size as they were guided through the presentation. It was an excellent event.

Finally, as a part of the District Lay Academy, there was a gathering of youth ministers and youth leaders from churches within the district who came together for a meal and a time of worship and sharing. This was organized and led by Rev. Tony Jeck of Aldersgate and proved to be an enormous success – which we will continue to build on at future district lay academies.

Our district has 67 trained certified Lay Servants serving some 100 pulpits and one serving full-time at the Goshen UMC. We also have 21 individuals trained in the Basic Lay Servant course. Although only a small percent choose to fill pulpits, our Lay Servants serve in many other ways including nursing homes, local church Lay Leaders, Sunday school teachers, Bible study leaders, prison ministries, Walk to Emmaus, and as choir members.

Our district is privileged to have four active missions within its bounds. The Auburn University Wesley Foundation, the Troy University Wesley Foundation and the Tuskegee University Wesley Foundation engage hundreds of students in Christian nurture, outreach and witness. Alabama Rural Ministries, located in Auburn, hosts mission teams from our district, conference and all over the country. The churches of our district join others from across south Alabama and West Florida in support of Huntingdon College, Birmingham Southern College, The United Methodist Children's Homes, The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Mary Ellen's Hearth at Nellie Burge, Blue Lake Camp, and other conference-related ministries.

The Montgomery-Opelika District is ripe with opportunities, and we are excited for the future of our church as we move together to SEEK, ENGAGE, NURTURE and DEPLOY making disciples for Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
George Mingledorff, District Lay Leader
Montgomery-Opelika District

MONTGOMERY-PRATTVILLE

We have had a great year in the Montgomery-Prattville District of the Alabama West Florida Conference. Our district consists of 102 churches spanning across a large portion of the geographical area of south central Alabama. We have positive movement from our laity who are enthusiastic and emerging as leaders for our district and conference. The pastors of our district continue to show initiative in their fruitful ministry and leadership development. Many of our clergy take part in monthly covenant groups which seek to learn, love, and be in covenant together. In a year when thirty of our churches received new pastors, new leadership is emerging for our district. This new leadership emerging along with the existing leadership offers hope for the future of our conference, district, and local churches! We currently have 102 churches in our district and this remains the most of any district in the Annual Conference. Our missional giving (apportionment) percentage of 92% also remains among the top districts in the conference. Our district is always quick to work with the major annual conference initiatives. We have a team formed to lead our Imagine No Malaria led by Rev. Gillian Walters. The goal is to save 100,000 lives as a conference and 12,000 lives for our district.

One of the new highlights that come to mind is the new church start with Reverends Elvyn and Bessie Hamilton in our district. The strategy unfolding is a new church with African American leadership. We appreciate the Whitfield Memorial United Methodist Church for providing a hub in which to birth this new church. Our district is providing financial support along with the congregational development of the Alabama- West Florida Conference. We are also continuing to support River City Church in their third year as a restart. There are encouraging signs of life and ministry at River City!

The CORE Team held meetings on March 7, 2013 at St. Luke UMC in Montgomery, on July 25, 2013 at Robinson Springs UMC, and on September 19, 2013 at River City Church in Montgomery. Our District Conference was held on November 17, 2013 at Mulder Memorial UMC. Prior to the start of District Conference, we held training for members of Staff-Parrish Relations Committees. The CORE Team appreciates the hospitality shown by all of our host churches.

The District held an Annual Conference Orientation Session on May 19, 2013 at First UMC in Prattville. Our District continued to support the Children's Home by hosting our annual banquet in conjunction with the Montgomery-Opelika District on October 10, 2013 at Aldersgate UMC in Montgomery. Both Prattville First and Aldersgate did a wonderful job of hosting these events.

The District held our Local Church Academy in January 2013 and January 2014 at First UMC in Montgomery. Special thanks to Rev. Jay Cooper and the staff at First UMC for coordinating these events. Our latest Academy focused on Five Practices of a Fruitful Congregation and The Wesleyan Way. Our session leaders did a wonderful job in bringing these two studies to life. Thanks to Rev. Jay Cooper, Rev. Olivia Poole, and Rev. Steve Reneau for leading the sessions.

Our District was very involved in our Lay Servant Ministries over the past year. The District held lay servant training at Dalraida UMC on August 16-17, 2013. The training offered the lay servant basic course taught by Pat Caylor and three advanced courses that were taught by Dr. Robbins Sims, Dr. Nathan Attwood, and Rev. Steve Reneau, respectively. We are grateful to Dalraida UMC for hosting and to our four awesome presenters.

During 2013, the District had 53 local church and certified lay speakers. Lay speakers filled the pulpits of 28 different District churches a total of 76 times. Lay servants also served throughout the year in nursing homes, schools, prison ministry, and in many other ways. Helen Edwards from our District is serving as Director of Lay Servant Ministries for our Conference and for the Southeastern Jurisdiction. We appreciate Helen's dedication and leadership.

In the summer of 2013, our District formed its first Lay Incubator team. Since mid-summer, 10 lay persons, representing 7 different churches in our District, and our District Superintendent have been meeting every other Thursday morning. We are excited about the possibilities of what may come from the work of this team. The vision is for the team to be generative and reproduce fruitful lay teams across the district with a variety of missional focuses. We are off to a great start!

We were delighted to see our District Office move into the new Conference Headquarters Building in August. We appreciate the work of the Conference Board of Trustees and the Conference Staff in making this move possible and for all the work that went into making it a smooth transition. We especially appreciate the work of our District Secretary, Ashley Epler, in this move. Our District was also pleased to hire a part-time Communications Director, Tori Johnston, who also serves the Montgomery-Opelika District. Tori has already made a positive impact on our District.

David Bowen and Philip McVay are co-writing this district summary. We seek to model this essential element of laity and clergy working in tandem together. I want to thank David for his great leadership in our district. He is involved as our Core Team chair, works tirelessly coordinating our lay servants, was a major leader in our transition in our new conference center, and is a leader for our new incubator team. Thank you David!

We look forward to the new conference year with new leadership developing and emerging both with our laity and clergy.

Rev. Philip McVay, District Superintendent
David Bown, District Lay Leader

PENSACOLA

The Pensacola District includes Escambia, Santa Rosa, and Okaloosa counties in Florida and part of Baldwin County in Alabama. Although we are spread out geographically, we are 50 connected congregations. At the time of our District Conference on November 3, 2013, we were 34,352 members strong and growing. We had 545 baptized members and 629 members join on profession of faith. There are over 15,000 in worship each Sunday. As we celebrate growth in the Kingdom, here are some of the highlights of 2013:

Meltdown, an annual youth event in Panama City Beach, was attended by over 1000 people in late January. Special thanks goes to the many youth directors of our district, to Reverend Stuart Worth, and to the Wesley Foundation of University of West Florida/Pensacola State College for making this happen each year.

In April, Bishop Will Willimon led a session for clergy and laity about the book of Acts at First UMC, Pensacola.

In July, we had a District welcoming event for pastors, lay leaders, SPRC chairs and their spouses. This event was held at the Soundside campus of Gulf Breeze UMC and was well attended.

In August, Rev. Dr. Jeremy Pridgeon called a clergy meeting to cover upcoming District and Conference events, charge conferences, and the state of ministry in our District. First UMC Milton served as our hosts.

First UMC, Crestview hosted one of the Quadrennial Clergy Sexual Ethics Trainings in September.

In October, Rev. Jim White and Gene Schmidt took a group from our district to the Bahamas to work with Bahamas Methodist Habitat. Two of our CORE team members, Rev. Paula Roane and Susan Bleiler, went to assess how we could offer district-wide mission trips in the future, especially for smaller congregations.

At our District Conference at Navarre UMC in November, we tried a new format. We shortened the worship and business meeting, and participants were invited to attend one of about nine breakout sessions. Feedback from these sessions was positive. Concurrent with the District Conference was FUSED event for over 400 youth at the Soundside campus of Gulf Breeze UMC.

In December, we had the clergy Christmas gathering at Destin UMC. At the end of the year, we said good-bye to Rev. Joe Mullen, who is retiring from leading the Pensacola United Methodist Community Ministries where he served for the last seven years.

In January 2014, we hosted the Southeastern Jurisdiction College of Bishops, the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy and the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders in Pensacola. We participated in the General Church initiative, "Imagine No Malaria" during Lent. A new District-wide initiative called "A Moveable Feast" provides quarterly spiritual formation events around the District, drawing on our 2014 emphasis on Passionate Worship. We continue to have vital United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men groups throughout the district, as well as an outstanding number of Certified Lay Servants. We are blessed to have talented and creative clergy, working alongside equally dedicated laity to fulfill the mission of the church to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We look forward to continued opportunities to worship, study, and serve together as we seek to bear witness to the love of Christ on the beautiful Gulf Coast.

CONFERENCE CORE TEAM

It continues to be my privilege to serve as co-chair as the Conference CORE (Connecting Our Resources and Empowerment) Team along with Dr. Steve Furr. The CORE team consists of leaders representing various ministries of the annual conference, at-large and ex-officio members. Meeting four times each year, the CORE team focuses on visioning, new and emerging ministries, evaluation of ministries and setting the budget building process, and preparing the conference budget recommendation to be sent to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

The CORE Team is driven by our mission, "making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world". We express this mission through a SEND model, seek, engage, nurture, deploy. We are seeking leaders, engaging them, nurturing and deploying them in ministry, "so that" they seek others who will be engaged, nurtured and deployed as well.

Through the CORE Team visioning process the Academy for Congregational Excellence (ACE) has been birthed as well as Circles of Transformation. ACE is about developing clergy and lay transformational leaders resulting in more vital and fruitful congregations. Circles of Transformation is about ministry with the poor, the purpose of which to break the cycle of poverty in families and to ultimately transform all involved.

Through the ongoing visioning process an emphasis on clergy wellness and lay partnership emerged. A task force is at work putting together a framework for clergy wellness regarding spiritual, physical, mental/emotional and financial health. This year in our visioning process we sought to deepen our vision concerning the SEND model and how existing ministries in the conference are living into this model. To get a visual of ministries in relationship to the SEND model, each ministry was listed under S, E, N, or D. The result of this exercise indicated the majority of ministries are focused on nurture with some focused on engage and deploy, and the least number focused on seeking. Our attention now will center around the ways and means ministries heavy in nurture can link to the seeking component. The CORE Team has also given emphasis to two specific tools for churches to become more vital and fruitful in ministry. These are The Wesleyan Way and The Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations. The Wesleyan Way is an eight session study focusing on the heart of who we are as United Methodist Wesleyan Christians with the “five practices” detailing five essential ways we live out who we are. We were privileged to have the author of The Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations, Bishop Robert Schnase, with us for Bishops Day Apart With All God’s Servants. Clergy and laity spent the day with Bishop Schnase as he led us in a session on the “Five Practices” and a new resource for conferences, which he has written, called The Seven Levers. Next year for the Bishops Day Apart we will be privileged to have Bishop Scott Jones with us who is the author of The Wesleyan Way. The districts of our conference continue to give emphasis to these resources and have joined together encouraging local churches to utilize them in their ministries.

My deepest gratitude to all who participate in the work of the CORE Team and who lead in the ministries of the annual conference.

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Bishop Leeland, members and friends of the Annual Conference, it is certainly a privilege to serve as co-chair along with Dr. Steve Furr of the conference leadership team, the CORE Team. The CORE Team, consisting of conference ministry leaders, at-large members, and representatives of the cabinet and conference staff, is seeking to engage disciples by serving as a catalyst regarding movement toward generating healthy and fruitful ministries related to the annual conference. We are team oriented and process driven as we use the SEND model, our conference ministry operating model, for fulfillment of our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

I am also privileged to serve as Director of Connectional Ministries (though I once was introduced as the Director of Correctional Ministries), and greatly appreciate our connectional ministries staff. (The conference staff were recognized when this report was given. They include Brittney Herndon, Martha Rovira, Dan Pezet, Susan Hunt, Sandy Gutting, Amelia Fletcher, Laurel and Fred Blackwell, and Traci Herndon.)

In Connectional Ministries we work under four priorities. The first priority is the development of lay and clergy transformational leaders. The Academy of Congregational Excellence (ACE) is the focal point for fulfilling this priority and you will hear directly from ACE in a moment. The second is the creation of new places for new people. We are seeking church planters, church partners, and places within our conference where we need to extend the United Methodist Church gospel witness through planting a new church. Our newest church, The Source, led by Revs. Elvyn and Bessie Hamilton, in Montgomery is a partnership with Whitfield Memorial UMC, the Montgomery-Prattville District, and the Conference Board of Congregational Development. Partnerships are key in new church development and I would encourage you to consider becoming a partner with any of our existing new churches or any new churches we plant in the future. The Source has held two preview services and we are excited about the impact the new church is making.

New communities of faith tend to reach more people than existing congregations as they seek new disciples, engage them, nurture them, and then deploy them in ministry. Developing new faith communities is inherent in our Christian and Wesleyan DNA. I would be delighted to speak to any of you about church planting and about partnering to start a new faith community and about ways existing congregations can start new communities of faith and create new places for new people in their own mission fields.

A third priority is that of embracing ministry with the poor. Our efforts, in addition to the wonderful ministries the agencies related to the conference carry out, are centered in Circles of Transformation. Circles of Transformation is church based and community embraced as a ministry designed to break the cycle of poverty in families. The pilot site is Dothan and this circle began serving families in January of 2013. We are excited that a second group of families in poverty is being recruited as well as volunteer allies to come along-side them in the Circles process that helps people move from dependency to independency. Marianna, Mobile, Montgomery and Panama City are communities that are considering implementing Circles. Brewton, Eufaula, and Selma have leadership teams working towards Circles in their communities. Circles of Transformation is aptly named because families, volunteer allies, and communities are transformed through this process.

The fourth priority is that of cultivating the most vital and fruitful congregations. I am so aware that the world in which so many of us first heard the gospel and responded to it was quite different from the world in which live today. For example, in the United States in 1950, 50% of couples had children that were from infant to age 18. Today in the US, 21% of couples have children from infant to age 18, yet every church I know is seeking couples with children in this age group. That demographic has shrunk significantly since 1950. In addition, more young adults are waiting longer to marry, and yet how many churches have ministries that are geared toward these young adults. Also, 27% of the children in the US live with one parent. In every community, whether it be rural, urban, suburban, or small town, one of the larger segments of the population are single parent families. How many of our churches have ministries geared toward single parent families? We need to be aware as well that the “nevers” and the “nones” are growing. The “nevers” are those who have never been to church. The “nones” are those when asked their religious preference simply indicate “none”. These segments of the population are growing in number. Also, more children of color will be born in 2018 in the US than Caucasian. Now here is where our church is today. Sixty five percent of the builder generation, that is those born before 1940, are in church each week. Thirty five percent of boomers, that is, those born between 1946 and 1980 are in church each week. Fifteen percent of gen x’ers, those born between 1965 and 1984 are in church each week. And the numbers decrease dramatically when you get to the millenials, to 4%, those who are under 30 are in church each week. This means that it is estimated that the total number of deaths each year is predicted to go up every year until 2050 as baby boomers pass away. It is also predicted that there will be 50% more deaths in 2050 than there were in 2010.

This different world presents many challenges and opportunities for us to be the most vital, fruitful congregations we can possibly be. We are blessed with numbers of congregations of varying sizes that are meeting these challenges and engaging these opportunities. But in reality there is significant decline in UMC around the US. Jesus speaks to us at this point through his vision for the church, in a word He gave to His disciples while in Caesarea Philippi. “The Message” has His words this way, “This is the rock on which I will put together my church, a church so expansive with energy that not even the gates of hell will be able to keep it out”. What a vision for the church in 2014. One that is a living organism, a dynamic outreach movement, focused on going where people are, building the body of Christ, starting new communities of faith, crossing those diverse, cultural and ethnic barriers, remembering we are “sent” people who are commissioned to “go” and make disciples. We are compelled to fall in love with our communities again and see the community as our congregation not just our members. We are compelled to see the community as our mission field that calls for us to be missionaries in our own zip codes. This vision calls for us to think of church as a verb so that we “church it” throughout the week and come together in worship to give thanks to God and celebrate all that God is doing through His church. This way of being church is really a way of reclaiming our Christian and Wesleyan heritage.

This is our day and this is our time for us to be the church. What a great opportunity we have to be the church that Jesus envisioned, one so expansive with the authentic, life-giving, grace-filled, love-centered spirit of God that nothing, not even the gates of Hell can keep it out. Would we dare claim this vision for our church? If so, I submit that we will be well on our way of being the most vital, fruitful congregations we can possibly be. May it be so.

Thank you. This concludes my report.

Respectfully submitted,

R. Neil McDavid

ACADEMY FOR CONGREGATIONAL EXCELLENCE (ACE)

2012 marked the first full year of ministry for The Academy for Congregational Excellence, the new agency created to develop leaders for Alabama-West Florida United Methodism. Our vision is: Effective Leaders, Fruitful Churches.

The vision of the Academy for Congregational Excellence is, “Effective Leaders, Fruitful Churches, and a Transformed World.” Our goals and strategies are aligned around raising the level of spiritual leadership for both clergy and laity across the AWF Conference and beyond.

Leadership is a gift and calling from God. The human race is created in God’s image, and we fulfill that by living Godly lives, and sharing God’s love with everyone we meet. God has called us to lead by being disciples of Jesus Christ ourselves, and by His grace, leading others into a transforming relationship with Him. God will not call us to do something that He will not equip us to do. Only God can bring transformation, but we can help by creating the opportunities and environments where others can hear God’s voice and respond with faith.

Everyone leads. The question is, “What kind of leader am I?” And, the accompanying question is, “In what direction am I leading others?” While all do not lead in the same way or at the same level, we all have influence. And, influence is one way of defining leadership. Leaders in any organization or institution have influence. They model the way forward, they do not just tell people what to do. ACE is coming to understand even more clearly that leading is first about our “Being”, and then comes our “Doing”.

ACE is doing some things to raise the level of spiritual leadership, and plans are in place for many more to be offered. We are growing into our vision. We are living our Mission of Discovering, Developing, and Deploying spiritual leaders who will make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The way forward is still unfolding. We are literally, "Building the bridge while we walk on it." Here are some leadership development opportunities that have been offered this year. Some of these we plan to repeat in the next year.

- Becoming a More Effective Leader will be offered again beginning in August. We are trying to line up our offerings with the Conference year rather than the calendar year.
- Body and Soul, a way for persons to grow holistically, by engaging in personal physical training, counseling, and spiritual formation was successful. We hope to offer this again if there is interest.
- Preaching Excellence classes, meeting monthly, were held in 3 locations across the Conference. These were led by gifted pastors who shared their gifts with others. It is our plan to offer these again.
- We are working on a Website that will be a resource for all within the Conference.
- ACE is partnering with other ministries like the Academy for Children's Ministry, and Becoming a More Missional Church (Catapult, eg.).
- Due to requests, we are working on developing personal coaches for clergy.
- We have gone to several churches and talked with them about their current reality, mission, and vision. Also, we have made presentations in District meetings.
- ACE is launching 3 Teams for leader development to Discover, Develop, and Deploy newly strengthened leadership throughout the AWF Conference so our churches will be better equipped to make disciples.
- We are working hard to develop ministries to focus on leader development for laity, and helping people of all ages identify their gifts and callings.

Help us by praying for ACE. Please participate and encourage your pastor and staff to participate in the offerings. Maybe churches can provide scholarships for persons to attend. We try to let each course or offering be self-supporting since we operate on a small budget. Help spread the word about ACE. Contact us in terms of needs and resources that we might need to know about. If you will, put ACE in your budget as you are able.

We exist, not for ourselves as an institution, but to be a means by which we may discover and share all the gifts of God found among us so that the Great Commission and the Great Commandment may be fulfilled.

Respectfully,
Rev. Ronald T. Ball, Executive Director

LEADERSHIP TEAM REPORTS

Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

The Alabama-West Florida Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry (BHECM) is proud of the two United Methodist Colleges and the seven Wesley Foundations to which we relate. We are glad to report that vibrant campus ministry is occurring in each of these places. Through the support of the conference there are full-time campus ministers at Alabama State University, Auburn University, The University of South Alabama, Troy University, and Tuskegee University. Part-Time campus ministers serve at The University of West Alabama and The University of West Florida/Pensacola State College. In each location independent Boards of Directors approved by the BHECM and elected by the Annual Conference provide oversight to the ministries in these locations. These Boards fall under the oversight of the BHECM.

The BHECM approved a plan to raise the level of support for the Wesley Foundation at the University of West Florida/Pensacola State College so that a full-time campus minister can be secured beginning at some point in 2015. This plan requires that the Board of the UWF/PSC Wesley Foundation work in partnership with the Pensacola District and the Marianna/Panama City District and the churches of these districts to raise the additional funds necessary to support this full-time mission and ministry. The current ministry at UWF/PSC is among the largest Wesley Foundation groups in our Annual Conference. It is our hope that this increased support will further the reach of our Methodist campus ministry on what is the Panhandle's largest public university.

I am grateful for the volunteer leaders of the BHECM. The Board meets quarterly at different Wesley Foundation and College locations throughout the connection where we get to see campus ministry first-hand. Each meeting lasts typically 4-5 hours. In addition to these meetings our members serve as liaisons to our campus ministries. We have a hard working and dedicated group of servants who help the church in this role as a labor of love due to their belief in the difference campus ministry can make in the lives of college students across our conference.

It is my joy to serve with them.

General Conference 2012 — the Young Clergy Initiative and the Central Conference Theological Education Fund.

- Ninety-one applications were submitted in the first round of grants from the Young Clergy Initiative. The second round deadline is July 2, 2014. First-round awards will be made in May.
- Proposals for solar electrification of a rural theological school and training teams of pastors to mobilize people to change their communities were among 57 grants for more than $1 million awarded from the $5 million Central Conference Theological Education Fund for Africa, Europe, and the Philippines.
- We hope you will visit our redesigned website (www.gbhem.org). The new site features an enhanced search engine, new content, and a user-friendly reorganization.
- GBHEM has expanded our use of social media. In addition to our new website, we have more than 4,800 followers on Twitter, and more than 1,500 like our Facebook page. We've added Google+, Linked In, and Pinterest, and have beefed up our YouTube channel.
- Technology has enabled us to make our training and resources more readily available to the church. The UMC Cyber Campus and Online Consortium (www.umc-cybercampus) provide free video training sessions and lectures, as well as an online listing of continuing education courses.
- Our Division of Ordained Ministry's 2013 training events, retreats, and webinars reached more than 700 district superintendents, elders, chaplains, clergywomen, deacons, candidates, and annual conference staff.
- The GBHEM and Africa University Boards met jointly on the AU campus in March and witnessed the dedication of the Ubuntu Retreat Center, funded by the West Michigan Conference. The AU Board elected Dr. Munashe Furusa as the new vice chancellor.
- Close to 5,000 AU graduates are changing the African continent. Enrollment in 2013 was 1,480 full-time students from 25 African countries. Women now account for 53% of the student body.
- The Collegiate Ministry office is planning their student gathering, Imagine What's NEXT 2014. NEXT will be held November 7 - 9 in Denver, Colo.

General Board of Higher Education and Ministry

Birmingham-Southern College

Energy and enthusiasm on the Hilltop reflects the energy and enthusiasm of General Charles Krulak who knows each student by name, attends sporting events, and opens his office for students at 7 am each weekday. At 8, the office is at prayer, and by 9, he is diving into his daily routines: making the rounds of offices giving encouragement to staff, dropping by classroom corridors as classes change, having lunch with students, faculty and staff in the caf. His “kids” know they are important not only to the General, but to the College, and to the future of the world and the church.

Energy and enthusiasm comes from the Religious Life office, as well – a place of conversation, fair-trade fresh-brewed coffee all day long, a couch to nap on, a basket of Hershey's kisses, a supply of tissues, and a place to explore the deep questions of heart and soul or find support in troubled times. Enthusiasm is contagious, reaching out to and being passed on by faculty, staff, students, administration, alumni, prospective students and their parents, trustees, organizations and agencies who partner with us, local United Methodist churches and groups, our Bishop, student ministry leaders and youth across the conference.

There is no misconception in the midst of such enthusiasm about the hard work that is necessary. The commitment to hard work is evident from General Krulak, administration, chaplain, faculty, staff, students, alumni, friends, the church ... and goes on – seen and unseen. The campus family is thankful for the efforts, encouragement, resources of the Alabama-West Florida Conference which continues to further strengthen the foundation of Birmingham-Southern.

The financial condition of the College has steadily improved over the past three years. All key financial indicators, total net assets, the change in unrestricted net assets from operations, and cash and cash equivalents at May 31, 2013 reflected increases over the prior year. The College was removed from sanction by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC) in June 2013, and is now undergoing its 10-year-reaffirmation by the SACS-COC.

“No one could be happier than I am to get word of SACS-COC’s decision, which proves what we already knew—that BSC is on sound financial footing. We are more than ready to move on and continue building toward the future, because we’re in it for the long haul. There has been so much to be proud of in the past year: achievements in and out of the classroom, a renewed partnership with the city of Birmingham, and a remarkable display of support from alumni and friends and the United Methodist Church. Now, we’re ready to take what BSC already does best to the next level. BSC’s recent fundraising effort brought in close to $16 million in unrestricted funds; those funds will assist the college in restoring its endowment and buying back debt. At the same time, the college has embarked on a strategic planning process to find ways to continue strengthening your college that Forbes magazine consistently ranks No. 1 in the state of Alabama. That includes building on existing strengths in experiential education and expanding programs so every student who attends has the opportunity to apply what they learn in the classroom hands-on.

“We learned recently that Moody’s Investor Services upgraded Birmingham-Southern College’s bond rating to B3 and gave us a stable outlook. This is the second time in two successive years that our bond rating has been raised. Moody’s is an independent rating agency that is known and respected worldwide. In very simple terms, this is a big deal for the college!! It will have a very positive impact on SACS-COC, on our reputation in academic circles, on our reputation with prospective students, and on our reputation with potential donors. ~ General Charles Krulak

Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP)

Living What You Learn

As part of Birmingham-Southern’s accreditation renewal, the college has enacted a Quality Enhancement Plan that will expand opportunities of intentional learning. The QEP is just one example of how student learning is the center of BSC’s mission. BSC faculty, staff, students, alumni, and community members worked together to design the plan, building on the college’s historical focus of hands-on education and expanding in three core areas, each determined to be a “high-impact” educational practice by the American Association of Colleges and Universities.

They are:

- Student-faculty research - collaborative work between professors and undergraduates that allows students to experience firsthand the processes of scholarly exploration and discovery
- Internships - three-way partnerships between the student, the college, and the internship provider in a supervised work environment
- Service-learning - integrating meaningful service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience and strengthen communities

The Bunting Center for Engaged Study and Community Action
Connecting to the Community and the Church

The Bunting Center for Engaged Study and Community Action (formerly Service-Learning) continues to offer a variety of projects for students to learn through service, enriching their college experience by exploring and engaging in the community outside the gates. Key programs include ongoing community partnerships (below); annual Exploration team projects and alternative spring breaks that offer intensive service experiences in diverse settings; classes in multiple disciplines that integrate service into the curriculum; and activities such as Outreach Day, clothing and meal card drives, and voter registration initiatives.

Community Partnerships

- Blueprints – mentoring program connecting BSC students and low-income high school students
- Bush Hills Academy – tutoring/mentoring students, organizing Student of the Month celebrations
- Desert Island Supply Company (DISCO) – assisting with writing and workshops in creative writing
- First Light Women’s Shelter – prepare and serve dinner, visit with women staying at the downtown Birmingham shelter, and facilitate special events and activities for residents
- Habitat for Humanity – home building in communities near BSC is one of the most popular projects
- NorthStar Youth Ministries – enrichment opportunities such as soccer programs, garden projects, and art classes for moderate income families
- Oak Knoll Health and Rehabilitation – games, stories, sing-a-longs, conversation, and other activities for residents

Alternative Spring Break 2014: ASB programs complement formal classroom learning and give students the opportunity to engage with new communities through service projects, grassroots action, and advocacy. In the process, students learn about the socioeconomic, political and cultural context of the communities in which they serve. There are two student-led sponsored projects this year:

- in Boston, students, faculty and staff will serve with agencies that address the needs of homeless persons;
- in Washington, D.C., students, faculty and staff will engage Capitol Hill and agencies of the UMC as they learn about social justice issues and advocacy as a tool for service.

Students are encouraged to develop their own projects as well, and are assisted in research and resources.

Exploration Team to Ghana

Your loving gifts helped senior Education majors, faculty and staff travel to Avedo, Ghana to teach English at the Bakpa-Avedo Primary School, experiencing cultural immersion through service with the Amekor Foundation. Participation begins in the fall semester with reading assignments, fund-raising, and service projects before arriving to teach and attend class, participating in and leading discussions during class meetings, a reflective journal, and a final reflective essay. The smiles of participants would not give away that this wasn't a vacation! Read their blog:

Religious Life

Exploration, Discernment, and Fellowship

Rev. Jack Hinnen, Chaplain, coordinates programs and services of ministry for students, staff and faculty. Campus worship on Monday allows students to participate in worship, choirs and ministry in local churches on Sunday. Wesley Fellowship as well as Episcopal, Baptist, Reformed University, and Catholic fellowships meet weekly. Small groups offer study and exploration. Internships in children, student and worship ministries allow hands-on experiences for students discerning a call to ministry. Covenant discernment groups offer opportunity for students preparing for ordained ministry to articulate their call, identify gifts, and develop personal creed. In addition to duties on campus the Chaplain also continues to preach in local congregations, support Sumatanga, and help students navigate God's call on their lives. As a pastoral presence on campus Jack can provide support for faculty, staff, and students no matter what challenges present themselves.

Imagine No Malaria

United Methodist students and Panther Basketball have once again partnered to support Imagine No Malaria. The BSC project – Veto the 'Squito – sponsored 512 nets (500 net goal). The purchase of a Veto the 'Squito tee-shirt represented one net and food at identified games. Faculty and staff sponsored nets in honor and memory of others. Bishop Wallace-Padgett and Adlene Kufarimai - both who know malaria needs first hand - were on hand for the presentation of gifts at the end of regular basketball season. The event was also the annual game open to all youth groups. Those who attend toured the campus, were hosted for dinner, received recognition and BSC items, and their own malaria efforts were acknowledged at half-time.

Office of the Chaplain

"This year has been my favorite yet as Chaplain! We are continuing to take seriously our charge to make disciples of Jesus Christ by taking risks and changing lives. This past year we've done that in a lot of ways. These may not be revolutionary but they are definitely improvements. We've expanded our Religious Life Leadership Team to 25 students with an array of responsibilities. I've been really excited with Laura Sisson's efforts with "Imagine No Malaria" on campus. Worship attendance is up to 65 on weekly average. There are a handful of students going to seminary when they graduate. The Wesley Fellowship continues to have 30 students who converse about a range of issues surrounding faith on a college campus. In so many ways students are being invited to stay connected to Christ through service, worship, and study. In January BSC approved my class, 'Harry Potter: Bigger than Jesus?' which looked at the theological implications of J.K. Rowling's book series. This past Spring Break I was blessed to take a group of students to Boston to serve the homeless and learn why that is a problem. We continue to seek ways to engage students outside as well as inside the Chapel. I pray next year is even better!" ~ Jack Hinnen

Office of Church Relations

"We continue to connect students and the Church as partners in service: East Lake UMC, Urban Ministry, West End Community Garden, Canterbury's Stop Hunger Now and Carpenter's Hands, Festival of Three Kings, McCoy Adult Day Care, and Imagine No Malaria (Veto the 'Squito). In addition, students serve coffee at Church of the Reconciler and serve with Family Promise (formerly Birmingham Hospitality Network) and M-Power through several church programs. Conference gifts to scholarships make a difference to EVERY student and family who receives one. Currently, scholarships are: need-based United Methodist Scholarship and Church and College Partnership awards, and both Ministerial Family and Ministerial Student tuition assistance programs. Thank you, thank you, thank you. I am privileged that my work takes me to local congregations and groups as well as brings groups to the campus. We continue to offer a labyrinth ministry for special programs, speaker's program, and Jack Hinnen and I are active in summer camp programs at Sumatanga (we would love to come to Blue Lake!). The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's division for schools, colleges and universities continues to give support to us, and highlights our many programs to other campuses. The endowed Chaplaincy, endowed Programs for Ministry, and conference scholarship programs are rare. BSC is blessed by the support, encouragement and involvement with the Alabama-West Florida Alabama Conference." ~ Laura Sisson

Huntingdon College

Huntingdon College defines itself as a “College of the Church,” as distinguished from a “church-related college,” a “church-affiliated college,” or a college “historically related” to the United Methodist Church. As a College of the Church, Huntingdon structures its educational program intentionally and specifically to support the focus of the United Methodist Church, as defined by the General Conference, in “developing principled Christian leaders for the Church and the world.”

Huntingdon College is committed to an educational philosophy which holds that, in the 21st Century, a College of the Church must prepare students to live as citizens who are well-informed about their own religious communities of faith and about the other major religions of the world. As a part of this preparation, students must be encouraged to explore the most basic question facing all human beings: “What am I called to be and to do with my life?” All students at Huntingdon take four Religion courses as a part of their 36 hour general education core curriculum -- Biblical Interpretation, Comparative Religions, History of Christianity, and a fourth course on vocational discernment which is now under development and tentatively entitled, “Leading a Life that Matters: What We Should Do and Who We Should Be.” Students are encouraged in these classes to explore ultimate theological questions and issues of faith. We believe that our mission as a College of the Church demands no less and, in fact, that a student educated in the liberal arts tradition in the 21st Century is fully educated only when he or she is equipped with this kind of knowledge, self-understanding and wisdom.

To support this philosophy and mission, Huntingdon has built a full-time Religion faculty of seven teacher/scholars who are committed both to their academic disciplines and to the ministry of the Church. These seven men and women teach broadly across the Religion curriculum but bring to bear their specific areas of academic expertise in the classroom experiences of our students: Old Testament Interpretation, New Testament Interpretation, Historical and Systematic Theology, Philosophy, Christian Ethics, History of Christianity, American Religious History, Christian Worship, United Methodist Studies, Christian Education and Youth Ministry. During fall semester 2013, the Religion faculty prepared a Statement on Calling, Gifts and Mission which I submit to you below. In this Statement, written on behalf of the Religion faculty by Dr. Jason Borders, you will find reflected a heart-felt commitment to the ministries and mission of the United Methodist Church:

Our Calling & Gifts

What we teach, who we serve, and how we grow should remain focused on who we are called to be as teachers/scholars. As a Program, we are called to serve Christ's Church as ministers of the Gospel. We do so from a distinctively Wesleyan understanding of knowledge and vital piety. That is, the life of the mind goes hand in hand with the life of faith.

We are not a religion program, in a general sense. We are, more specifically, a Biblical/theological studies program. Our calling as ministers, our gifts as teachers and our preparation as scholars support this. Our respective degrees and training especially equip us for preparing students for a variety of Christian vocational opportunities and further graduate study.

Our Mission

Our mission is to advance the cause of Christ in the world as expressed through the Church. Currently, we do this by preparing students for further graduate study and church leadership as well as for Christian and youth ministries. Our particular denominational emphasis is United Methodism, although, in the spirit of Methodist higher education, we recognize that the One Body has many denominational perspectives.

As part of Huntingdon College, we also have institutional commitments. In no small part, we serve the institution by our participation in the core curriculum. Our mission, however, is much larger. Much as Huntingdon claims to be a "College of the Church," we, too, understand ourselves as a "Program of the Church." Our mission, building on our collective calling and individual gifts, is to prepare young persons for service to the Church through further graduate study (particularly seminary) and a variety of Christian and youth ministries.

Ultimately in the world of higher education, we judge the effectiveness of our programs by the “outcomes” exhibited by our students. The outcomes of students in our Religion Program, seen in light of their service to the Church and their undergraduate and graduate school records, are superb. In this report, I will mention several students currently in seminary or admitted to seminary, most of whom are from the two conferences that support Huntingdon College -- the Alabama - West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference. One common trait exhibited in the lives of these students, over and beyond their commitment to Christian ministry, is their involvement as Huntingdon undergraduates in a wide variety of campus activities. Most of them are members of sororities or fraternities, and several of them are or were student-athletes. Most of them received significant pre-seminary practical experience in ministry through internships in either local churches or social service organizations. Through these extra-curricular and co-curricular activities, they learned social skills in various settings populated by a diversity of individuals culturally, ethnically and religiously and, thereby, learned how to work in teams effectively to serve the advancement of the Gospel.

Among Huntingdon’s just-graduated and current seminarians and students admitted to seminary for fall 2014 are:

Woods Lisenby, from First United Methodist Church, Dothan, Alabama, completing his studies at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, who has served while in seminary on the staff of First United Methodist Church, Prattville, Alabama. At Huntingdon, Woods was the recipient of the Senior Loyalty Award, voted by his peers in the senior class; was a founding father of Sigma Nu fraternity; led the Emerge worship service weekly; and interned at St. James United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama.

Colby Leonard, a native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and member of First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, completing his second year at Duke Divinity School. Originally a pre-med major at Huntingdon, Colby discerned his call to ministry while an undergraduate and switched his major to Religion in order to prepare for seminary studies.

Brittney Gilliland, who came to Huntingdon from the North Alabama Conference and now serves on the staff of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, currently taking courses on-line as a seminarian at Asbury Theological Seminary.

Rhett Butler, from Eclectic United Methodist Church, Eclectic, Alabama, completing his first year at Duke Divinity School as a Divinity Fellow, which is the Divinity School’s most prestigious academic scholarship award. At Huntingdon, Rhett was a leader in Campus Ministries; interned at St. James United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama; was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity; and served as a College Ambassador.

Daniel Davis, from St. James United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, completing his first year at Yale Divinity School. Daniel is pursuing a ministry in academic teaching and will be studying in Heidelberg next academic year, having distinguished himself among his classmates at Yale for his skill in Hebrew. At Huntingdon, Daniel served an internship at the Southern Poverty Law Center and was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Abby Carter, from Providence United Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina, completing her first year at Duke Divinity School. Abby served in a parish ministry internship placement last summer in North Carolina and will be serving again this summer in a parish ministry internship. At Huntingdon, where she began to discern her call to ministry, Abby was a Psychology major, a Student Ambassador, and a member of Phi Mu sorority and the varsity volleyball team.

Taylor Claire Bean, from First United Methodist Church, Hartselle, Alabama, admitted to Candler School of Theology and Duke Divinity School for fall 2014. At Huntingdon, Taylor Claire has been a leader in Huntingdon Campus Ministries; has interned at First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama; has served as a Student Ambassador; and is a sister of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Macon Armistead, from First United Methodist Church, Hartselle, Alabama, awarded the Divinity Fellowship to Duke Divinity School and beginning his first year seminary studies at Duke in fall 2014. Coming to Huntingdon as a transfer student for his sophomore year, Macon spearheaded the formation of the College Drama Club; was a founding father of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity; and served an internship at First United Methodist Church, Tallassee, Alabama, under the leadership of Huntingdon alumnus and former chaplain Dave Barkalow.

Jack Allen, from Trinity United Methodist Church, Fort Walton Beach, Florida, admitted to Candler School of Theology for fall 2013 and deferring his matriculation to fall 2014. Currently, Jack is serving full-time as college minister at First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, where he previously interned. At Huntingdon, Jack was a Student Ambassador and a member of the varsity men's soccer team.

Stephen Barebo, from First United Methodist Church, Fort Walton Beach, Florida, admitted to Candler School of Theology and Duke Divinity School for fall 2014. At Huntingdon, Stephen served in the leadership of Huntingdon Campus Ministries; interned at First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama; and was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

These young men and women are, indeed, "principled Christian leaders for the Church and the world," nurtured in "knowledge and vital piety" at Huntingdon College for their next steps in graduate education and professional vocations. Certainly their faith formation began in their homes and in their local church faith communities. Indeed, The Book of Discipline specifies that the mission and ministry of each local church and of each elder and member in full connection in United Methodism includes the responsibility to identify young men and women with the gifts and graces for vocations in Christian ministry. One reason that I, as a United Methodist elder, am so deeply committed to the Religion Program at Huntingdon College is that I consider my advancement of the Religion Program to be the means by which I can live out my vocational charge to identify and nurture the next generation of leadership in the United Methodist Church.

Please help us in our ministry at Huntingdon by sending us the names and contact information of high school students whom you believe are gifted for ministry and are uniquely fitted for the educational and vocational experience Huntingdon offers. My email address is camwest@huntingdon.edu, and my office telephone number is 334/833-4409. Thank you for your generous financial support, for entrusting to us the lives of your young people, and for your partnership in the ministry of Jesus Christ.

Faithfully,
Cam West

WESLEY FOUNDATIONS

The Wesley Foundaion at Alabama State University

The Wesley Foundation at Alabama State University is thrilled to share how God is manifesting God's self in our ministry of service to God and neighbor through the core tenets of our organization: Outreach, Worship, Fellowship, Discipleship and Missions. Through these core values, our students are gaining ground spiritually while connecting with the Montgomery community as well as building healthy life long relationships with their peers in our several Wesley Foundation programs.

Outreach

In 2013, the Wesley Foundation at ASU engaged in several forms of outreach in the local Montgomery community and in the ASU community. During the 2013, our student leaders participated in the Day of Service at Friendship Women's Shelter, volunteered with the upkeep of a local church's community garden, hosted an on campus HIV/AIDS testing and education event where we tested several students and assisted with providing lunch bags for the Friendship Shelter. On an average, we have between 10 - 15 student leaders participate during outreach events.

Worship

This year, we added a new worship service to our agenda. Every last Thursday of the month, our students participate in a worship service with varying worship expressions. During this time, our student leaders develop their leadership skills through liturgy, facilitating peer dialogue, hospitality, praise and worship and program planning. Our most memorable worship service involved a relationship dialogue where several students became members of the Wesley Foundation. The Worship space is a wonderful tool for building rapport with ASU students. On an average we have between 25 - 60 students participating in our worship events.

Fellowship

Fellowship activities take on various forms as the Wesley Foundation at ASU seeks to fortify a solid relationship with the students as we grow stronger in our Christian faith. These activities are decided by the student leaders and the participants of WF events are invited to take part in fellowship opportunities. This year our activities included two end of the semester fellowship outings, one retreat, several fellowship dinners, after church visits, and game/movie night. On an average, we have between 20-35 students participating during our fellowship activities.

Discipleship

Each student leader is considered a disciple of Christ and is equipped for discipleship through the various WF programs that reflect effective Christian living. Corporate discipleship is promoted through the implementation of our dorm sessions and worship events. Discipleship for the Wesley Foundation at ASU encompasses biblical study, service, worship and fellowship opportunities.

Mission

This year, our students participated in several mission projects locally and internationally such as, volunteering at the Friendship Mission Shelter, Friendship Mission Food Bank, facilitating VBS and planting trees with the Mission of Hope in Port au Prince, Haiti, volunteering at the Family Sunshine Women's Shelter, hosting our annual HIV/AIDS Testing and Education, hosting relationship forums on campus and participating in Beautification day at ASU. The Wesley Foundation at ASU also hosts several empowerment sessions in the female and male residence halls as an on campus mission effort to increase peer support. On an average between 5 - 20 students participate during our mission activities.

Our students are excited about their bright future in Christ and are passionate about transforming communities as they remain connected to the work they have invested in at the Wesley Foundation at ASU. Most of all, I am elated to be the campus minister of such wonderful young theologians and I strive daily to provide effective and cohesive Christian activities that will produce well rounded servants to the world.

Progressive Love,
Rev. Charity C. Starr, Director

Troy University Wesley Foundation

The vision of the Troy University Wesley Foundation is to fully experience God's love and to reflect God's love to all creation.

The mission of the Troy University Wesley Foundation is to fully experience God's love by providing a safe community for all students. The mission assists to introduce or maintain Christianity as a priority for undergraduate and graduate students.

Program Ministry

The Troy Wesley Foundation helps students to experience God's love in community with each other throughout the week. We have grown in our knowledge of God and God's creation, and our community. For the last decade, Common Meal has been a signature weekly event at the Troy University Wesley Foundation. Through this fellowship dinner, we share the love of Christ with students and staff. In years past, local churches or other groups have made meals for students to enjoy. Common Meal is offered to all students and staff on campus free of charge and is often the way new students become active at the Troy University Wesley Foundation. We believe that in Common Meal students, some of whom are not Christians, are able to see the living Christ. As they become more active in the Wesley, they are able to experience the love of Christ through Bible studies, worship services, and more. They are able to live out Christ's mission to their local community through local missions and international missions. In the often lonely years of college, students are able to be part of an amazing community that is centered in love and mission of Jesus Christ.

We have also started a Bible Study on Wednesday nights where we serve the sacrament of Holy Communion. We have walked through the book of Ephesians and are now looking into Galatians. The students have enjoyed the verse by verse study of these letters. We have grown numerically but more importantly, our students are growing spiritually. They are asking hard questions and studying to find those answers.

Special Events

We offered several special events to introduce students to programs to encourage and grow the community at the Troy University Wesley Foundation. An Opening Cookout welcomed students back to school.

Stewardship

Students continually found ways in the last year to work together to best utilize their God-given gifts. Students planned fellowship and outreach events, completed service projects, cooked meals, provided worship music, led small groups, made relationships, and had fund raisers to support the Troy Wesley Foundation. We parked cars at football games. Our eighth annual golf tournament took place in the spring at the Troy Country Club. Our board of directors got really involved in fundraising in the last year as well. They are now excited to be holding their "Taste of Heaven" fundraiser each fall. This is not only a fundraiser but a way that local churches have been able to fellowship together.

What our students are saying

“The Wesley is an amazing place and the people who go there are genuinely great people that I probably would not have had the chance to meet otherwise. The Wesley allows me to become closer to God by simply learning more about him and it also gives me a group of people who just simply help me through life. ”

“I’m excited to see what the Wesley has in store for this campus. It is my goal that by the time I graduate the Wesley will be talked about all over campus! That there will be a buzz and everyone will want to know what got into those Wesley kids!”

“The Wesley Foundation is family.”

“The Wesley is a safe place. It’s my haven where I can get away from the world. I’m not alone there.”

“I find comfort and joy in this place and am able to take a deep breath every time I walk in the doors. My family was so worried about my faith coming to college and because of the Wesley my family takes pride in me finding a home away from home.”

We thank you for the opportunity to serve the students and staff of Troy University. We feel that our presence on campus positively impacts the lives of many young people as we strive to reflect God’s love to all creation. Please keep us in your prayers as we continue our ministry at Troy University.

Elaine Brown, Director

University of South Alabama Wesley Foundation

College can be a very difficult time in a young adult’s life. Students often struggle with new freedoms, information that is seemingly contrary to common Christian assumptions, and a number of social issues that all too often lead to loneliness and even depression. We offer refuge from these things, as well as equipping students to go out and serve. The USA Wesley Foundation exists to connect college students to the abundant life found in Jesus Christ. We do this by helping students GROW their faith in Christ, CONNECT with other students in Christian fellowship, and SERVE their neighbors in response to the love of Christ.

Grow

Wesley helps students grow their faith primarily through Bible studies, worship services and small groups. We call our weekly flagship event a Bible study, but it is more like a worshipful discipleship experience than a discipleship class. At this event we connect with God through scripture, prayer, and reflective exercises. Wesley also has accountability and encouragement groups. These are loosely based on the early Holy Club of early Methodism. Groups of men or women that get together once a week to be “iron sharpening iron” for each other by keeping each other accountable to growing in their faith and serving Christ. Finally, we have a W.O.B.S. (Wesley Online Bible Study) where students read scripture every day and then blog about their thoughts and questions that deal with that scripture. Other Discipleship opportunities include retreats, prayer team, etc.

Connect

Christian fellowship is vital for college students. Some of the fellowship events we do are: tailgating, game nights, guys’ nights, girls’ nights, weekly dinners, etc. The Wesley Wombats intramural teams are also a lot of fun. Some fellowship events are weekly while others are more spread out. We also actively engage other students on campus through outreach. Our normal outreach involves setting up every month or so on campus for Wesley students to do things like pass out free drinks, pencils, and cookies, etc. These are the kinds of things that brighten the day of other students and sometimes start meaningful conversations about life and faith. We also do a freshman community group every Fall. This is a weekly small group experience just for freshmen. We have a great asset for ministry in our building (for which we are very thankful), but we are working hard on some ways to do more ministry outside of our building. Events on campus are essential to productive outreach.

Serve

We believe in loving our neighbors. We strive for students to be in mission wherever they are. We want mission to be who we are, not just something we do every now and then. We offer opportunities for students to get out of their normal comfort zones and experience God in different contexts. We do this through opportunities on the local, regional and international levels.

Board of Directors

USA Wesley has a healthy board that meets every other month. Along with normal board responsibilities, our board organizes two big fundraisers a year. One fundraiser is to help us with programming, the other with the mortgage on our building. We are incredibly blessed to have some great leadership on our board. I have board members checking in with the me and the ministry every week. My board is very helpful if and when needs arise. This board has worked very hard to reduce the amount of debt we have on our building, and to keep our finances in a healthy place. I am thankful to the board for their commitment to keeping this Wesley foundation financially healthy.

Finally, Wesley has something that (to my knowledge) it has never had before. There is now an endowment set up through the UM Foundation that awards a Wesley leader a scholarship each year. This amazing opportunity was set up through our board president, Jody Dunn and his family. This is very exciting for Wesley and we look forward to awarding the first scholarship this summer. USA Wesley is thankful to the Conference and the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for its continued support and investment in the church’s future.

John Peters, Director

University of West Alabama Wesley Foundation

The University of West Alabama Wesley Foundation is the United Methodist College Campus Ministry located just off the UWA Campus in Livingston, Alabama.

Our 2013-14 theme verse comes from 1 Thessalonians 5:11, "Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up just as you are doing." This ministry is definitely encouraging as we live together, pray together, and share God's Word with each other daily. We are a 10-room residence facility along with the many activities offered to all students on the UWA Campus.

The UWA Wesley Foundation is an active, ongoing fellowship for all and all feel welcome at the Wesley 7 days a week.

Our signature event is "Mondays At the Wesley," that provides dinner, praise/worship, student-led Bible study and fellowship each and every Monday night during the school year at the Wesley Foundation. Approximately 35 students come each week for this main event. A local church or group from the Demopolis UMC District or Livingston Community has provided our meals each week, therefore, this event touches the lives of our students as well as helping the surrounding area see and feel all that God is doing at the Wesley. We have also enjoyed Movie Night on Thursday nights as another opportunity to gather and experience Christian fellowship.

The UWA Wesley Foundation has participated in two local missions this year: "Coloring With Kids" and two Food Drives for the Sumter County Department of Human Resources. "Coloring With Kids" is a newly-introduced mission. Twice each month, we go into the local community to a pre-planned location that has a group of children. With new coloring books and crayons in hand, the Wesley students sit and color "with" the children for 30 minutes and allow each child to take their new coloring book and crayons home with them. The Wesley students give the gift of time. In today's society, with single-parenting homes and two parents working, we felt that the gift of time was something that these students could do. They do and they do it extremely well. Prayerfully, each child goes home feeling special and loved by God. It also allows our college students to take a much-needed break from the stress of studying, exams and other worries that they carry with them each and every day. The UWA Wesley Foundation also plans to have a team ready for this spring's Relay for Life!

One highlight of our year has been winning the Float Contest in this year's Homecoming Parade! The students designed their plan and after much hard work, won 1st place with a float that shared the Word of God with everyone as they passed by. This was an awesome event! Another highlight of our year has been having a Campus Prayer Vigil in honor of several students suffering tremendous trauma. It was an honor to host this event and witness to the power of prayer on Campus.

Many lives are impacted through the ministries of the UWA Wesley Foundation

... through giving the “gift of time” in our “Coloring With Kids” local mission, to every hand that receives a flyer and invitation to join us at our weekly “Mondays At the Wesley,” to anyone that read the Bible verse of encouragement on our 2013 Homecoming Float, to the many volunteers who bring dinner each week to the Monday night students and Wesley residents, to the hungry souls fed through the Food Drives and my life has been touched as well. Together, this ministry is definitely being a bright beacon of light for Christ on the UWA Campus.

We thank the Alabama/West Florida Conference and churches within for your continued support of God’s mission and ministry at the UWA Wesley Foundation.

Teresa Seevers, UWA Wesley Foundation Director

University of West Florida and Pensacola State College

Highlights of this year:

1. The number of students attending continues to increase with new faces regularly appearing.
2. Commitments to Jesus Christ are being strengthened and disciples are being made.
3. We are now sending college students out in twos to serve in local churches as youth workers. We call them Wesley Mentors.
4. There is much discussion of bringing the Wesley Director position to full time.

Basic structure: We meet every Monday night at 5:30 for a Bible based discussion. Thursday nights we meet at 9:00 for a more topical discussion. Each night our band plays and we worship, fellowship, and study what God is doing in our world. On Wednesday we have lunch together at 11:30. We do several mission projects such as Habitat for Humanity, wheelchair ramps, and SIFAT. We participate in Connect which is our big campus ministry gathering for our conference. Our Wesley provides most of the leadership for the youth event Meltdown that is held every year in Panama City Beach. At this time we have no physical structure but we are starting the discerning process.

What you can do to help:

1. Please pray for our students the two colleges they attend and for the leadership of Wesley.
2. If you know of students that will be attending UWF or PSC please let them know about us and let us know about them.
3. As we move this Wesley Foundation towards a full time director position please consider making us a part of your financial giving.
4. Cookies. We have some great UMW who make us cookies but we could always eat more.

Conference Board of Laity

The Board of Laity has been focused on training the laity to make a difference in the world in which we live as we seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Board of Laity participated in a training session led by Rev. Neil McDavid that focused on Bishop Schnase's Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations. Having representatives from each of the districts in our meeting, there's a hope that we can encourage these practices throughout the churches in our districts. Following this, the members of the laity were invited to spend a day with the clergy at the Bishop's Day Apart featuring Bishop Schnase. These events have been learning times in which we've tried to take the information and use it in ways to reach out into the world.

The Board of Laity has just recently approved two teaching documents. The first one you will see at the end of this report. The first one focuses on the role of the lay member of annual conference. We hope that lay members will take the time to familiarize themselves with their roles and responsibilities. The second document is a power point which can be found on our conference website at www.awfume.org/ministries/lay_leadership/board_of_laity. This focuses on the responsibilities of a lay leader and exactly what their job is within their local church. We believe this document will be helpful as we seek to train our lay leaders to better serve in our local churches.

We express our thanks to Barbara Bolen and George Mingledorff for helping to bring together the document on lay members. We also extend our thanks to Beverly Maddox for pulling together the power point on lay leader training. We continue to express our deep appreciation to Bishop Leeland as he continues to work to partner with the laity as we seek to transform not only ourselves but also our churches in the world in which we live. We would do well to remember the words of Mother Theresa who said "Small things done with great love can change the world." As we seek to go through these processes we should also remember the words of Henry David Thoreau when he said "Things do not change, we change." It is hoped that as we change the people will see the difference in us and see the change that causes them to work and grow into the likeness of Christ.

Conference Lay Leader

The Role of the Lay Member of Annual Conference

From Lay Leader/Lay Member 2013-2016, Copyright © 2012 by Cokesbury, Used by permission

Lay members of annual conference, along with the pastor, interpret the work done by the annual conference session to the congregation. They are the liaison between the congregation and the general church and represent the congregation in the actions taken at the annual conference sessions. The Discipline requires that lay members of annual conference be professing members of the United Methodist Church for two years preceding their election and active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years before their election (§ 602.4).

The lay member

- Participates in the annual conference sessions and votes on all matters except those pertaining to ministerial relations.
- Reports to the congregation in the week following the annual conference session and to the church council at its next meeting after the close of the conference session. The Discipline states that the report to the church council must be within three months of the close of the session.
- Interprets actions taken at annual conference.
- Serves as a member of the staff/pastor-parish relations committee, church council, and finance committee.

You and the other lay members to annual conference will be serving with an equal number of clergy members. This is an opportunity to listen and learn from each other and to experience a greater variety of God's human creation than you may experience in your local congregation. You will meet and work with people from different size churches; various cultures; urban, rural, and suburban congregations; and a wide variety of professions, life experience, and economic levels. Take advantage of this opportunity by getting acquainted with people sitting near you. Celebrate the diversity of The United Methodist Church!

Annual conference covers a time span of three to five days, and generally meets in June. The bishop may occasionally call extra sessions if there is emergent business. Your pastor or district superintendent can inform you about meeting dates, or you can check the annual conference website (www.awfumc.org).

Responsibilities of the Lay Member

The lay member to annual conference has many responsibilities, some before the annual conference session, others during, and still more following the session. If you are employed, you will have to take time from work to attend these gatherings. When the dates are announced, take care to plan with your employer for the necessary days of vacation. It is important that you attend the entire annual conference session.

PREPARE FOR THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Study the pre-conference journal and materials that are submitted for action by the annual conference. These materials may be mailed to you several weeks before annual conference or may be available on the annual conference website (www.awfumc.org).

To prepare, you should:

- Attend any pre-conference district meetings and training sessions.
- Discover your annual conference process for conducting business. For example, some conferences operate with Robert's Rules of Order (parliamentary procedure); other conferences operate with discernment processes and consensus. Your pastor or annual conference office can help you prepare before your first session.

- Develop a general knowledge of the Book of Discipline.
- Meet with the pastor, lay leader, and congregation members to discuss issues that will be a part of the annual conference business.
- Note issues and concerns that need to be taken to the annual conference session.

PARTICIPATE DURING ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- Attend the annual conference laity session. This may be a training event, a form of information sharing, or a time to celebrate the ministry of the laity in your annual conference.
- Participate in all sessions dealing with annual conference business. During business sessions, you will be asked to vote on legislation, resolutions, reports, and budget.
- Listen to proceedings in order to make informed decisions when voting. You do not have to vote the same as other members from your congregation, and you may abstain if you do not feel qualified to vote on a particular issue. You must hold in mind the tension between the ministry of the Church in the world and the interests of your own congregation. Sometimes you might choose to vote for the “greater good” on issues that may (or may not) have a direct impact on your congregation and issues that may even increase your local church budget. Examples might be an increase in budget for mission work, work to curb violence that is not part of your local community, a position on a social issue on which all members of your congregation do not agree. In these instances, you have the role of explaining and educating your congregation about the issues.
- Participate in all worship experiences (opening worship, early morning or evening chapel, ordination, memorial service, and others). You will have opportunities to experience several worship styles, hear a variety of music groups and preachers, and join in new ways to worship God.
- Attend plenary and Bible study sessions. Annual conference sessions can be an excellent way to grow spiritually.
- Explore the resource display to gather information and ideas for ministry in your congregation. During fellowship events, at display tables, and in casual conversation you will learn about The United Methodist Church in new ways. Participate fully with anticipation of new ways God might come to you.

A spiritual discipline for conference is journaling! Write your reflections about proceedings, discussions, worship experiences, special ceremonies, music, and so on as preparation for later sharing with your congregation. Keep an accurate record of the votes taken that will have impact on the congregation's finances, operations, and ministry.

SERVE AFTER ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Attendance at the annual conference session is the basis for the work you will do in your congregation throughout the year.

- Share information with your congregation about your experience. Remember that the report to the congregation is to be given within the following week and the report to the church council at the next meeting or no later than three months after the annual conference session.
- Search websites and general Church news sources and your annual conference newspaper for information to share with your congregation throughout the year.
- You may also choose to participate in annual conference or district committees or work areas.

2016 GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES LAITY DELEGATE ELECTION PROCESS DEFINED

The Alabama-West Florida Conference will elect its delegation to the 2016 General and Jurisdictional Conferences during the 2015 Annual Conference Session in Montgomery on May 31 - June 3.

The General Conference is the global gathering of the United Methodist Church where mission and ministry priorities are established and The Book of Discipline is reviewed for possible revisions. The General Conference is the policy setting body of United Methodism. The 2016 General Conference will be held on May 10 - 20 in Portland, Oregon.

The purpose of the Jurisdictional Conference is to coordinate the connected ministry and mission of this region and to elect and assign Bishops for leadership in the Church. Dates for the 2016 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will be July 13 - 16, 2016 at Lake Junaluska in North Carolina.

Conference Delegate Entitlement

The Alabama-West Florida Conference is allowed five (5) clergy and five (5) lay delegates to General Conference. An additional five (5) clergy and five (5) lay delegates will be chosen to complete the Jurisdictional Conference delegation. Four (4) alternate clergy delegates and four (4) alternate lay delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference will also be elected. The 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church defines who is eligible to serve as a delegate and who is eligible to vote for delegates. (See Frequently Asked Questions below.) Conference Standing Rule 13A specifies that the Alabama-West Florida Conference shall pay the expenses (the same per diem and travel expenses that the General Church pays for delegates) of only one more alternate delegate, lay and clergy, to the General and Jurisdictional conferences.

Conference Delegate Expectations

The Conference Board of Laity (CBOL) offers opportunity to all eligible lay members and seeks to inform interested persons of the qualifications, commitment and expense involved in the process. Delegates can expect significant expenditures of time, preparatory study and personal funds in representing the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Following are examples for consideration:

- Delegates must commit a minimum of four weeks in a travel status within the three-month period from April through July 2016 to attend the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, the General Conference, and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.
- Additionally, there are four (4) to six (6) meetings of the conference delegation in preparation for General and Jurisdictional conferences
- General Conference, in particular, requires extensive preparatory study plus protracted hours of continuous daily meetings during the two-week period surrounding conference.
- Commit the time necessary to read and study the issues and pray for God's guidance in decision making.
- Most delegates find that the per diem provided for the General and Jurisdictional conferences will not cover all expenses incurred as a delegate, necessitating use of personal funds.

Delegate Nomination and Election Process

A. Nominations

Those Alabama-West Florida United Methodists who wish to be nominated as a lay delegate to General and Jurisdictional conferences may be nominated at their district meeting, which will be held prior to February 15, 2015. Each district will select no more than five (5) lay nominees. These nominees will be asked to provide to their district superintendent or district lay leader a photograph and a completed standard (single page) Delegate Profile Sheet. Completed profile sheets may be distributed to individuals attending the district meeting. Other individuals who wish to be a candidate for lay delegate should also provide a photograph and a standard profile sheet. The candidate profile sheet is found at the end of this report. The Journal Editor, Rev. Jackie Slaughter, must receive the profile sheet no later than March 1, 2015, in order to publish it in the 2015 Brochure of Reports. Those who do not meet the March 1, 2015, publication deadline but desire to be considered as a lay delegate must, (1) contact Dr. Steve Furr, Conference Lay Leader, furrs@bellsouth.net, (2) complete the standard (single page) profile sheet and return it to the Conference Lay Leader no later than one hour prior to the laity business session on Monday morning, June 1, and (3) bring sufficient copies of the profile sheet to distribute to the lay members of annual conference at the laity business session. This procedure does not preclude any lay member from voting for any eligible person he or she chooses as ballots are cast during the 2015 Annual Conference session. Once balloting begins, write-in candidates receiving forty (40) votes or more, who have not turned in a profile sheet, shall be required to do so within two hours of the announcement of the ballot results identifying the write-in candidates. Sufficient copies of the profile sheet must be made available to distribute to all lay members of annual conference.

B. Election

No election materials may be distributed or placed on tables or chairs during the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference. The Conference Board of Laity encourages members to annual conference to take advantage of opportunities to get to know the candidates prior to election. Registered candidates will be introduced during the Laity Business Session on Monday morning. There will be a brief informal time for conversation between the candidates and the delegates in attendance after the business session concludes. The first ballot for election of lay delegates will be taken at the Annual Conference Opening Business Session on Monday, June 1, 2015, as provided for in the adopted conference agenda. Subsequent ballots will be taken at the business sessions until the total number of allowable delegates is secured. Lay Delegates to annual conference will be identified by name badge issued at District Laity Registration. Only members to annual conference wearing a designated voter name badge may be seated in the bar of the conference where ballots are distributed and collected by official tellers.

Lay Servant Ministries

Each of us is gifted by the Holy Spirit to be a servant in God's kingdom. Lay Servant Ministries helps us discover our gifts through educational opportunities, that will enhance us to build our skills, and enable us to be effective leaders in our church. Through Lay Servant Ministries, we can become better disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Lay Servant Ministries provides training for laity to equip them to be leaders in mission and ministry in the local church and beyond.

A Lay Servant is ...

- An active, supportive (professing) member of a United Methodist church;
- Eager to serve the church, community, and the world;
- We are well-informed on Scripture and on the doctrine, heritage, organization, and life of The United Methodist Church;
- We are committed to witnessing through church and community leadership, care-giving ministries, and spoken communication;
- And we are Willing to improve our skills by training for service.

In 2012 the General Conference of the United Methodist Church approved legislation to change the name of Lay Speaking Ministries to Lay Servant Ministries. The term Servant was chosen because it best describes what Jesus told his disciples in John 13 after he himself had performed the duties of the lowliest servant. We are also called to live out our discipleship as servants in leadership.

God calls every one of us to proclaim the presence and power of God through all that we say and do. How is God calling you to serve? With so many ways of training, Lay Servant Ministries offers you a valuable education in multiple ministry areas.

Lay Servant Ministry is more than just speaking! Our ministry goes beyond filling in for the pastor or speaking in public. Lay Servant Ministries offer many options for serving in roles other than the traditional pulpit supply. We are trained to teach, serve, lead, and participate, in many caring, and loving ministries.

Communication is an integral parts of Lay Servant Ministries. With so many avenues of training, our Lay Servant Ministries offers valuable education opportunity for equipping United Methodists for all facets of lay ministry.

During the last year our District Directors of Lay Servant Ministries were busy and successful, training new and experienced lay servants, working with our clergy and leaders of our Conference.

We have a total of 613 Certified Lay Speakers and Local Church Lay Servants in our Conference. In 2013 we had the privilege of filling in 985 times for our clergy. This was an increase over 2012.

Our Lay Speakers spoke in 244 different Churches in our Conference and we also provided lay servants for nursing homes, and prison ministries times.

We held 11 Lay Servant Training classes, including the Lay Servant Academy at Blue Lake in March of 2013 and in all eight districts in our Conference. Thirty-eight different courses were offered including basic and advance courses in Spanish.

The Conference Committee of Lay Servant Ministries would like to thank Bishop Paul L. Leeland, our District Superintendents and all our Clergy, for all the support we receive from you. Thank you for believing in us and we appreciate the opportunity to serve with you in the ministry of God through Lay Servant Ministries.

Listed below are the members of the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries:

I thank all of you for what you are doing for our Lord, our Conference and for the Lay Servant Ministries. God does not always call the equipped but he does equip the called. God is good all the time and all the time God is good.

In His Service,

Helen Edwards, Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

United Methodist Men (UMM)

The United Methodist Men of the Alabama-West Florida Conference have endeavored to discern the will of God in their lives through programs of spiritual development and missions during 2013.

At our yearly Advance we heard Dr. Eddie Fox, the director of World Evangelism for Methodism, speak about Wesleyan theology, the history of our church, and the future of Methodism in the world. Attendance was up, reversing a two-year trend, and attendees reported a strong sense of spiritual renewal and understanding of what it means to be a Methodist. In April of 2014, we hope to build upon that idea by making our theme “Wesley’s Three Graces.” We will hear three speakers: a district attorney who will charge us to be the men that God challenges us to be through His prevenient grace; a former major baseball player who will tell us of justifying grace in his life; and our bishop, Paul Leeland, who will point us on a journey of sanctifying grace.

Our support of Blue Lake Assembly, our conference campground, continues as we attempt to replace the aging bunk beds in two of the three campgrounds. We have raised the necessary funds and have built half of the new beds. With the help of two groups of NOMADS, we hope to celebrate the completion of the project at our April 2014 Advance. Blue Lake leaders are already identifying new projects for us in the future.

Our Upper Room Living Prayer ministry continues to be a central piece in our spiritual development and mission work. Under Chuck Christian’s leadership, we have been the top conference in giving to the Upper Room for the second year in a row. This year, we have given $3,025. In addition to supporting this vital ministry with our gifts, we have tried to establish new prayer groups to answer the prayer line.

One of the greatest challenges we encountered this year has been in the Scouting program. Vaughn Nichols, our conference scouting coordinator, used the communiqués from Larry Coppock, national UMM scouting representative, and reactions from our district coordinators and local Scouters to compose a recommendation which he presented to our conference Board of Laity in a pre-annual conference meeting. The decision to continue or begin sponsoring a Scouting unit is a decision to be made solely at the local church level; and the leaders of the UMM Scouting ministry in the Alabama-West Florida Conference recommended that local churches continue their sponsorship and strive to make our faith a more active and relevant part of the Scouting program by pursuing the Bishop’s Award of Excellence. Also at annual conference, during our laity banquet, we honored Eagle Scout Tim Gullede, who attended the national jamboree, went snow skiing, and is the drum major of his high school band. In addition to being an honor student and the son of a United Methodist minister, he is blind. Tim was our keynote speaker at the banquet and was later featured in UMM Magazine. He inspired us by stating that he has found that by the time you have listed all the reasons you cannot do something, you have had time to do it.

In other UMM activity, six of our men attended the 2013 National Gathering in Nashville, and as a result of participation in programs there, we are exploring the possibility of assembling PET mobility vehicles at our 2014 Advance. Our emphasis on training continues as we had two men’s ministry specialists consecrated at our National Association of Conference Presidents meeting in Nashville. A third MMS could not attend but is at work in the conference. In addition, we celebrated the addition of another scouting ministry specialist—Allen Dunham—who is one of the few men to have been designated both an MMS and an SMS. We have created a new position at the conference level, the coordinator of leadership and training, to make use of Allen’s expertise. We have elected new leadership for the future: Frank Moore, president; Arthur Frazier, vice-president; and Dennis Brisolaro, prayer advocate.

Finally, we rejoice in the work of our local units whose ministries are too varied to list. At annual conference, we recognized one UMM leader who, because of his work in building over 100 wheelchair ramps and exemplifying the love of Christ in his small town, was named citizen of the year by the local chamber of commerce. The headline in his local weekly paper over a picture of him receiving the award read simply, "God helped me. Thanks Be to God for His help."

Prayerfully submitted,
John Croft, UMM President

United Methodist Women (UMW)

The Alabama West Florida Conference of United Methodist Women is a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative supportive fellowship, and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Approximately 280 people gathered at Bay Minette United Methodist Church for the Tapestry Retreat, our first event of the year. The theme was "Rejoice!" Baypines United Methodist Women hosted this event with Jan Love, Dean of Candler School of Theology as the speaker. This event has been a well-received event that for the past seven years around our conference with each District of United Methodist Women acting as hostesses.

On April 19 - 21 we were blessed to have Harriett Jane Olson, CEO and Deputy General Secretary of United Methodist Women, as our Spiritual Enrichment Retreat leader. "Moving Forward in Faith" was our theme. The event was held at Blue Lake Methodist Assembly Campground near Andalusia, Alabama. During her time in our conference Harriett traveled to Auburn United Methodist Church for a time of sharing with the United Methodist Women of the Montgomery-Opelika District. The Auburn United Methodist Women hosted the meeting. She also met with the United Methodist Women of the Montgomery-Prattville District, hosted by the United Methodist Women of Dalraida United Methodist Church for a time of sharing as well.

On May 31st and June 1st we held our first Bold Faith Seminar in this conference coordinated by Zan Jones, Social Action Coordinator for United Methodist Women. The seminar focused on Human Trafficking. Jennifer McCallum, Executive Secretary for Social Justice Education of the National Office of United Methodist Women, was the facilitator. Approximately 55 women attended the event. The group learned that Human Trafficking has been reported in all 50 states and that it is extremely profitable as it generates an estimated 32 billion dollars yearly in profits.

On August 1 - 4 we gathered at Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama for our Mission u Cooperative School as we learned together for the transformation of the world. . The Spiritual Growth Study, “Living Sacramentally and Walking Justly”, was led by Brenda Brown and Nancy Hudson Bearden. The Geographic Study, “The Roma of Europe”, was led by Sue C. Johnson and the Issue Study, “Poverty”, was led by The Rev. Bob Sweet.

Our annual meeting was held at Blue Lake Methodist Assembly Campground on October 11 and 12. On Friday Night, a workshop on Mission Education and Interpretation was presented by Ruth Ann Powers and Lynn Hamric. After the workshop, newly elected district officers and returning officers were in Leadership Development sessions led by their respective conference officers. On Saturday morning, the annual meeting began with the Parade of Banners led by Conference President, Betty Helms and Bishop Leeland and Mrs. Leeland followed by the district presidents, district superintendents and spouses. Bishop Leeland was our keynote speaker as well as the celebrant for our closing communion service. Newly elected officers, Pat Dodge, Vice President; Margaret Larson, Treasurer; Margie Outlaw, Secretary for Program Resources; Nancy Shealy, Spiritual Growth Coordinator; Cheryl Mothershed, Membership Nurture and Outreach Coordinator; Laurel Akin, Communications Coordinator; Cynthia Brown, Chair of Nominations; Julia Norton and Jennifer Swee, Committee on Nominations, were installed by Ruth Ann Powers. One of the highlights was the presentation of the Nell Chance Special Mission Recognition Award to Jan Hulburt. The District Special Mission Recognition Award went to the Marianna/Panama City District again this year and the Mobile District “walked off” with the Many Colors, One Spirit Banner for 2013.

The United Methodist Women of the Alabama West Florida Conference continue their history of being generous givers for 2013. Our second mile mission giving went to International and National mission programs, UMCOR, Call to Prayer and Self-Denial to name a few. As United Methodist Women, we continue our journey with excitement and commitment as our lives fulfill the Purpose of United Methodist Women on mission to women, children and youth.

Respectfully submitted by,
Betty Helms, President

ADMINISTRATIVE TEAM REPORTS

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION and HEALTH BENEFITS

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits offers quality health-care, disability, pension, retirement, financial planning, long-term care and death benefit coverage to the clergy and churches of the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

With the continued uncertainty in the health-care environment the Board continues to give careful attention to our resources as we look toward the future. Our greatest resource is confidence in God's abundance and goodness.

Your Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be prudent in long-term planning, and we shall be optimistic in our management of the Board's important benefits programs. We are committed to the goal of sustainable churches, a sustainable Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, and a sustainable United Methodist Church.

Report 1 – Health Insurance

The Board works hard to provide excellent health care coverage to our clergy and lay participants through a partially self-funded insurance plan, administered by Blue Cross – Blue Shield of Alabama. Montgomery lay member Mike Horsley serves as chairperson of the Insurance Sub-Committee of the Board. The cost of this health insurance plan is covered by participant premium equivalents, church direct billing and apportionments. While contributions to the Clergy Retired Benefit Stabilization Fund are presently suspended, it remains a part of our funding plan to guarantee the financial strength of our Health Insurance Plan and to help offset the unfunded liability for retiree benefits. The Board's health insurance reserve investment fund's market value as of December 31, 2013 was $5.76 million. The Board of Pension also maintains an Operating Reserve Fund at the United Methodist Foundation with a balance of $500,000. In order for the plan to remain viable and available to all, participation by eligible clergy must be mandatory. The only exceptions being when the clergyperson can provide satisfactory evidence that he/she is covered by a spouse's group plan or that he/she is covered by a military or government retirement health plan. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits seeks to increase the insurance reserves each year in its efforts both to maintain fiscal strength and stability in our insurance program and to offset the unfunded liability associated with providing post-retirement medical benefits to current and future retirees. The board established a target of $5,725,131.12 for 2014 and will recalculate the target annually using 75% of the total Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Alabama projected contract year expenses. The Conference unfunded liability for retiree health benefits was estimated in 2013 to be $19,619,805. The 2013 study results are included in Report 2.

The Group Health Benefits Plan is not a form of entitlement. The Conference

Board of Pension and Health Benefits reserve the right to amend the active and retired plan of benefits and the eligibility needed to qualify. With the approval of the Annual Conference the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits may eliminate either or both of these plans.

Conference health care coverage is available for lay employees of local churches, and the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits encourages every church with lay employees to consider adding this important benefit. For information on premiums and enrollment requirements, please contact the Conference Fiscal Office 334-356-8014.

Report 2 – Report of Actuarial Valuation of Post-retirement Medical Benefits of Employees and Retirees

In response to the direction of the 2000 General Conference, every five years the Alabama-West Florida Conference retained an outside consulting firm to calculate the liabilities associated with providing postretirement medical benefits to current and future retirees in accordance with the terms of its existing plans and contribution arrangement. The report in Exhibit 1 was prepared by AON Hewitt Consulting, based on conditions existing as of January 1, 2013.

The full report presents actuarial liabilities for the plan, as well as the applicable expense and liability amounts that would exist in the conference-reported plan financial information in accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 106 and 132.

In addition, cash flow information is presented which projects the future claims and participant contributions for the current group of active and retired participants, along with the resulting employer costs. Cash flows, liabilities, and the net periodic post-retirement benefit costs have been calculated based on conditions existing as of the January 1, 2013 measurement date.

Please contact the Fiscal Office at 888-873-3127 if you would like to review the report in its entirety. In this report (Number 2, Exhibit 1), we summarize the information provided through the valuation. Currently there is no formal funding plan established, although the Board of Pension and Health Benefits seeks to use any revenues over expenditures in the health insurance program to build up reserves and to underwrite this liability. We fund the annual retiree health costs through apportionments and individual monthly premium equivalents.

In the mid-1980s a multi-faceted capital campaign was conducted in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference. One of the beneficiaries of this campaign was the Board of Pension Homes for Claimants' program. In 1993 the Annual Conference directed the Board of Pension to stop purchasing and providing homes for retiring clergy persons and surviving spouses effective in 2003. Claimants' homes were sold as they were vacated and proceeds were added to the Homes for Claimants Capital Fund at the Alabama –West Florida United Methodist Foundation in Dothan AL. The market value of this fund, as of December 31, 2013, was $3,157,155.12. Income from the fund created a source of funding for need-based housing grants which currently has a market value of $371,382.01

At this time it is apparent that the restricted use of the Homes for Claimants Capital Fund is not the best use of Annual Conference resources for our retired clergy.

THEREFORE: The Conference Board of Pension and Health benefits proposes to change the name of the Homes for Claimants Capital Fund to “The Clergy Benefits Fund” and re-designate the use of the fund to help offset the Unfunded Post-Retirement Medical Liability identified in Report Number 2. The Need-Based Housing Grants will continue as needed.

In as much as the current practice of “pay as you go” for retiree health insurance claims is manageable, the funds will not be expended until such time in the future when resources are not available to pay Medicare Supplement claims. This will allow the fund to continue to grow with market conditions and further reduce the unfunded liability.

Report 3 - Post-Retirement Medical Benefits for Retirees

Purpose of the Plan: This is a retiree health plan designed to supplement the amounts Medicare pays for some hospital, medical, and surgical services. The Plan is not designed to cover all the expenses that Medicare does not pay. You must be enrolled in Parts A and B of Medicare in order to receive any benefits under the Plan. The Plan is self-insured by the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church. This means that the Conference pays for all claims out of its own assets and does not buy an insurance policy to pay benefits under the Plan. Blue Cross is responsible for administering claims under the Plan; Blue Cross does not insure the benefits under the Plan.

Eligibility: Retirees

- All clergy who retire from active service in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference and are eligible for Medicare have access to the plan for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Annual conference employees who are employed with the conference at the time of their retirement and are at least age 65 at retirement have access to the plan for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Local church lay employees who have been continuously employed within the Alabama-West Florida Conference for 20 years and are at least age 65, in retirement status, enrolled in the active insurance plan at retirement, have access to the plan for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses. (Premium must be paid by the church on church check).

Premium Equivalent Reductions

- To be eligible for a premium equivalent reduction for themselves and their spouses, clergy and annual conference lay employees must be enrolled in the conference active insurance plan for at least 5 years prior to retirement and have 5 or more years of service in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Years of service for clergy are as recorded by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Retired local church lay employees are not eligible for premium reductions.
- Participants retiring on or before June 30, 2016 with 5 to 28 years of service will receive an 80% premium reduction for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Participants retiring on or before June 30, 2016 with 29 to 34 years of service will receive a 2.9% premium reduction for each year of service for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Participants retiring on or before June 30, 2016 with 35 or more years of service will receive a full premium reduction for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Participants retiring after June 30, 2016 with 5 to 34 years of service will receive a 2.9% premium reduction for each year of service for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- Clergy members retiring after June 30, 2016 with 35 or more years of service will receive a full premium reduction for themselves and their Medicare eligible spouses.
- With respect to married individuals that are each clergy with appointments in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, each such clergy must satisfy Medicare and Plan eligibility requirements and premium reductions will be applied to each such clergy and not because of their status as a spouse of a clergy.

Premium Equivalent for Appointed Retired Clergy (under age 65)

Church's Premium Payment:

Equal to the premium equivalent for the active plan established annually by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

Premium Equivalent for Appointed Retired Clergy (age 65+)

Church's Premium Payment:

- Equal 80% of the premium equivalent for the Medicare Supplement Plan established annually by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

Clergy's Premium Payment:

- Premium equivalent minus premium reduction.

Clergy Spouse:

- Premium equivalent minus premium reduction.

Pastors Retiring Prior to Age 65:

Retired pastors who have not reached the age of eligibility for Medicare and have 30 or more years of service as recorded by the General Board of Pension can remain on the active plan with a premium reduction of 2.9% per service year. Their dependents may continue on the active coverage by paying the full premium equivalent established by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. When the clergy member reaches the age 65, he or she will have access to the Medicare Supplement Plan and any appropriate premium reductions. When the spouse reaches the age 65, he or she will have access to the Medicare Supplement plan and any appropriate premium reductions as well. In the case of clergy couples without dependent coverage, individual clergy persons will be eligible in their own rights and premium reductions will be applied as individuals not as spouses of a clergy.

Pastors Retiring Under the Twenty Year Rule:

Retired pastors who have not reached the age of eligibility for Medicare and have 20 or more years of service but less than 30 as recorded by the General Board of Pension can remain on the active plan but must pay the established premium equivalent for themselves and their dependents. When the clergy member reaches the age 65, he or she will have access to the Medicare Supplement Plan and any appropriate premium reductions. When the spouse reaches the age 65, he or she will have access to the Medicare Supplement plan and any appropriate premium reductions as well.

Pastors on Clergy Medical Leave:

Clergy on Clergy Medical Leave and receiving Comprehensive Protection Plan disability benefits prior to June 30, 2012 must qualify for Social Security Disability and elect Medicare on or before June 30, 2015.

Clergy on Clergy Medical Leave and receiving Comprehensive Protection Plan disability benefits on or after July 1, 2012 must qualify for Social Security Disability, and elect Medicare, on or before the end of their 24th month following the receipt of Comprehensive Protection Plan disability benefits.

Once qualified for Medicare, clergy on Social Security disability have access to the Medicare Supplement Plan and any appropriate premium reductions.

Clergy on Clergy Medical Leave and receiving Comprehensive Protection Plan disability benefits who are not eligible for or choose not to elect Medicare coverage, may continue active coverage by paying the full monthly premium equivalent.

Retiree Benefit Stabilization Fund

Contributions made by clergy to the Retiree Benefit Stabilization Fund (RBSF) remain in suspension. The RBSF will continue to be maintained for present and future use.

Report 4 – Pension

The Reverend Nancy Watson chairs the Pension sub-committee of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Board continues to be delighted by the fine work of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. With assets exceeding $20 billion and over 91,000 active and retired participants, the General Board ranks in the top 100 pension plans in the country and is the largest faith-based not-for-profit financial service organization in the world. In addition, the General Board acts as a socially responsible investor and participates actively in shareholder advocacy, proxy voting, portfolio screening, and community investing. The General Board is the largest denominational investor in affordable housing programs for low- and moderate-income families in the nation. To date, they have allocated nearly $1 billion to affordable housing and community development investments

Many current and future retirees find that their pension benefit is derived from several different plans. While the number and variety of plans make calculating pension benefits confusing, the various plans offer a certain level of security due to the diverse ways in which retiree pensions are funded.

1. The Pre-1982 plan bases the pension payment for a retired person on the number of years served with pension credit prior to 1982 and the Past Service Rate (PSR). The Board of Pension set as its goal to offer a PSR equal to CRSP Defined Benefit increase of 2% in future years. In 2014 the PSR is set at six hundred ninety-nine dollars ($699) per service year for retired clergy and four hundred ninety dollars ($490) for surviving spouses. For 2015 the Board proposes a past service rate of seven hundred thirteen dollars ($713) per service year for retired clergy. The total rate for surviving spouses is proposed to be five hundred dollars ($500). The Annual Conference adjusts the pension benefits of those living in Conference provided retirement homes by a reduction of $50.00 per month for clergy and $35.00 per month for surviving spouses.
2. The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) was the mandatory retirement plan for clergy serving from 1982 through 2006. Under this plan, the Conference Board of Pension contributed 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) on behalf of each eligible clergy person under appointment. Benefits at retirement are based upon specific decisions made by the retiring participant.

3. By mandate of the 2004 General Conference, beginning in January 2007, the General Board of Pension replaced the MPP with the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), which has two components – a Core Defined Benefit Plan and a Core Defined Contribution Plan. The Core Defined Benefit Plan determines a pension benefit using the following formula by multiplying 1.25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) in the year of retirement by the number of years of credited service after 2006. The Core Defined Contribution Plan determines the pension benefit from the defined contribution of 3% of the participant's plan compensation. Clergy appointed to less than full time service and Part Time Local Pastors are credited for service in increments of 25%, 50% or 75%. By mandate of the 2012 General Conference benefits under this plan stopped accruing on December 31, 2013. Participants will lose no earned benefit.
4. The 2012 General Conference modified the Clergy Retirement Security Program. The January 2014 plan retains the two components – a Core Defined Benefit Plan and a Core Defined Contribution Plan. The Core Defined Benefit Plan determines a pension benefit using the following formula by multiplying 1% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) in the year of retirement by the number of years of credited service after 2013. The Core Defined Contribution (DC) Plan determines the pension benefit from the defined contribution of 2% of the participant's plan compensation. In addition the conference will match participant's voluntary personal contributions to The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) up to 1% of the participants plan compensation and deposit those matching funds into the participant's CRSP DC account. Clergy appointed at not less than 75% of full time service and Part Time Local Pastors appointed at not less than 75% are required to participate in the Clergy Retirement Security Program. Clergy appointed at less than 75% are not eligible to participate in CRSP, but may, and are encouraged, to participate in the UMPIP.
5. The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is a voluntary defined-contribution plan for personal contributions and rollovers made by clergy and lay employees.

When the recommendation of the Alabama-West Florida Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is approved and in cooperation with the cabinet, the Conference Board of Pension sets the following appointment salary service standards for 2015:

1. Elders, Provisional Members, Associates Members and Local Pastors at or greater than $35,000 will serve at 100% and are eligible for pension and health insurance benefits, unless appointed by the Bishop and the Cabinet to less than 75%.

2. Elders, Provisional Members, Associates Members and Local Pastors at or greater than $26,250 but less than $35,000 will serve at 75% and are eligible for pension and health insurance benefits, unless otherwise appointed by the Bishop and Cabinet to a lower percentage.
3. Elders, Provisional Members, Associates Members and Local Pastors at or greater than $17,500 but less than $26,250 will serve at 50% and are not eligible to participate in CRSP or the health insurance plan.
4. Elders, Provisional Members, Associates Members and Local Pastors at or greater than $8,750 but less than $17,500 will serve at 25% and are not eligible to participate in CRSP or the health insurance plan.

Retiring pastors may expect their pension benefits to come from multiple plans – Pre-1982 based on years of service with pension credit before January 1, 1982 and the PSR or the Defined Benefit Service Monies (DBSM) whichever provides the greater annuity payment, MPP based on defined contributions from 1982 through 2006, supplemented by PIP and UMPIP contributions, CRSP based on the number of service years between 2007 and 2013 and the DAC in the year of retirement and CRSP based on the number of service years after 2013. Because of the change in plans, it is important for participants to verify that the pre 2014 appointment information, including appointment percentages for less than full time appointments, listed in the Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Conference each year is correct. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will assume that the Journal information is correct unless a correction is submitted in writing and verified within the conference year in which the Journal is printed.

The Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund served as a voluntary defined-contribution retirement plan through 2006, funded through employer contributions made on behalf of deacons (prior to 2006), diaconal ministers, and lay employees of local churches. This fund is now part of the UMPIP plan.

Information from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is available online at www.gbophb.org.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends that the apportionment line item for Conference Claimants Fund be set at $900,000 (10% decrease) for 2015. Since pension liabilities are tied to the Conference Average Compensation and market results of General Board of Pension plan assets, future increases in the Conference Claimants Fund line item may track with these variables and GBOPHB actuarial projections.

We call attention to paragraph 622 of The 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church relative to the requirement that the apportionment for the pension and benefit programs be paid in proportion to the payment of the pastor's salary by the local church. The Discipline gives the church treasurer the primary responsibility for the application of proportional payment. If the church treasurer fails to do this, the pastor is then required to adjust his/her cash salary.

REPORT 5 – Central Conference Pension Initiative

The Alabama-West Florida Conference continues its support of the Central Conference Pension Initiative. In 2013 churches, districts, and individuals have given over $485,000. This figure includes gifts and pledges from churches and individuals in the conference. Churches are encouraged to give at a level of $1 per member per year. Active and retired clergy are encouraged to give to their brothers and sisters in need around the world. The United Methodist Church is experiencing its greatest growth in many of the Central Conferences, where pastors labor under difficult and often dangerous conditions and retire after a lifetime of service with no income. Many are forced to beg for assistance in their retirement and often go without food several days each week. Our effort is part of an initiative across the church to respond to the plight of our retired Central Conference clergy by raising $20–25 million to establish a sustainable pension program. Many thanks for your gifts and support.

Report 6– Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program

This Supplement One is applicable to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and is effective January 1, 2007. It replaces any previously executed Addendum A (or Attachment 1) and shall be in effect until amended by the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Clergy Retirement Security and the Comprehensive Protection Plan revised January 1, 2007.

CPP contribution base shall be the active participant's plan contribution for a plan year not to exceed 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation.

The CPP contribution rate shall be 3% of the contribution base of each active participant. [CPP Section 4.01(a).]

The CPP church contribution shall be made monthly to the plans by the Annual Conference in accordance with the Plan Document. Such CPP church contributions shall be transferred monthly from the deposit account of the Alabama-West Florida Conference by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to the Comprehensive Protection Plan. The Annual Conference shall maintain an amount in its deposit account sufficient to provide for the monthly transfer of the church contributions on behalf of its active participants. The Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. [CPP Section 3.03. (a)]

All full and associate members appointed to Sabbatical Leave shall continue to participate in CPP, provided the Conference makes the required contribution based on 3.4% of the DAC. [Disciplinary Paragraph 350; CPP Section 3.02(a).]

All full, associate, and probationary members granted a Leave of Absence may be continued in CPP provided the Conference makes a contribution of 4.4% of the DAC. [Disciplinary Paragraph 352, CPP Section 3.02(a)] The Conference will direct bill the members who choose to continue participation.

All full, associate, and probationary members granted family leave may continue in CPP, provided the Conference makes the required contribution based on 4.4% of the DAC. [Disciplinary Paragraph 353; CPP Section 3.02(a).] The Conference will direct bill the members who choose to continue participation.

The surviving spouse benefit will be 70% of the participant's formula benefit.

Report 7– Alabama West Florida Annual Conference Comprehensive Funding Plan for Plan Year 2015

The 2012 General Conference established a requirement for Annual Conferences to develop a comprehensive funding plan to identify both liabilities and resources. The Conference Board of Pension has both developed the plan and submitted it to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB) for review.

Printed on the following page is the favorable opinion letter from the GBOPHB. If you would like to see the complete plan, contact the Fiscal Office at 888-873-3127.

Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference
2015 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN

This funding plan incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the conference's obligations and funding of the benefits provided to clergy and laity, as noted below. Signatures are required from the Conference Benefit Officer (or equivalent), Conference Board of Pension Chair and Conference Treasurer. Signatures are recommended from Council on Finance and Administration Chair and other conference leaders as appropriate.

It is understood by the signees that defined benefit plan liabilities (Pre-82, MPP and CRSP-DB) continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the conference still has a liability (obligation) and potential future contribution due with the plan.

Report 8 – Claimants’ Memorial Fund

We recommend the continuation of the Claimants’ Memorial Fund, such funds being invested by this board with the interest being used for the benefits of the conference claimants. Individuals and groups are invited to make voluntary contributions in any amount as memorials to deceased ministers, members of minister families, or lay persons. Checks should be made payable to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and sent to the conference treasurer, Montgomery, with the name or names of the persons being memorialized. Families of those so memorialized will be notified that a memorial gift was received.

Report 9 – Special Appointment Pension Responsibilities

In keeping with paragraph 1506.3.a, and 4, of the 2012 Discipline, we recommend that those clergy appointed to extension ministries be approved for pension responsibility on this Annual Conference in the following full time appointments: the director of the Assembly Grounds, the director of the Mobile Inner City Mission, the director of each Wesley Foundation, the Chaplain at the United Methodist Children’s Home, the Director of the Pensacola Urban Ministry and the Pensacola Hispanic Ministry provided such appointments are made as members of this Annual Conference under paragraph 344.1a(1) and 346.1 of the 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. The district superintendents, clergy appointed to the Conference Connectional Ministry, Ministerial Services, and the Fiscal Offices are approved with pension responsibility on this Annual Conference.

We recommend that special appointments to the United Methodist colleges and universities and other general agencies shall be listed as with pension responsibility on the institution or agency.

We recommend that chaplains in the Armed Forces be listed with pension responsibility on the chaplaincy of the military service.

We recommend that clergy under appointment as approved evangelists, area appointments and other special ministries shall be listed with pension responsibility on this Annual Conference only upon payment to the Conference Claimants Fund an amount equal to 16.4% of the DAC as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (2012 Discipline, par. 1506.3a.)

By special arrangement those clergy on leave of absence or probationary members appointed to attend school may qualify for the Comprehensive Protection Plan by a personal payment of 4.4% of the DAC to the Conference Claimants Fund.

We recommend that special appointments to non-Methodist institutions shall be listed without pension responsibility on this Annual Conference.

We recommend that all missionaries shall be listed with pension responsibility on the General Board of Global Ministries.

Report 10 – Depositories

We recommend that the official depository for pension funds shall be the same as that designated by the Conference for other Conference funds as well as the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church.

Report 11 – Pensions for Lay Employees

We strongly endorse the UMPIP and the Lay Long Term Disability Plan administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for lay employees of United Methodist local churches and agencies. In keeping with paragraph 258.2g (12) of the 2012 United Methodist Book of Discipline, we recommend and urge our churches to use these plans provided by the General Church to provide pension equal to at least 3% of compensation and death and disability coverage for our lay persons who serve our churches.

Churches and agencies should contact the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, 1901 Chestnut Avenue, Glenview, IL 60025, (800) 851-2201 for information on becoming plan sponsors for the UMPIP for lay employees.

Report 12 – Full Time Service as a Requirement for Pension Credit Pre-1982

We call attention to the following provisions relative to full time service, rendered prior to January 1, 1982, as a normal condition for pension credit which appears in paragraph 1506.3 of the 2012 Discipline.

- A. Full-time service of a ministerial member or a lay pastor shall be required as a normal condition for pension credit; provided, however, that such credit may be granted for part time service by a three-fourth vote of those present and voting in the Annual Conference, on recommendation of the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.
- B. Full-time service shall mean that full time is devoted to the work of a pastor by one who has not attained the mandatory age of retirement for a Conference member, who is not attending school as a regular student, who is not substantially employed in non-pastoral work; and whose cash support per annum from all church sources is not less than the schedule of equitable compensation adopted by the Annual Conference for those in this person's classification.

It should be noted that service of either a ministerial member or lay pastor is without pension credit if it is not full-time service as defined, except in cases of approved part-time service.

Report 13 - Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Alabama – West Florida Annual Conference

The Alabama – West Florida Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the year 2015 by each active, retired, or disabled clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled clergy person’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: It should be noted that the above applies only to the clergy person and not to the surviving spouse. The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a clergy person’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the clergy person’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. If you need further information concerning this exclusion, please contact your CPA or the Conference Fiscal Office.

Report 14 – Special Grants

The Conference Board of Pension recommends that the following monthly grants be made for the 2014 Conference year:

Oakley W. Melton, III $300.00

Report 15 – Homes for Claimants

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits owns 15 living units for persons who retired from the conference prior to 2003. Ms. Beth Gordon is chairperson of the Homes sub-committee of the board. No additional assignments of homes to retirees will take place, and homes are being sold as they are vacated. Home sales proceeds are placed in the Homes/Claimants Fund at the United Methodist Foundation. $66,305.29 was expended on maintenance, taxes and repairs in 2013.

Repairs, general maintenance, and general upkeep are performed as needs arise. The Board recommends that $44,000 be apportioned for maintenance, taxes and insurance for the Homes for Claimants and for Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Operations in 2015.

A grant not to exceed $3000 will be given to offset documented closing costs for the purchase of a home or documented rental deposit for an apartment, town home or assisted living facility.

REPORT 19 –Alabama-West Florida Conference Policy on Medical and Disabling Conditions Leave and CPP Disability Benefits

(Approved June 2005)

TERMS:

Medical Leave: A conference relations status of a clergy member who is unable to perform his or her ministerial work because of a physical or emotional impairment, the conference may grant medical leave upon recommendation of the conference boards of ordained ministry and pension.

CPP Disability Benefits: Benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan to clergy persons who are determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be eligible for these benefits and are on medical leave.

Medical Leave is granted to clergy who are members of the annual conference who are unable to perform their ministerial work because of incapacity due to health matters and disabling conditions. It is not a status that is used to solve appointment problems.

The 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church References:

Paragraph 357. Medical Leave Due to Medical and Disabling Conditions that Prevent Performance of Ministerial Duties

1. When clergy who are members of an annual conference (§ 370) are unable to perform their ministerial duties because of medical and disabling conditions, upon recommendations of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the conference board of pension, and by a majority vote of the executive session of clergy members in full connection with the annual conference who are present and voting, they may be granted annual medical leave without losing their relationship to the annual conference; provided, however, that such leave may be granted or renewed upon reasonable and appropriate investigation of the case by the joint committee on clergy medical leave of the annual conference, or the party responsible for managing clergy medical leaves in accordance with the annual conference's policies, which will report its findings to the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the conference board of pension. This relationship may be initiated by the clergy member or cabinet with or without the consent of the clergy member through the Board of Ordained Ministry. When medical leave is given without the clergy member's consent, reasonable accommodation shall be offered whenever possible. Each medical leave granted by the annual conference shall be recorded in the conference minutes.

2. When clergy who are members of an annual conference are unable to perform their ministerial duties between sessions of the annual conference on account of medical conditions, with the approval of a majority of the district superintendents, after consultation with the executive committee of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the executive committee of the conference board of pensions, a medical leave may be granted by the bishop for the remainder of the conference year; provided, however, that such leave may be granted upon reasonable and appropriate investigation of the case including accommodation provisions by the joint committee on clergy medical leave of the annual conference, or the party responsible for managing clergy medical leaves in accordance with the annual conference's policies, which will report its findings to the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the conference board of pensions.

3. When clergy members on medical leave provide medical evidence that they have recovered sufficiently to resume ministerial duties, or are able to return through reasonable accommodation, in consultation with the appointive cabinet, upon recommendation of the joint committee on clergy medical leave or the conference relations committee, and with the approval of the executive committee of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry, they may receive an appointment from a bishop between sessions of the annual conference, thereby terminating the medical leave. Such appointment shall be reported immediately by the cabinet to the conference board of pensions and to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Such termination of leave, together with the effective date, shall also be recorded in the minutes of the annual conference at its next regular session.

Paragraph 635.2(k): "Conference Board of Ordained Ministry

"The duties of the annual conference board of ordained ministry shall be...

k) To interview applicants and make recommendation concerning: (1) changes from the effective relation to a leave of absence or retirement; (2) return to the effective relation from other relations; (3) honorable location; (4) readmission of located persons and persons discontinued from probationary membership; (5) sabbatical leave; (6) medical leave; (7) appointment as a student; (8) termination; and (9) changes to or from less than full-time ministry.

"The board shall keep a record of these changes and the reason behind them and place a copy in the permanent records of the annual conference maintained by the secretary of the conference."

Paragraph 652. "...The annual conference may establish a joint committee on clergy medical leave (JCCML). If the annual conference establishes such a committee, it should be composed of at least two representatives each from the Board of Ordained Ministry and the conference board of pensions, who may be elected by those boards at the beginning of each quadrennium and at other times when vacancies occur, and a district superintendent appointed from time to time by the bishop to represent the cabinet. The joint committee shall be encouraged to include in its composition a person with a disability, preferably someone under appointment. Unless and until other members are elected, the chairperson and registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the chairperson and secretary of the conference board of pensions, or others designated by them, shall be authorized to represent their respective boards. The committee shall organize at the beginning of each quadrennium by the election of a chairperson and a secretary. If the annual conference does not establish a joint committee, the annual conference's established policy and process for managing clergy medical leave nonetheless should involve the Board of Ordained Ministry, the conference board of pension and representation from the cabinet.

The duties of the annual conference, with respect to clergy medical leave, or the joint committee on clergy medical leave, or its equivalent, shall be:

- a) To study issues related to clergy medical leave in the annual conference.

- d) To make recommendations to the Board of Ordained Ministry, the conference board of pension, and the cabinet on matters related to clergy medical leave, including steps for the prevention of the need for medical leave, the process of granting medical leave, benefits, grants or other assistance, and programs of rehabilitation.

Because of HIPPA privacy regulations, the JCCML will request only a recommendation from the physician as to the individual’s ability to resume work and will follow the physician’s recommendation as to making a recommendation to the board of ordained ministry. Alternately, and at the discretion of the JCCML, the recommendation of UNUM regarding continuation of CPP Disability Benefits may form the recommendation of the JCCML to the board of ordained ministry.

Having received the recommendation from the JCCML, the Board of Ordained Ministry will conduct the interview required in paragraph 635.2 (k)

If an individual receives an appointment between sessions of annual conference, the cabinet must report the appointment immediately to the conference board of pension and the GBOPH. Such termination of medical leave, together with the effective date must also be recorded in the minutes of the annual conference at its next regular session.

Part-Time Appointments

If an individual seeks a part-time appointment in anticipation of coming off incapacity leave the following information is required:

1. The appointment cannot last longer than 12 months.
2. The written recommendation of the individual’s doctor. The operative word is recommendation. That is, the doctor believes that it is in the medical best interest of the individual to begin part-time service and is encouraging and cooperating with the return to part-time service.
3. The number of hours that the individual will work.
4. When the appointment will start

5. Will the person serve a church as the only pastor or will the individual serve as an associate of a church?

The real properties held are the following: The Episcopal Residence: 3291 Lancaster Lane, Montgomery and the Annual Conference Office building at 4719 Woodmere Blvd, Montgomery. The Board is the Trustee for the following bequests (cost value as of December 31, 2013):

FUND	COST VALUE	BENEFICIARY
1. Norris Allen Fund	$218,784.88	Board of Ministry
2. Hattie B. Norred Fund	$ 85,401.10	Board of Trustees
3. C.B. Gilmore Fund	$140,205.10	Board of Trustees

5. Mary Lloyd Reynolds	$ 87,863.79	Board of Missions
6. J.B. Skinner Estate	$923,912.91	Children's Home

The Board of Trustees holds these funds in trust, with the revenues being used as directed by the donors.

We call attention to the resolution adopted by the Annual Conference of 1988, which designated the Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Foundation as the official depository for discretionary endowment funds owned by the Annual Conference and its related boards and agencies. Local churches are encouraged to use the Foundation for endowment funds in order to insure proper management and fiduciary accountability.

REPORT 2 - SIGNATURE AUTHORITY

In keeping with ¶2515 of The 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the President and any one of the following officers of the Board of Trustees may sign any required written instruments necessary to carry out the action authorized by the Annual Conference regarding the sale, transfer, lease or purchase of Annual Conference property: The Vice President or the Secretary.

REPORT 3 - DESIGNATION OF UMC OWNED PROPERTY AS CULTURAL, HISTORICAL, OR ARCHITECTURAL LANDMARK

Paragraph 2512.7 of The 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs that “the board [of trustees of the annual conference], after consultation with the conference commission on archives and history. . . shall develop a policy for an annual conference response, on behalf of any local church, church-related agency, or district or annual conference board of trustees located within the bounds of the annual conference, to any governmental effort to designate a property held in trust for the benefit of The United Methodist Church (¶2503) by any such board of trustees as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark.”

Governmental designation of church-owned real property as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark severely infringes upon and restricts the rights of the church as a property owner and as a religious institution.

Governmental designation of church-owned real property can cause a reduction in the market value of the property.

Typically, the exterior facade of a building may not be altered without governmental permission.

Depending on governmental requirements, alterations of the interior may be forbidden without governmental permission.

Improvements (such as buildings) on the property are either forbidden to be demolished, or can be demolished only after extensive and expensive applications and hearings.

Sale of landmarked property, when it is no longer required for church purposes, becomes almost impossible; a buyer is not given the freedom to demolish the structures on the property or to use it as he/she sees fit. Such limitations would render church-owned property virtually unable to be sold in the future.

The church could be blocked from transforming the donations given in the past to establish real property for United Methodist use into new establishments for United Methodist Church use, a promise made to the donors at the time their donations were originally solicited.

In exchange for such limitations on the use of property, governmental bodies typically will compensate the property owner for such reduction in property value and limitations on development and use by allowing federal and state income tax credits against actual expenditures made for future rehabilitation work done to the property. Such income tax credits are worthless to a church, however, because a church does not pay income taxes.

Because of the restrictions and infringements upon the rights of the church as a property owner and religious institution, in general such governmental designations should be discouraged.

There may be, however, instances when allowing such a land-marking to take place is in the best interests of both the public and the church. Therefore, the following principles are established as the policy of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference:

1. Any Board of Trustees which voluntarily wishes to cooperate with a governmental body in having that property landmarked which the Board of Trustees holds in trust for The United Methodist Church shall do the following:
 - a. Comply with the provisions of ¶s 2515, 2517.2, 2539, 2540, 2541, and/or 2543 (as appropriate) of The 2102 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, just as if such land-marking were a sale of the property.
 - b. Obtain a majority vote of the Bishop and Cabinet, combined, approving such a voluntary land-marking of church-owned property.
2. On behalf of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, as the designated successor in interest to church-owned property held in trust for the United Methodist Church under ¶2549.3 of The 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and as the designated agency “to intervene and take all necessary legal steps to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of the annual conference anywhere and in all matters relating to property and rights to property” of any of its agencies, organizations, or local churches under 2512.4, is directed to intervene, at the request of the superintendent of the district in which the affected property is located, to oppose any governmental effort to involuntarily designate any such property as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark. This intervention may include engaging what legal or professional counsel is needed. Such intervention may include opposing such land-marking designation in any or all state or federal courts, if necessary and appropriate. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, undertake such intervention by financial assistance to the affected board of trustees. Such funding shall come first from any positive balance in the fund described below. Additional funding, if necessary, be requested from the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

3. The Annual Conference Committee on Finance and Administration shall establish an interest-on-investments account to be used, at the discretion of the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, to help defray the costs of opposing governmental efforts at involuntary land-marking of church-owned property as described above. Funds contributed to this fund may only be used for the designated purpose. Any use of these funds will be reported to the Annual Conference. Income generated from this account may be used by the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration (or its successor organization) for any purpose it shall designate. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees is directed to a) request monies from the apportioned budget of the Annual Conference, as reasonably available, and b) solicit voluntary contributions, to put into the account to hold in reserve for the designated purpose.

REPORT 4 - GENERAL TRUST GUIDELINES

In the absence of specific guidelines regarding the investment and distribution of gifts to the Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Trustees, the board establishes these guidelines in order to provide ongoing support of the ministries identified by the donor. The use of “Board of Trustees” in this document refers to the Board of Trustees of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church.

- The objective of the trust is to conserve principal as an ongoing source of funding.
- Any part of the principal may be withdrawn only in extreme and overwhelming circumstances, bordering on the financial survival of the entity designated by the donor and must be approved by the Board of Trustees.
- Fund management will be provided through the services of the Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Foundation.
- Up to 100% of the income may be utilized upon approval of the Board of Trustees. The Board shall use the “Corporate Law” definition of income, which generally defines income as earnings from all sources including interest, dividends, net rentals and capital appreciation.

- Realized capital gains will routinely be treated as an increase in principal value unless approved by the Board of Trustees for distribution as part of “income”.
- The use of a trust fund as collateral for a loan will be decided on a case by case basis by the Board of Trustees.
- Board of Trustees will determine the investment strategy for each fund and any changes in investment strategy will require approval of the Board.
- Any material change to the income distribution policy requires approval of the Board of Trustees.
- Board of Trustees encourages the use of the General Trust Guidelines for all additional gifts.

REPORT 5 - 15 PASSENGER VANS

In an extra ordinary action The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (see www.nhtsa.gov) issued a safety advisory for the fourth time in five years saying:

- 15 passenger vans are far more prone to rolling over than school buses, cars, or mini-vans.
- Occupants of 15 - passenger vans are less apt to wear seat belts.
- 15 - passenger vans are three times more likely to roll over when fully loaded than when they have fewer than 10 passengers.

Federal law does not let car dealers sell the vans for transporting people 18 years and younger.

The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate, dated May 2001 stated: School buses average 0.2 deaths per 100 million miles. Vans average 1.2 deaths per 100 million miles.

The Alabama-West Florida Chancellor states, “I believe that the use of these vans should be strongly discouraged by the Conference. There have been studies which tend to show that 15-passenger vans can become unstable in emergency situations where the vans are fully loaded. While the vans have not been prohibited by the Department of Transportation, the use of fully loaded vans to transport passengers has been strongly questioned. There is evidence that a fully loaded 15-passenger van exceeds the design criteria for the suspension systems of the van. Under emergency braking or handling maneuvers, the van can become unstable and there have been several crashes involving fully loaded vans. Consequently, it is my opinion that the Conference should strongly discourage the use of 15-passenger vans for the transportation of people in our Conference. Although the Conference cannot prohibit the use of these vans, I believe we should strongly discourage the use of these vans due to the liability concerns and safety concerns.”

It is the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that churches not use or purchase 15 passenger vans to transport passengers and that before churches do so that they obtain competent legal advice and consult with their insurance company.

REPORT 6 - PARSONAGE STANDARDS

The Book of Discipline states, "Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards." In order to establish a housing policy and housing standard the Annual Conference recommends three options available for the local church. The Annual Conference does not put one option above the other. The options are co-equal, depending upon the local situation.

The Charge Conference shall review the recommendations of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s) of a local Charge in consultation with the District Superintendent, the Charge shall choose one of these three options.

OPTION ONE

Housing Allowance: Any congregation considering a housing allowance shall consult with the District Superintendent to understand all the positive and negative aspects of housing allowances. Before implementing a housing allowance, a congregation must obtain the District Superintendent's permission. The congregation must present a tentative draft budget for the first two years and demonstrate the impact of the change on the overall fiscal health of the congregation. If the congregation decides to sell an existing parsonage, the church leadership shall follow the Discipline guidelines for selling the parsonage and using the proceeds of the sale. Upon recommendation of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees with approval by the Finance Committee, the Charge Conference shall provide an annual housing allowance. The housing allowance shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration of the pastor(s).

OPTION TWO

Upon recommendation of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees with approval by the Finance Committee, the Charge Conference shall provide a parsonage that furnishes only major appliances, installed floor covering and window dressing.

home and furnishings are to be used with inevitable and expected depreciation.

2. The pastor and family are responsible for the repair or replacement of furnishings when, through negligent use of furnishings, breakage results, but ordinary wear and tear, such as is expected when a house is lived in, is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees/Parsonage Committee.

7. The pastor and spouse should be consulted in the selection of furnishings and equipment.
8. If the vacating parsonage family had pets they shall be responsible for having the house and yard treated for fleas and other parasites before moving. They shall also be responsible for having the carpeting and upholstery cleaned and must vacate the house early in order to allow for this process to occur.
9. Each pastoral charge should place an amount in the budget annually for normal maintenance and repairs to the building, furnishings, and equipment or the replacement of same if necessary.

REPORT 7 - POLICY STATEMENT CONCERNING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT BY CLERGY OF THE ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. affirms The 2012 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶161(F), we affirm that all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ. Therefore, this Conference of the United Methodist Church supports equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation or gender.

Statement of Purpose

Clergy members of this conference are in a position of sacred trust, responsibility and power which affords the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. Sexual misconduct by the clergy violates this trust and constitutes an abuse of the power and position of the clergy. It is the purpose of this policy to prohibit sexual abuse, sexual harassment and sexual misconduct by the clergy members of this conference in the performance of their responsibilities as ministers of the gospel. It is also the purpose of this policy to provide a method for reporting such misconduct and a procedure for resolution of complaints of misconduct involving clergy members of this Conference.

Theological Foundation

All persons are created by God. Scripture teaches that male and female are created in the image of God, and are of equal value in Christ. Jesus was sent into the world that all persons may experience whole relationships with God and each other. We are called to live in a right relationship with God, with one another, and with ourselves. This calling to live in the fullness of our God-created humanity requires that we sustain a vital relationship to God so that we may maintain the dignity of all life, and treat each other with respect and dignity. The 2012 Book of Discipline states: “We recognize that sexuality is God’s good gift to all persons. We believe persons may be fully human only when that gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the church and society.”

Definitions

Sexual harassment is defined by The 2012 Book of Discipline, ¶161(I) as “any unwanted sexual comment, advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” Sexual harassment may occur in any environment where the work of the church takes place. Sexual harassment also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender Harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse is conduct of a sexual nature that is in violation of the legal rights of others and/or conduct that is prohibit by law. Sexual abuse includes criminal sexual conduct or sexual contact by force, threat or intimidation that is in violation of the laws of the states of Alabama or Florida. As applicable to interactions with children or vulnerable persons, the term “sexual abuse” includes the subjection of a child or vulnerable person to any sexual act by any person responsible for their care in violation of the laws of the states of Alabama or Florida. To uphold the moral standards of the United Methodist Church as defined by The 2012 Book of Discipline, no person under the age of 18 nor any vulnerable adult may give consent to sexual acts.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, or other person of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, parishioner, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual Misconduct is conduct which is a chargeable offense within the meaning of ¶2702 of The 2012 Book of Discipline. Sexual misconduct may also be an abuse of power through sexual contact or activity (not limited to sexual intercourse) which exploits the vulnerability of a parishioner, client, staff member, or volunteer, or conduct which causes or allows those persons to engage in sexual conduct with a person in a professional relationship (whether paid or unpaid) to this annual conference. Sexual misconduct may also include any sexual contact or activity (not limited to sexual intercourse) between a person in a therapeutic or counseling role or relationship with a parishioner or client. In such instances, consent is not a defense. Such behavior is inappropriate and immoral.

Policy Statement

Sexual harassment, gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission. The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong. This Conference commits itself to the fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the Conference and will take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, it shall be the policy of The Alabama West-Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free from this type of sinful conduct and which encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to any one of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action, where appropriate, will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations may also be disciplined in the event that the accusations have been proven false.

All investigations shall be consistent with fair process as set forth in ¶2701 of The 2012 Book of Discipline and the Decisions of The Judicial Council of the United Methodist Church.

Confidentiality

While The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information concerning the complaint or the investigation only on a “need to know” basis and as necessary to promote God’s call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

REPORT 8

SAFE SANCTUARIES POLICY and MINIMUM STANDARDS

INTRODUCTION. One mission of The Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference Board of Trustees is to support the work of the local church. At each meeting the members keep in front of them the question, “How will this action help the local church?” Our prayer is that the revised Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards will help the local church accomplish its ministries while ensuring the safety of our children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults. We encourage clergy and laity to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of your local church. If you have any questions you may contact any member of the Board of Trustees.

- I. THEOLOGICAL BASIS. The theological basis of the Safe Sanctuaries Policy & Minimum Standards (SSPMS) is grounded in the following:
 - A. Children are important! Jesus said, “Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me . . .” (Mark 9.37, all Scripture references are from the New Revised Standard Version). We ought to offer hospitality and protect children. Jesus said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18.6; Mark 9.42).
 - B. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that “. . . children must be protected from economic, physical and sexual exploitation, and abuse.” Id., Paragraph (¶) 162C.
 - C. Members of the United Methodist Church regularly pledge commitment to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each person will be “. . . surrounded by steadfast love, . . . established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal” (Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Hymnal, p. 44).
 - D. Paragraph 2702 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012 names child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct, and sexual harassment as chargeable offenses for both clergy and lay members.
- II. DEFINITIONS. The following definitions shall be used in establishing, applying, and interpreting the SSPMS:
 - A. Abuse
 1. Physical abuse occurs where a person intentionally causes bodily harm to a child, youth, or at-risk or vulnerable adult.
 2. Emotional abuse occurs where a person speaks violently or cruelly to a child, youth, or at-risk or vulnerable adult, or otherwise exposes a child, youth, or at-risk or vulnerable adult to violence or emotional cruelty.
 3. Neglect is abuse which occurs where a person endangers the health, safety, or welfare of a child, youth, or at-risk or vulnerable adult by failing to act in a reasonable manner.
 4. Sexual abuse occurs where an adult or another older or more powerful youth has sexual contact with a child, youth, or at-risk or vulnerable adult.
 - B. Personnel
 1. Governing body refers to the local church leadership approved and elected by the annual Charge Conference of the local church and in compliance with The Book of Discipline of

The United Methodist Church 2012 (§ 243, 244, and 247). Examples may include Church Council, Administrative Board, Board of Stewards, etc.

2. Authority figure is a person who is the primary leader of any youth, children, or at-risk or vulnerable adult activity and such person is required to be twenty-one (21) years of age or older.
3. Assistant is a person who gives help to and is directed by an authority figure in the course of any youth, children, or at-risk or vulnerable adult activity including, but not limited to, volunteers, interns, camp counselors, and Vacation Bible School workers. Such an assistant must be at least twelve (12) years of age. However, in order to count for satisfying requirements of the two adult rule (§ II.C.1, below,) such assistant must be an adult as herein defined.
4. Adults are all persons who have attained the age of majority (19 years in Alabama and 18 years in Florida).
5. Floater is an adult who acts as an assistant to an authority figure to monitor covered activities or events (§ II.C.2, below,) in order to comply with the two adult rule (§ II.C.1, below,) when achieving such compliance by use of two non-related adults is unfeasible.
6. Children are all persons from infants through the fifth grade or sixth grade, as determined by each local church in order to conform with grade-level practices of its local area schools regarding classifications of elementary schools and middle or junior high schools.
7. Youth are all persons in the sixth-grade or seventh-grade through the twelfth-grade, as determined by each local church in order to conform with grade-level practices of its local area schools regarding classifications of middle or junior high schools and high schools.
8. At-risk or vulnerable adults are adults with physical, mental, and/or developmental impairment or disability.

C. Activities

1. Two adult rule is a core principle regarding the supervision required for covered activities and overnight events. This rule means that a minimum of two adults who are not related to each other should be utilized in all programming with children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults. However, when unfeasible to staff at buildings and outdoor areas with two non-related adults, there should be at least an additional adult serving as a floater with visual and physical access to all areas where such programming occurs. Visual and physical access means either an open door or door with a window that provides a line of sight enabling the floater to see into a room or other building space and to see fully outdoor sites where covered activities or events take place.
2. Covered activities or events for purposes of this document include all church programming for children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults.
3. Overnight events are a type of covered activity or event which extends through the evening and which may include summer camps, retreats, mission trips, and lock-ins.
 - a. Room sharing limits means that adults staying with young people during overnight events must be the same gender as the young people and that such adults must not be alone in a lodging room with a young person at any time and must not share a bed with a young person unless he/she is an immediate family member or guardian of such young person and of the same gender.

- b. Immediate family member or guardian room sharing exception means that an immediate family member or guardian of a young person who is chaperoning an overnight event is permitted to share a room and bed with his/her child no matter the gender as long as no other young people are sharing the room.

4. Transportation

- a. Transportation is a covered activity whenever such transportation is provided in a church-owned or leased vehicle (car, SUV, van, bus, etc.) or when a church staff member is the driver of or present in any vehicle used for such transportation. This provision shall not apply to multi-vehicle caravanning transportation. Two adults are not required to occupy each of the private vehicles in a caravan.
- b. Any such transportation provided for a church-sponsored or church-hosted program of day-care, pre-school, or after-school care that is licensed under the laws of Alabama or Florida shall abide by and conform with the respective state laws and regulations, if any, applicable to such a transportation function.

III. POLICY STATEMENT. In covenant with all United Methodist congregations and the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, we endeavor as follows:

- A. We shall strive to provide for physical safety and spiritual growth of all our children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults.
- B. We shall strive to demonstrate the love of Jesus Christ so that each person will be “. . . surrounded by steadfast love, . . . established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal” (Baptismal Covenant II, The United Methodist Hymnal, p. 44).

- H. We shall strive to acknowledge, respond to, and investigate all questions or reports regarding alleged abuse.
- I. We shall strive to adhere to biblical church discipline, particularly as recognized in ¶ 2702 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012, which names child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct, and sexual harassment as chargeable offenses for clergy and lay members.
- J. We shall commit to observe the Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards.
- IV. STANDARDS: THEIR ADOPTION. Local churches within the Conference may adopt their own Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards, provided such standards equal or exceed in strength of protection for children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults the minimum standards here stated. In the absence of such local church action, the minimum standards that shall be utilized in implementing and applying the Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards undertaken in the above-stated covenant with other United Methodist congregations and the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall be as follows:

- A. RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTATION. Such periodic training and education on Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards and procedures provided by the Alabama-West Florida Conference shall be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. - D. ACCOUNTABILITY AND REPORTING. The following accountability and reporting measures shall be developed and employed:
 1. Congregational Accountability. The SSC shall report to the Governing Body of the local church congregation at least annually and at such other interim times as circumstances relating to its responsibilities may require. In addition, the SSC shall regularly inform the Governing Body and the congregation at large concerning its efforts to recruit volunteers. Also the Governing Body and congregation shall regularly be informed and reminded by the SSC of the Safe Sanctuaries Policy and Minimum Standards content, and the Standards, Qualifications, and Screening requirements under the SSPMS that are applicable to employment of paid staff and to granting permission for service by volunteer workers. The SSC shall periodically announce and publicize that a church member may at any time upon request to the Pastor in Charge or his/her designee review and/or obtain a personal written copy of the complete policy document.

Resources and instructions for reporting suspected infractions or incidents constituting abuse (whether of child, youth, at-risk or vulnerable adult) proscribed by this policy document should be conspicuously posted in and about the local church buildings and campus.
- E. QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED FOR SERVING CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND AT-RISK OR VULNERABLE ADULTS FOR VOLUNTEER PERSONNEL. The qualifications for volunteer service in a local church with duties and responsibilities that include serving children, youth, and at-risk or vulnerable adults shall be as follows:

REPORT 9 CONFERENCE - WIDE INSURANCE PROGRAM (UNITED METHODIST INSURANCE)

In September 2006 the Board of Trustees joined United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust (PACT) by insuring all of the annual conference owned property and operations. In 2007 the Annual Conference adopted, but did not make mandatory, a resolution to establish PACT as the conference-wide insurance carrier for all of the churches and ministries of this annual conference beginning January 1, 2008.

In 2011 the denomination's top financial agency (GCFA) became the single owner of the PACT program. The General Council on Finance and Administration approved a plan to allow the United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust Company to buy out the 12 annual (regional) conferences and two general agencies that then owned the company. The new entity became United Methodist Insurance (UMI)

In 2013 sixty-five churches and agencies were insured by UMI through the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

The Conference began 2013 with a balance of $177,205.71.

We received return of 2010 excess property premium in the amount of $107,060.84.

We ended 2013 with a balance of $284,266.55

We will continue to offer the UMI coverage to churches in the Alabama-West Florida Conference via the new UMI partnership which began January 1, 2010, with the Church Insurance Agency Corporation (CIAC). The Church Insurance Agency Corporation is the Episcopal Church equivalent of UMI, that is, a captive that has provided ministry protection for the Episcopal churches in the US for over 100 years. CIAC will provide UMI the program administration services, including billing and endorsement changes. Their Alabama representative, Mr. William (Bill) Bullock who lives in Spanish Fort, has proven to be of benefit to the local churches of the annual conference. He can be reached at (251) 621-2041 or BBullock@cpg.org.

REPORT 10 - MINIMUM INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

The Book of Discipline 2012 Par. 2533.2 requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks." Since 1797, the Book of Discipline has provided that the property and assets of local churches are held in trust for the benefit of the denomination. Inadequate insurance puts local church property and assets at risk; including the denomination's trust interest therein. Therefore, Trustees of the Alabama-West Florida Conference, representing the denomination's trust interest, have adopted the following minimum insurance requirements for local churches:

A higher per occurrence limit may be appropriate based on specific risk characteristics such as church size and/or scope of operations and ministries.

Per Occurrence Limit $1,000,000 (minimum) Aggregate $1,000,000

Reverend Debora Bishop, President
Conference Board of Trustees

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

"It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference.” (§625.2, 2012 Discipline)

In our desire to help thriving congregations secure an appropriate pastor salary, we recommend the following guidelines to be strongly considered as a church applies for assistance through the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC).

Only full-time pastors who are in full connection, provisional, associate conference membership and full-time local pastors are eligible for equitable compensation support. These pastors must be certified by the board of ordained ministry (district and conference levels as applicable), approved by the annual conference, and appointed to a church or charge. Each ordained clergy person who is in good standing, and who is appointed by the bishop to less than full-time service, is eligible for equitable compensation to total no more than that percent of equitable compensation to which they are appointed. No associate pastor, part-time local pastor or supply pastor shall receive salary support from this fund.

To receive fully scheduled equitable compensation for the minister’s category, the church must pay 80% of the minimum salary for the year for which equitable compensation is desired.

The amount of equitable compensation a pastor is eligible to receive is based upon the total of his/her base salary, travel allowance and utilities, and other approved related allowances (total salary package), excluding housing allowance given in lieu of a parsonage

No pastor of any classification shall receive aid from CEC if he/she receives income from any other church source if that income plus salary from the charge he/she serves is more than minimum salary. No person qualifying for equitable compensation which amounts to less than $600 per year will receive any equitable compensation.

We recommend that no pastor serving outside the bounds of our conference be eligible to receive equitable compensation unless there is no appointment available for him/her in the conference, or unless it is a special appointment by the presiding bishop. Appointment for the convenience of the pastor shall not be considered a sufficient reason.

The CEC recognizes there may occasionally exist certain situations within our conference in which special funding consideration beyond the stipulated requirements may assist a church to become self-sustaining more quickly. In such situations, a supplement determined by the CEC, above the regular equitable compensation may be given the pastor provided the money is available. Normally, no situation will receive this special consideration for more than three years. Such cases will be determined by growth criteria such as growth potential, leadership requirements, age of church, and indebtedness.

In the case of cooperative parish ministries or specialized ministries, the district superintendent may recommend that the CEC, in consultation with the District

Board of Missions, give consideration to supplement the salary of a pastor/director or associate director.

The CEC recognizes that there may occasionally exist hardship cases which should be considered for financial assistance. Sensing a need for such assistance for a charge, the DS should assess the situation and present the findings and request rationale to the CEC upon whom rests the final decision.

To motivate churches toward the goal of total pastoral support, the CEC proposes to give a bonus (as funds are available) of 60% of a charge's salary increase over the previous year, provided 80% of the minimum for the pastor's category is also reached.

The CEC recommends that all charges receiving equitable compensation develop and implement a plan to become self-sustaining, i.e. to no longer need CEC's assistance and that such a plan be submitted to CEC through their DS; that no charge be eligible to receive equitable compensation for more than 5 consecutive years; that charges must have, in the past year, a net gain in membership and worship attendance, pay 100% of their apportionments, and have at least 1 profession of faith.

Concerning a church/charge's submission of a plan for financial self-sustenance, each applicant church self-selects whether it is on CEC's 3- or 5-year maximum plan. Church's who do not submit a written plan for becoming self-sustaining may receive CEC funds for a maximum of 3 years while church's who do submit such a vitality plan may receive funds for a maximum of 5 years. A church may move from CEC's 3-year plan to the 5-year plan upon submitting the aforementioned plan anytime during their first 3 years of receiving CEC funding. These 3- and 5-year plans refer to maximum numbers of years; CEC funding awards are for 1 year at a time.

The district superintendents are required to review all equitable compensation situations in their districts to ascertain the necessity for such funds and whenever possible seek to reduce the need for this supplement. The CEC recommends that charges have 100 or more members in order to qualify for CEC funds, except in the case of a new church.

It is the responsibility of the district superintendent to follow the guidelines set forth by CEC when recommending charges and pastors for equitable compensation. Also, the DS's shall be responsible for the accurate completion and submission to the CEC the forms provided by the CEC for this purpose. The secretary of the CEC shall not issue a check order for equitable compensation funds until all criteria have been met as determined by the CEC. When the status of a pastor receiving these funds changes, the DS should immediately notify the CEC of the changed status.

Full-time local pastors who do not have a parsonage must receive a housing allowance to bring their total plan compensation up to 60% of the denominational average compensation so that they will be eligible for Comprehensive Protection Plan Benefits.

The CEC shall file with the conference office personnel related to the AWF Journal publication each year a schedule listing the equitable compensation payments during the year, giving names of charges and amounts paid to each.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends the following Equitable Compensation Schedule for 2015:

All Full-Time Appointed Clergy $35,000

Report No. 2 - Arrearage Policy

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, or to remit to the Conference Treasurer full payment for regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within 3 days) the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, and the Administrative/Church Council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall immediately (within 3 days) notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of pension and benefits.
2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within 24 hours) call a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, and the Administrative/ Church Council to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring.

Such remedies might include:

- a. drawing from invested funds,
- b. an emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation,
- c. emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

According to the Book of Discipline paragraph 624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the Lay Leader and Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, and the Administrative/Church Council, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long term financial crisis, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent that:

- a. an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the Conference year or,
- b. a change in pastoral compensation may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year, or
- c. a change in pastoral appointment as deemed necessary by the bishop and cabinet.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:

- a. sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue.
- b. developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year.

The District Superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:

- a. determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary,
- b. examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced,
- c. require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines, (www.gcfa.org)
- d. notify the District Superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing.

6. If a local church becomes delinquent in the payment of the pastor's direct billed pension and benefits (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the Conference Treasurer shall notify the Conference Benefits Officer, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. On behalf of the Conference the Benefits Officer and/or District Superintendent shall develop a written payment plan with the local church so that the Conference receives full payment of pension and benefits by the end of the conference year.

7. Paragraph 2542.1 of the Book of Discipline makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

8. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference after completing the required financial audit of the church, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (paragraph 624).

9. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: Treasurer's Reports, Charge Conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment Form signed by the Pastor, S/PPRC Chair, Trustee Chair, Treasurer, and Administrative/Church Council Chair.

10. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (Paragraph 342.4).

11. While verbal notifications required in paragraph 1 of this policy provide expedient resolution to the arrearage issue, written notification to all parties must be provided within 3 days to provide a record of such notification.

Rev. Matt Mobley, Chairperson

Report No. 8 STEWARDSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES and LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

1. CFA believes that all apportionments are needed in the amounts apportioned. Furthermore, CFA believes that all churches have the capacity to pay apportionments in full. In 2012, 78.93% of apportioned funds were paid by local churches. In 2013, 83.49% of apportioned funds were paid by local churches. CFA continues to encourage all churches and all United Methodist Christians in the Alabama - West Florida Annual Conference to participate fully in our connectional ministries through generous serving, generous giving, generous living, generous leading, and generous praying. The 2015 Conference budget reflects a 1.32% decrease in Connectional Missional giving (apportionments.) General Church apportionments have increased by $860 or 0.03%. Jurisdictional apportionments decreased by 50% in 2015. Over-all Annual Conference Connectional Missional (apportionments) decreased by 1.41 % in 2015.

2. By action of the 2001 Annual Conference, thy 50%e following schedule shall be used in setting apportionments for new churches:

3R year	50% apportioned
4th year	75% apportioned
5th year & following	100% apportioned

3. Apportionments shall be made to all churches using the apportionment formula outlined in CFA Report - Formula and Allocations.

4. Local churches shall provide for the audits of local church records as provided in paragraph 258.4d of the 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Report No. 9 FORMULA and ALLOCATIONS

1. In 2012 a task force was formed to evaluate the fairness of the current formula for determining conference apportionments. They reviewed formulas used in each of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Annual Conferences. The task force recommend, and the 2013Annual Conference approved, the continued use of the current apportionment formula.

2. Therefore, the apportionments shall be developed using a formula based on financial strength of the local churches and membership of the local churches. Financial strength will be weighted 75% and professing membership will be weighted 25% in the formula. Apportionments will be determined by local church decimal applied to the amount of each budget item at the conference level.

3. The financial strength of a local church in calculating the decimal formula shall be based on all local expenditures (lines 53-62 of the Local Church Report to the Annual Conference). This eliminates all apportionments (including direct billing) and special giving from the formula. (Listing: Standing Rule No. 22)

4. The winter/spring meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be the time for receiving requests from all boards and agencies for the ensuing year. All boards and agencies should be advised that they place their allocations in jeopardy when they fail to submit timely budget requests.

5. The local church will enter the Local Church Report information using the "UMC GCFA Statistical Input System" located on Alabama-West Florida Conference Web Site (www.awfumc.org) Contact the District Superintendent's office for the User Name and Password if they are not known by the church pastor. The pastor and chairperson of the Committee on Finance or the church treasurer shall review the annual local church report as being correct before its final submission. The Fiscal Office will establish a date by which it should be notified if corrections are necessary. If no corrections are identified by that date, the fiscal officer will consider the report accurate. When the new year's apportionments are run in July/August, there will be only one set of apportionments, which will be the final set. There will not be a "Trial Set" of apportionments.

ALABAMA - WEST FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
CONFERENCE YEAR 2013
CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATION ACCOUNT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Organization

The Conference Administration Account is a fund of the Alabama - West Florida Conference (the Conference) of the United Methodist Church. The fund accounts for the operation and support of the administrative and executive offices of the Conference and the annual meeting.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statement of the Conference Administration Account has been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

Receipts, disbursements and transfers include transactions through January 8, 2014, which are designated for the conference year 2013.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference Administration Account considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments purchased with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 25, 2014, which is the date the financial statement was available to be issued.

Independent Auditors' Report

Council on Finance and Administration
Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church
Montgomery, Alabama

We have audited the accompanying financial statement of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 2013, which comprises the statement of cash receipts, disbursements and transfers for the conference year 2013, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this statement in accordance with the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting as described in Note 1; this includes determining that the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statement in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts, disbursements and transfers of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 2013, in accordance with the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting as described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial statement, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statement is prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
CONFERENCE YEAR 2013

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Organization

As a custodial agency of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), the Council on Finance and Administration (the Council) receives certain funds of the Conference primarily from member churches and related individuals in South Alabama and West Florida. The Council disburses these funds to or on behalf of and in accordance with the direction of the various boards and agencies of the Conference.

The financial statement does not include all of the accounts of the various boards and agencies, each of which has its own governing body and maintains its own separate accounts.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statement has been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

Receipts, disbursements and transfers include transactions through January 8, 2014, which are designated for the conference year 2013.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Council considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments purchased with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 25, 2014, which is the date the financial statement was available to be issued.

2. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Council maintains deposits in various financial institutions. Deposits of $250,000 or less are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Of the total balances of $6,121,135.46 at January 8, 2014, $3,093,424.49 was uninsured.

MISSION TEAM REPORTS

Circles of Transformation

The primary goal of Circles® is to move families toward self-sufficiency and away from dependence.

The United Methodist Church worldwide has committed to Ministry with the Poor as one of four focus areas. Circles of Transformation is just that – ministry with the poor, not to the poor or for the poor. Circles is designed to transform lives through the building of intentional relationships across economic, social and racial lines.

What is Circles?

Circles is a ministry of reconciliation, a ministry of restoration and healing. Employment is the primary goal of Circles. Surprisingly, fewer than 2% of churches across the country focus on jobs as a way to help families in poverty. And yet jobs are the only way to move families toward financial self-sufficiency.

Circles is a transformational approach that partners community volunteers with families wanting to make the journey out of poverty. Those families are matched with two or three middle and upper income Allies who have received training in advance. The Allies lend encouragement and support and share their life experiences with the families who are in financial need.

What is happening in our Conference?

The Dothan Circles site has been underway since January of 2013, and has served as our Conference pilot site. Circles in Dothan is growing in strength and numbers. Numerous sites throughout the Conference are planning and working toward the implementation of Circles in their own communities. Vision Teams have been formed in those cities, and they are working to get local Circles initiatives launched.

How can I get involved?

The recommended steps in establishing a local Circles initiative include the following: holding community information meetings to gain support for this effort, studying the book When Helping Hurts and establishing a Circles Vision Team to begin the work of praying and planning.

Congregations interested in learning more about this process can call Laurel and Fred Blackwell, Circles coordinators for the Conference, at 334.524.3652 or write to them at circles@awfumc.org.

To learn more about the Circles campaign and the progress that is being made in nearly 80 communities across the nation, you can go to the Circles USA website <http://www.Circlesusa.org/>.

Division of Disability Concerns

Division of Disability Concerns of the Alabama-West Florida Conference has tried to make the districts aware of information that will help them be inclusive of persons with special needs and their families. I have sent emails to the districts, including the VOICE of United Methodist Disability Connections –the Newsletter of the United Methodist Committee on DisAbility Ministries, and Emails from the Inclusive Church.

I reported a concern of Zirlott Road United Methodist Church--helping a man in a wheel chair to participate in a Marathon. They were raising funds so the man could have a special wheelchair to allow a friend to partner with him. I have been concerned over the cost of physical changes to make church buildings accessible. The cost of an elevator is prohibitive to smaller churches. My church, New Life, is two stories with elderly and mobility challenged members and no elevator. This limits the use of the second floor. Making buildings wheelchair accessible, hiring signers for the deaf/hearing impaired and other accommodations require funding. Is there something we can do to assist?

NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) Alabama continues to have Sharing Hope to reach out to the African American congregations. NAMI National has FaithNet to reach out to the faith communities. NAMI Alabama also had the Pastor's Summit in November. Mobile area had 17 people attend, 5 were United Methodists.

As part of the UMW reading program I read Faithful Witnesses by John Edward Nuessle. One statement he made is "Mission is not primarily an activity of the church but is an attribute of God". He emphasized that mission is Mission Dei – God's Mission. The call to "go" on a journey into all the world includes those who have disabilities and special needs. Firstly, I am a woman diagnosed with Turner Syndrome and am just 4'5" tall. As a teenager and young adult that was a challenge. Secondly, I am a family member. My mother had Schizophrenia. I know that the church made a big difference in the life of her children. My mother was the one who took us to church. The church accepted us, included us, loved us and did not treat us differently because our mother had a mental illness. I am a retired social worker and have worked with the mentally ill, those with epilepsy, HIV/AIDS and those with other special needs. Family members have been impacted by autism, cystic fibrosis and other disabilities. I know there are people in every district who have similar connections. I hope I can connect with some of them and we can go forward in God's Mission/Ministry.

Division of Native American Ministries

Aldersgate United Methodist Church is the largest Native American Church in the Alabama-West Florida Conference, with a long and proud history in its community, located on the northern edge of Mobile County. It is a traditional United Methodist Church, with most of the members belonging to the MOWA Choctaw tribe, as documented by Jacqueline Anderson Matte in her book They Say the Wind is Red, ISBN- 092629104-1. Most of the members are also related by blood and/or marriage. In the early days this was a rural and isolated community that depended on agriculture and timber products. At that time Byrd's Chapel was the main church in the community, and different church members preached from week to week. In the mid-1930s Rev. W. P. Patillo came to the community as a Methodist missionary. Brother Patillo and several community leaders decided they needed to build a new church with a full-time pastor.

This new church, Aldersgate, became the hub of the community and was the center of most community activities. Brother Patillo continued his ministry to this community for 20 years, from the mid-1930s to the mid-1950s. In addition to helping establish the church, he had the foresight to purchase property in the area for use of the church and its members as home sites. Other Methodist missionary teachers came to the community in the 1940s and were instrumental in establishing the local school. The church and the community continue to enjoy a close relationship today. Construction began in January on a new school facility, which was badly needed but will relocate the school from property adjacent to the church to a site about a mile from the school. Members are very concerned about and involved in the disposition of the current school property and buildings.

On June 25, 1985, the church was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. But of course, the spirit of this congregation couldn't be destroyed. They saw it as an opportunity to grow, and soon they were breaking ground for a new, more modern building, and the new church was completed, as it exists today. In 2000, a new gym and fellowship hall were added to serve the growing needs of the church. Both are used for many community events. The annual homecoming service, held in the fall, celebrates the history and traditions of Aldersgate, and enjoys the largest attendance of the year. Of course, the traditional "covered-dish dinner" follows the worship service.

Today Aldersgate is involved in many exciting projects. The Church participated in the Natural Church growth process, and anticipates additional community outreach, membership growth, and increased participation in group activities. The church now has seven certified lay speakers in the membership. Many of them will be speaking at other churches on Native American Sunday. The church has produced three United Methodist Native American ministers, George Weaver, Prentiss Taylor, and Dunford Cole. One of those ministers, George Weaver, retired from full-time ministry and is serving Aldersgate on a part-time basis, which was necessitated by the recent direct billing adjustment. Under George's leadership, attendance has doubled and many new members are attending; others previously on the roll have become active. Our goal is to increase attendance and giving so we can return to a full-time charge.

Aldersgate is responsive to community needs and holds numerous fundraisers, events and benefits as needed. The church has a rich tradition of fellowship and love that binds it together as a community of faith. We pray that they can continue in a positive spirit of our founders, seeing challenges as opportunities, and doing Christ's work in our world.

Bruce UMC Food Pantry

Bruce UMC and the food Pantry ministry is a community affair called the Rural Relief Fund (RRF). The food pantry feeds anywhere from 250 to 300 on the third Saturday of every month. On Saturday, February 15, 2014, they assisted 265 families; this also included a furniture sale and a gypsy table set up to sell items at a very low cost. We witnessed a faith-based ecumenical group helping their neighbors in need. Shalimar United Methodist Church cleaned up a playground from trash and debris.

Bruce United Methodist Church has several leaders that are instrumental in getting this done. They used the word partnership with other groups that may not be affiliated with churches; such as the USDA, and donations from other various groups. Chuck and Ann Tucker are both members and attend worship at Bruce UMC. Ann is the tribal chairperson of the Muskogee nation, and Chuck is the manager of the food pantry, and a member of the CONAM (Conference Native American Ministries) board.

This group is hard-working and run by very caring volunteers. Bruce UMC also partners with West Florida Community Health (AHEC) to help people with tobacco addictions; they have a treatment specialist that comes in every third Saturday of the month to teach groups about the dangers of tobacco. The church and the community have its work cut out for them with the reduction of food assistance and the loss of jobs. The church also is in need of a pastor, but the congregation is keeping the faith and needs the support of the Conference to send them a pastor who will invest in the church and people. Bruce is a Native American church that serves all people, but the membership is primarily the Muskogee Indians.

Conference Native American Ministries (CONAM)

Recently, the Conference Native American Ministries committee has been activated, and consists of members from Aldersgate UMC in Mt. Vernon, AL, and Bruce UMC in Bruce, FL, along with other people concerned about Native American ministries and people in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Native Americans make up a significant percentage of these two churches' membership.

The CONAM's Mission is to help all United Methodist Churches, including Native American Churches, to understand the mission of the United Methodist Church, and the role they play in making disciples. It also exists to help churches know that they have a unique relationship to reach other groups within the community in which they serve. It's important for the churches to have a partnership with one another to help racial issues within the Native people. The Churches can work together and help with hunger, drug abuse, and education. The people of the CONAM committee appreciate the support of the Native American Awareness offering that churches take as one of the six special offerings each year. This special offering helps make the CONAM work possible.

Division of Status and Role of Women (COSROW)

The General Commission on the Status and Role of Women is one of twelve church wide agencies of The United Methodist Church which is financed through the World Service Fund (apportioned giving from local congregations). It is one of two independent commissions, the other being the General Commission on Religion and Race, charged with advocating, monitoring and challenging the church to seek justice and inclusiveness. The Commission is accountable to the General Conference.

The Commission challenges the United Methodist Church to a commitment for the full life and participation of women in the complete life and mission of the church. The commission serves as an advocate for and on behalf of women and seeks to eliminate inequities in relation to women in the church as to the diversity of the United Methodist Church, including laity and clergy, youth and young adults, older adults, racial/ethnic women and men, persons with disabilities and regional representatives.

The Commission is helping the church be a more reliable and trustworthy agent of the liberating Gospel of Jesus Christ so that we recognize every person as a "full and equal part of God's human family." (The Book of Discipline)

Through training, education, research and monitoring, the Commission:

- Nurtures women leaders in the church
- Addresses gender discrimination
- Confronts sexual harassment and abuse and advocates for victims
- Raises awareness about women's issues and opportunities
- Identifies institutional sexism and recommends ways to diminish it

The annual event was held January 10 - 11, 2013 at Blue Lake Camp. The event centers on education, strategy and/or awakening. This year's Event was led by facilitator, Audrey Krumbach, General COSROW Director of Gender Justice and Education.

Also annually, an award named for a truly great leader in the Alabama-West Florida

Conference, Alice Lee, of Monroeville, Alabama is given to another outstanding female leader from our conference. She must have church and community leadership and be an outstanding person to carry forth the leadership of Alice Lee. The 2013 recipient is Norma Taylor Mitchell, a former chair of COSROW in Alabama-West Florida who has retired as a professor at Troy University in Troy and has moved to North Carolina.

To carry out our mandate to full ordination of women, the conference COSROW presents at least one $1,000 scholarship to a female clergy candidate or a female seminarian entering into full time service to the church. The recipient must be attending a United Methodist seminary. To date, COSROW has presented 21 scholarships since 1997. The scholarship is named for Jane Walker of Opelika, Alabama, who was an outstanding woman in her own right. The 2013 recipient was Susan D. Hatcher. She is attending Candler School of Theology at Emory University. The scholarships are presented, annually, at the Annual Conference COSROW Breakfast on Tuesday morning at 7:00 AM Room 6111.

Since 2009 there has been a scholarship named for the immediate past chair of COSROW, Ruth Gynther of Auburn, Alabama. Ruth worked tirelessly during her tenure to make the conference organization viable and visible. Her scholarship assists persons to attend the annual COSROW Event.

COSROW monitors Annual Conference and the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations for equal representation and equal access to leadership, helps members attend General Church trainings and represents the MAJORITY membership in the United Methodist Church.

Applications for all awards and scholarships are available on the conference website at www.awfumc.org or by contacting the Alabama-West Florida Conference Headquarters at 334-356-8014.

Conference Board of Church and Society

Social justice was central to the ministry of our Lord when He walked this earth; Jesus was especially concerned with the well-being of those He called “the least of these.” We are called to promote healing despite pervasive modern strife, justice from systems that are fixed on punishment, and love in the midst of hate that is too often celebrated in the media. To that end, the Board has chosen five areas of ministry as priorities:

Predatory lending. Current Alabama law allows charging poor families 300% for auto title loans and over 400% for payday loans. The usurious scheme traps the victims for months and years. The 2013 AWF Annual Conference called upon the Alabama legislature to place limits on this mushrooming industry of greed.

Immigration. A national legislative solution is needed that does not punish innocent children and their families, in keeping with the resolution passed by the 2013 AWF Conference.

Prisons. They are terribly over-crowded with many non-violent, first-time offenders who serve very long sentences. They are kept in inadequate facilities that are dangerous to them and even to their guards, who too often have only half the recommended staffing.

Health care for poor families, especially for children. Even hard working families that make ends meet can be quickly reduced to poverty by providing necessary health care.

Human trafficking. It is present in the AWF Conference. It ranges from exploitation of the worst physical kind to immigrants trapped in work situations from which they cannot escape.

Fourth Annual Legislative Prayer Breakfast

In early 2014, the AWF Board of Church and Society hosted a Montgomery meeting of leaders from the AWF and North Alabama Conferences on social justice issues. Mutual concerns and priorities were discussed, along with ways to combine forces on some issues. After the meeting, attendees went to the capitol to discuss issues that affect “the least of these” with legislators, paying special attention to the predatory lending proposals being debated.

Prison Visit and Peace with Justice

Jesus specifically commanded us to care about prisoners. Alabama’s prison and jail population is greater than the county population of almost half the counties in Alabama. At the Board’s request, Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice Sue Bell Cobb (Retired) arranged a visit to Draper Prison in Wetumpka, Alabama. We were joined by two district superintendents, as well as representatives of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women. Escorted by the Warden and other prison system officials, our group witnessed first hand a prison at 200% capacity because of outdated sentencing laws; it is at 50% of needed staff because of State budgetary problems. The chaplain showed us the chapel, which is inadequate for the number of prisoners who want and need to worship in it. The Board has committed to participating in a plan to raise funds for materials that would allow the prisoners to construct – with their own labor - a new chapel. Representatives of the Board have met with the AWF Cabinet on this effort to help prisoners become worshippers. Look for more plans in the future.

The Board is also determined to raise awareness of the danger to the prison population and prison staff, as well as the injustices built into the current penal system. Too many people have made stupid, nonviolent mistakes and been imprisoned for years. Florida has the additional problem of for-profit prisons lobbying for laws that would lock up even more citizens.

Studying for Action on Social Justice Issues

The Board of Church and Society continues to partner with United Methodist Women to offer Mission u (formerly the School of Christian Mission). This year it was entitled Learning Together for the Transformation of the World. In the summer of 2013, we held these discussions and classes:

- Poverty is increasing in our own prosperous country and is a crushing force to many in the world. It can happen even to hardworking individuals and families and has many causes. We sought to better understand poverty and how to follow our biblical commandments to help those in poverty.
- The European Roma (sometimes called Gypsies) are a people often misunderstood and routinely discriminated against, even persecuted.
- Living Sacramentally and Walking Justly, a course which gave us tools to deepen spiritual identity, engage with our communities, and get more involved in mission.

The Church and People with Disabilities is a key topic for 2014.

Response to AWF 2013 Annual Conference request about Faith and Science

Rev. Dr. Lawson Bryan placed a motion before the 2013 delegates. “I move that the annual conference request that the Conference Board of Church and Society consider holding conversations with the Religion Faculty and the Science Faculty of Huntingdon College for the purpose offering to the 2014 annual conference a list of resources that would be helpful in exploring the relationship between faith and science.” The motion passed. The Board offers three results from its efforts with the College:

- A document containing a concise summary of current United Methodist doctrine on the relationship between religion and science.
- An annotated list of selected works that individuals and churches may use for further study.
- A website with an extensive list of works, maintained by the Huntingdon College Library and available to all in the AWF Conference. (The website also offers the document and the annotated list for download.) The link to the website is <http://libguides.huntingdon.edu/ReligionandScience>.

Doctrine of the United Methodist Church on Faith and Science

by Harry Hodges

Background

In June of 2013 at the Annual Conference of the Alabama-West Florida (AWF) United Methodist Conference, several petitions were submitted regarding the theory of evolution. The petitions would have the AWF Annual Conference ask the next General Conference (worldwide) to change the current United Methodist positions on science and evolution. These petitions supported the teaching of the Biblical account of creation as science in public schools, and they asked that the Church rescind its endorsement of the Clergy Letter Project which holds that evolution is consistent with faith. The petitions were discussed extensively and voted upon, but they failed to pass. The next day at the conference the following motion was placed before delegates by Rev. Dr. Lawson Bryan:

“I move that the annual conference request that the Conference Board of Church and Society consider holding conversations with the Religion Faculty and the Science Faculty of Huntingdon College for the purpose offering to the 2014 annual conference a list of resources that would be helpful in exploring the relationship between faith and science.”

During the discussion, the President of the Conference Board of Church and Society was consulted, and he agreed that the request was consistent with the duties of the Board. The motion was voted upon and passed.

Response to the Request

Members of the Board of Church and Society met with faculty representatives from the science and religion departments at Huntingdon College, the only Methodist-affiliated college in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. The consensus was to offer three products: a document addressing current Methodist official positions on faith and science, a list of resources churches may use as a basis for further study, and an extensive online bibliography accessible to all through the library at Huntingdon College. This document is the first product: a report on current Methodist positions on faith and science.

Methodists and Society

United Methodists, from the beginning with John Wesley, have been involved in society and its issues (as was Jesus, when He walked this earth as a model for us all). Early Methodists took stands on slavery, humane treatment of prisoners, smuggling, and other issues that had political and economic ramifications. Every Methodist can be considered a minister, called to be engaged and to seek justice; this engagement occurs in society. Our church is called to be in connection with other churches and even with other denominations so that the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ may be realized.

Though John Wesley may not have formulated the exact succinct statement now referred to as The Methodist Quadrilateral, it is widely viewed as a core declaration for Methodists. The Quadrilateral illuminates four pillars that support the development of faith in each individual: scripture, tradition, reason, and experience. The importance given to reason and experience demonstrates the willingness of Methodists to use the tools that the Creator gave us; multiple references in our doctrines testify to the power and potential of science. From the beginning United Methodists have been unwilling to impose their beliefs on others. Wesley famously admonished us “to do no harm,” and he stated in one of his sermons to: “Never dream of forcing men into the ways of God. Think yourself, and let think. Use no constraint in matters of religion.”

Rules, Principles, and Resolutions

Anyone curious to know the official position of United Methodists on a prominent social issue can consult readily available sources to inform himself. Primary among these is the Book of Discipline, which sets forth the rules, organization, and theology of Methodists. The Social Principles (contained in The Book of Discipline) are statements by Methodists that speak to contemporary issues. Their biblical foundation encourages members to extend God's grace to all. The Book of Resolutions is a compilation of statements passed by General Conferences that address specific concerns; anyone may profess ideas or beliefs, but only The Book of Resolutions expresses current official statements by the United Methodist Church. The Social Principles are of great import to Methodists, and they are frequently the subject of petitions as occurred at the AWF Annual Conference in June 2013.

The Methodist Structure and Societal Issues

All local churches are members of the Annual Conference, which is both a yearly meeting and a regional governing organization. Our conference covers the southern half of Alabama and the Florida panhandle. The Annual Conference is composed in equal numbers of lay and clergy delegates. Even though the assigned Bishop is the elected leader of the conference, only the Annual Conference can speak for all AWF Methodists. Each annual conference elects delegates to the General Conference, the United Methodist Church's top legislative body which meets every four years. The next meeting is scheduled for 2016 when approximately 1000 delegates from around the world will conduct the business of the church and set policy. The General Conference is the only entity that speaks for the United Methodist Church and its 12 million members – it is important to note that Methodism has no supreme leader and no one central office.

Delegates to the General Conference have the authority to revise The Book of Discipline. This collection of documents regulates the organization of local churches, annual conferences, and general agencies; it also sets policy regarding membership, ordination, administration, property, and judicial procedures. The Book of Resolutions can also be revised. This is a volume declaring the church's stance on a variety of social justice issues. Currently there are more than 300 statements in the book.

Any Methodist can petition to make changes in The Book of Discipline, The Social Principles, and The Book of Resolutions – including changes in resolutions that have already passed. Many petitions come to the General Conference from the annual conferences, stronger because they have previously received an affirmative vote. In the AWF Annual Conference, petitions are studied by the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Petitions, and then positive or negative recommendations are made to the Annual Conference. The delegates vote and if the petitions pass, they are forwarded to the General Conference.

Methodist Doctrine on Science and Faith

Does science challenge scripture? Should believers reject science – weighing, for example, evolution versus the creation story in the Bible? Must the faithful choose between faith and science. The petitions to the AWF Annual Conference of 2013 concerned these and similar questions. Methodist doctrine has answered these questions unequivocally. (To find the answer on evolution, for example, consult the official United Methodist web site at umc.org and search for “What is The United Methodist Church’s position on evolution?”).

The first petition to the 2013 AWF Annual Conference was to change paragraph 160 in The Book of Discipline, in the Social Principles. This first paragraph is The Natural World. It contains a subcategory, Science and Technology, from which the following text is taken. (The petition sought unsuccessfully to delete the words in bold type.)

¶ 160 F) Science and Technology — We recognize science as a legitimate interpretation of God’s natural world. We affirm the validity of the claims of science in describing the natural world and in determining what is scientific. We preclude science from making authoritative claims about theological issues and theology from making authoritative claims about scientific issues. We find that science’s descriptions of cosmological, geological, and biological evolution are not in conflict with theology. We recognize medical, technical, and scientific technologies as legitimate uses of God’s natural world when such use enhances human life and enables all of God’s children to develop their God-given creative potential without violating our ethical convictions about the relationship of humanity to the natural world. We reexamine our ethical convictions as our understanding of the natural world increases. We find that as science expands human understanding of the natural world, our understanding of the mysteries of God’s creation and word are enhanced.

In acknowledging the important roles of science and technology, however, we also believe that theological understandings of human experience are crucial to a full understanding of the place of humanity in the universe. Science and theology are complementary rather than mutually incompatible. We therefore encourage dialogue between the scientific and theological communities and seek the kind of participation that will enable humanity to sustain life on earth and, by God’s grace, increase the quality of our common lives together. *From The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church - 2012. A second petition from June 2013 AWF Annual Conference sought to reverse the United Methodist official statement on creationism and intelligent design (sometimes referred to as the “young earth” belief that the world was created by God in a short time between five and ten thousand years ago.) The petition asked for the endorsement of teaching creationism and intelligent design alongside evolution in the science classrooms of public schools. The text from the Book of Resolutions follows, again taken from umc.org.

Evolution and Intelligent Design

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church has for many years supported the separation of church and State (§ 164C, Book of Discipline, 2004, p. 119); Therefore, be it resolved, that the General Conference of The United Methodist Church go on record as opposing the introduction of any faith-based theories such as Creationism or Intelligent Design into the science curriculum of our public schools.

A third petition asked the 2013 AWF Annual Conference to recommend rescinding the United Methodist official statement in The Book of Resolutions endorsing the Clergy Letter Project. Begun in 2004, the Clergy Letter posits that the science of evolution is “fully harmonious with religious faith.” Here is the entire resolution, which has much to say about science and faith, from umc.org; reference to the Clergy Letter Project is in bold type.

God’s Creation and the Church

As disciples of Christ, we are called to be good stewards of God’s creation. Accordingly, we call upon The United Methodist Church to adopt fresh ways to respond to the perils that now threaten the integrity of God’s creation and the future of God’s children.

Specifically, The United Methodist Church:

- designates one Sunday each year, preferably the Sunday closest to Earth Day, as a Festival of God’s Creation, celebrating God’s gracious work in creating the earth and all living things, incorporating it into the church’s liturgical calendar, and developing appropriate ways for congregations to celebrate it;
- endorses The Clergy Letter Project and its reconciliatory programs between religion and science, and urges United Methodist clergy participation;
- endorses the work of the National Religious Partnership for the Environment, and the World Council of Churches Climate Change Program and urges conferences and congregations to support their activities and programs;
- supports the annual observance of the United Nations’ World Environment Day and encourages conferences and churches to participate in programs such as Environmental Sabbath;
- recommends that annual conferences establish annual awards to honor prophetic defenders of God’s creation from within their own constituencies;
- affirms the importance of nurturing, community-building approaches such as the Global Action Plan’s Household Eco-Team Program designed to foster resource efficient lifestyle practices;
- encourages a simplified and environmentally sound lifestyle throughout the church and requests that Church agencies, conferences, and congregations be stewards of God's creation by reducing levels of consumption and participating in programs that reuse and recycle goods; and

- encourages United Methodist institutions to perform energy audits, improve energy efficiency, and pursue use of alternative clean energy sources such as wind and solar power where available.

Summary

Our Methodist faith informs us that the Creation is the Lord's. Our faith informs us that human beings are part of that Creation and that Jesus taught us how to relate to one another in love and peace. We are commanded by our faith to be stewards of God's Creation. Methodist doctrine, derived from open and gracious debate, recognizes that science is a tool God has given us to help us understand the Creation and how we can perform our stewardship. There is no need to choose between science and faith. Science can assist us to accomplish what our faith, our God, has commanded us to do.

Note: Methodists not only take stands on key issues in our society, but they also vote on those stands and come to a resolution. We are open about this process. The petitions discussed above are available in the 2013 Brochure of Reports for the AWFC 2013 Annual Conference. The petitions begin on page 27.

A Joint Project of the AWF Conference Board of Church and Society and Faculty from Religion and Science at Huntingdon College

Introduction

The Alabama - West Florida United Methodist 2013 Annual Conference requested that the Conference Board of Church and Society partner with members of the religion and science faculty at Huntingdon College to produce a list of resources that could be helpful to individuals and churches in exploring the relationship between faith and science. The group (see a list at the bottom) that formed to carry out this Conference request produced this list and a document on current United Methodist doctrine on religion and science (see the document in the Board of Church and Society Report in the 2014 Brochure of Reports). Both products can also be viewed, printed, and downloaded at the Huntingdon College Library website, along with a more expansive bibliography. The website is <http://libguides.huntingdon.edu/ReligionandScience>. Huntingdon College and its library have graciously made this available to all United Methodists in the Conference.

There are comments about the works in the list below. These were made by the reviewers to give readers ideas about the type and scope of these suggestions. The works are listed in the order of preference given to each by the reviewers – works listed by multiple reviewers are first.

1. Bryan, R. Lawson. Pursuing Science, Finding Faith. Montgomery, AL: First United Methodist Church, 2012. Dr. Lawson Bryan offers an accessible introduction to the topic, from the perspective of a pastor. It is recommended for the beginning student on the subject.
2. Collins, Francis S. The Language of God: A Scientist Presents Evidence For Belief. New York: Free Press, 2006.

Collins heads up the human genome project. From the perspective of science, Francis Collins offers an introduction to the manner in which scientists (or the scientifically minded) may consider and participate in the life of faith. Formerly an atheist, he now writes convincingly of the interface of faith and scientific research.

Does science necessarily undermine faith in God? Or could it actually support faith? Beyond the flashpoint debates over the teaching of evolution, or stem-cell research, most of us struggle with contradictions concerning life's ultimate question. We know that accidents happen, but we believe we are on earth for a reason. Until now, most scientists have argued that science and faith occupy distinct arenas. Francis Collins, a former atheist as a science student who converted to faith as he became a doctor, is about to change that. Collins's faith in God has been confirmed and enhanced by the revolutionary discoveries in biology that he has helped to oversee. He has absorbed the arguments for atheism of many scientists and pundits, and he can refute them. Darwinian evolution occurs, yet, as he explains, it cannot fully explain human nature -- evolution can and must be directed by God. He offers an inspiring tour of the human genome to show the miraculous nature of God's instruction book. Sure to be compared with C.S. Lewis's Mere Christianity, this is a stunning document, whether you are a believer, a seeker, or an atheist.

From the perspective of science, Francis Collins offers an introduction to the manner in which scientists (or the scientifically minded) may consider and participate in the life of faith.

3. Hamilton, Adam. Several short articles by Rev. Adam Hamilton provide accessible points of entry to the topic of faith and science. Hamilton's work is perhaps best read as an invitation to a conversation, written informally and from the perspective of a pastor. For the beginning student, further study beyond Hamilton may be necessary to tease out some of the more complex scriptural/theological issues alluded to in his work.

a. Adam Hamilton, "The Galileo Affair," in Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White: Thoughts on Religion, Morality, and Politics (Nashville: Abingdon, 2008), 73-78.

b. Adam Hamilton, "Apes, Evolution, Adam and Eve," in Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White: Thoughts on Religion, Morality, and Politics (Nashville: Abingdon, 2008), 79-88.

c. Adam Hamilton, "Creation and Evolution in the Public Schools", in Confronting the Controversies: Biblical Perspectives on Tough Issues (Rev. ed.; Nashville: Abingdon, 2005), 39-56.

d. Adam Hamilton, "Christians, Science, and Politics" in When Christians Get It Wrong (Rev. ed.; Nashville: Abingdon, 2013), 21-36.

4. Barbour, Ian. Ethics in an Age of Technology. San Francisco: HarperSanFrancisco, 1993. Barbour is working to address a range of serious issues that might not have obvious answers. Fundamentally, science, a way of interpreting the world, does not provide us with ethical guidelines. However, we have a desperate need for such guidelines. The question becomes one of how to find them.

5. Barbour, Ian G. When Science Meets Religion: Enemies, Strangers or Partners. San Francisco: Harper, 2000. An excellent book, illustrating different ways science and faith can interact with each other in a series of case studies, generally considering interactions of conflict, independence, dialog, and integration. Barbour is in many ways the "dean" of those who write on issues of science and faith. For years his book, Issues in Science and Religion could be found in numerous college classrooms. In the book cited here, Barbour proposes a paradigm of ways in which science and religious faith meet and converse. The focus of the book is largely on the conversation between science and Christian tradition.

6. Barbour, Ian. Religion and Science: Historical and Contemporary Issues. New York: HarperCollins, 1997. Taking a scholarly approach to the issue of faith and science, Ian Barbour's work is among the best on the topic. Barbour's work is broad in scope yet highly detailed. The serious student will find this book intellectually rigorous.

7. Polkinghorne, John. Belief in God in an Age of Science. New Haven: Yale University Press, 2003. Polkinghorne is a theoretical physicist who answered the call to ministry and became a priest in the Church of England. He is as a good a theologian as he is a physicist. This book has two things going for it: 1) it is accessible, 2) it is short.

8. Polkinghorne, John. The Polkinghorne Reader. West Conshohocken, Pa.: SPCK/Templeton Press, 2010. The reader serves as a nice sampler of materials from Polkinghorne.

9. McGrath, Alister E. Surprised by Meaning: Science, Faith, and How We Make Sense of Things. Louisville, KY: WJK Press, 2011. A wonderful overview of the issues surrounding science and religion in a general and historic sense without evolution/creationism quite so central to the conversation.

McGrath follows here in the footsteps of C. S. Lewis. His work offers an apology for Christian faith, especially in response to the "new atheism." Like Lewis, McGrath writes clearly and is accessible to large audiences.

10. Bonhoeffer, Dietrich. Creation and Fall. New York: Macmillan, 1959. A theologically responsible resource on the doctrine of creation.

11. Crysdale, Cynthia and Neil Ormerod. Creator God, Evolving World. Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 2013. Crysdale was the Stallworth Lecturer at Huntingdon College in 2013. Her book, written along with the Australian Neil Ormerod, presents sustained argument for incorporating the insights of Bernard Lonergan into thinking about creation and our place in the universe. The authors suggest that Lonergan's notion of "emergent probability" provides a good response to those who argue that evolution is based on random mutations that display no obvious purpose.

12. de Chardin, Pierre Teilhard. The Phenomenon of Man. San Francisco: Harper Perennial Modern Classics, 2008. A Jesuit priest, de Chardin also worked as a paleontologist who embraced evolutionary theory and sought religious inspiration from its insights. His theological insights come across as too speculative for many, but to others he offers a vision of hope in the face of impending annihilation through atomic holocaust or ecological catastrophe.

13. Dixon, Thomas. Science and Religion: A Very Short Introduction. New York: Oxford University Press, 2008. From a scholarly perspective, Thomas Dixon's work is to be recommended. Accessibly short, this Very Short Introduction by Oxford University Press gives the serious student a beginning foothold into the complexities on both sides of the topic.

14. Haught, John F. God and the New Atheism. Louisville, KY: WJK Press. 2008. Haught is a Roman Catholic theologian who seeks to respond to the champions of the “new atheism” such as Richard Dawkins, Sam Harris, Daniel Dennett, and the late Christopher Hitchens. His writing is clear, and concise. This particular book has a distinct advantage in its brevity. It can be read in an afternoon, but digesting its contents will take a longer time.

15. Peacocke, A. R. Creation and the World of Science 2nd. ed. New York: Oxford University Press, 2004. This book comprises Peacocke’s Bampton Lectures given in 1978. It is difficult reading, but it makes a sustained case that Christian theology is compatible with modern biology. Peacocke’s book won the 2001 Templeton Prize for Progress in Religion.

16. Peterson, Eugene. “Christ Plays in Creation”, in Christ Plays in Ten Thousand Places. Grand Rapids, Mich.:Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing Co., 2005.

17. Raymo, Chet. Skeptics and True Believers: The Exhilarating Connection Between Science and Religion. New York: Walker and Company, 1998. Raymo does a very creditable job of explaining some of the differences in the ways in which we see and understand the world, finding distinctions in patterns of understanding. The book is subtitled “The exhilarating connection...”, at which it falls miserably short. Raymo wraps up the book with a discussion of mysticism, and how it can serve as a connection between science and religion.

The Workgroup for the List of Resources on Science and Religion:

From Huntingdon College - Jason Borders, R. Lawson Bryan, Frank Buckner, Erastus C. Dudley, and Eric A. Kidwell.

From the Conference Board of Church and Society - Nathan Attwood, Brenda Boman, Sonny Dawsey, Harry Hodges, Susan Hunt, and Barbara Webber.

Nathan Attwood, Jason Borders, Frank Buckner, and Erastus C. Dudley submitted bibliographies; Harry Hodges compiled the list and edited it from these four lists; Eric A. Kidwell created the Huntingdon Library website.

The other members of the Conference Board who reviewed and approved the document on doctrine and the list of resources are Kristen Carlson, Charlotte Hobson, Zan Jones, Patricia Luna, Jerry Maygarden, and Cheryl Mothershed.

Conference Board of Congregational Development

The Board of Congregational Development has the dual role of supporting new church starts and providing support for revitalization of existing churches within our conference where such support would be of benefit.

A key activity to enhance the success of new church starts is the administration of a formal process to evaluate candidates recommended by District Superintendents to serve as pastors to start a new church. Pastors who may have such an interest should discuss that with their District Superintendent. In 2013, financial support for new churches included a second year grant of $30,000 awarded to Grace Community Church in Phenix City, AL, a new church grant of $20,000 approved for Grace UMC; a grant of $14,000 awarded to support a new Hispanic Service/ Congregation at Good News UMC in Santa Rosa Beach, FL and a third year grant of $10,000 made to The Journey UMC in Crestview, FL. On July 1, 2013, a new church start was initiated in Montgomery, AL in partnership with Whitfield UMC with an emphasis on an African American congregation. During 2013, eight new church pastors received some salary support from the Board.

Church revitalization support approved during 2013 included $8,200 to St. Mark UMC in Mobile, AL and continuing support for The Auburn Wesley Parish to enable students to assist several churches in the area.

District offices and individual churches are supported with demographic information. For further information, contact Sandy Gutting at (850) 430-4300. This office also provides administrative support for The Academy for Congregational Excellence.

In the past, we have enjoyed a partnership with The Natural Church Development Team. That was lead by Barbara Sadler who retired at the end of 2013. Barbara's contributions were significant, and will be missed. A determination has not yet been made on whether to continue with NCD or replace that with a different program.

This report is submitted on behalf of, and with appreciation for, the dedication and contributions by the members and staff who represent the board.

June Thomason, Chairman

Conference Board of Discipleship

The Conference Board of Discipleship was organized by the annual conference to maintain the connectional relationship between the General Board of Discipleship, the Conference, district, and local church. The purpose of the Conference Board of Discipleship is to lead and assist congregations and districts in the Conference in their efforts to communicate and celebrate the redeeming and reconciling love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ to persons of every age, ethnic background, and social condition; to invite persons to commit their lives to Christ and to his church; and to enable persons to live as Christian disciples in the world. This purpose aligns with the Mission of our denomination and with the Commission from Jesus, himself.

Our guiding scripture continues to be Matthew 28:19-20, “Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples: baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I will be with you always to the end of the age.” (TEV)

Falling under the purview of our charge are the areas of worship, evangelism, stewardship, spiritual formation and education. The following are reports from those areas:

Worship, Evangelism and Stewardship

The areas of Worship, Evangelism and Stewardship worked together to present to the conference a seminar focusing on evangelism. Seed Cast – a Seminar on Evangelism was held October 11 and 12, 2013 at Woodlawn UMC in Panama City Beach. Sixty-seven clergy and lay members of our annual conference gathered to hear our keynote speakers Jim and Jen Cowart share the secrets of the incredible growth at their church. The learning sessions presented practical, how-to information that everyone could immediately begin to implement. Additional learning sessions were presented by Bishop Leeland and Rev. Allen Newton. On a scale from 1 to 5, participants rated the seminar overall at 4.75.

Scheduled for this Fall is the next Seed Cast Seminar planned and presented by these three work areas. The seminar focus is “Growing a Culture of Generosity”. Keynote speaker will be Clayton Smith, Executive Pastor of Generosity at the Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City. Additional workshops will be offered.

Spiritual Formation

Spiritual Formation is “being shaped and formed in and conformed to the image of Christ for the sake of others,” according to Dr. Robert Mulholland. Spiritual formation offerings through the Alabama/West Florida United Methodist Church Conference provide opportunities for laity and clergy to experience transformative practices.

Academy for Spiritual Formation #34 – the two year journey concludes in May 2014. The first year was about the inward journey, how the spirit is formed and conformed within through deepening and broadening self-spiritual practices and disciplines; the second year has focused on how one might integrate this inward Christ image forming in and to the world. There is also a 5 day academy August 3-9, 2014 to be held at Camp Sumatanga.

Companions-in-Christ – This 28 week program creates experiences of intimacy with God, deepening relationships with Christ in small group communities through sharing, caring for one another, prayer, silence, and spiritual exercises. Laity and Spiritual Directors lead these classes.

Prayer Shawl Ministries – Retreats are offered at Blue Lake with worship and spiritual formation experiences with sharing of the passion of crafting and praying. There is great fellowship among those who enjoy the Prayer Shawl focus. The attendees, when returning home, increase in communities and/or start new Prayer Shawl ministries in their local congregations.

Experiential Prayer Room/Ministries - This provides a place/space for one to intentionally slow down, turn or return to God's presence and ponder, like Mary, the things of God. The prayer stations provide many different types of prayer helping a person clear the mind, and be present to The Creator in prayer – i.e., breath prayer, lectio divina, praying with icons, centering prayer, meditation on music/hymns, prayer of examen, prayer beads, mandalas, etc. The invitation is not only at Annual Conference but being carried out some in the local congregations.

Labyrinth Ministry – This spiritual formational prayer ministry unites mind, body and spirit in the prayer walk. It is sometimes used in conjunction with the experiential prayer room or held as a separate event in some churches or at retreats for different groups and different ages. The churches that have permanent labyrinths are: Gulf Shores UMC, Dothan FUMC, and Dauphin Way UMC; there is also an outdoor labyrinth at Blue Lake. The large canvas labyrinth which is housed at Cokesbury UMC in Pensacola is frequently loaned out while the smaller one, housed in the conference office is being loaned out more as others become aware of it. Whitfield UMC held a day apart retreat in the spring of 2014. Patti Bodenhamer, spiritual formation representative on the Conference Board of Discipleship, has led retreats for different denominations teaching about the labyrinth. Plans are to hold more labyrinth retreats in the conference Lenten Lessons, Lunch & Labyrinth held at the Gulf Shores UMC during the Lenten season, invites all (different denominations) to come hear a Lenten lesson by a Conference Spiritual Director, break bread together, and learn about the labyrinth with an opportunity to prayer walk it.

Spiritual Directors – 1) attended a 4 day retreat & reunion with guest trainer William Theile, in February; 2) are leading Companions-in-Christ and other spiritual formation classes in their churches and districts, 3) lead Centering Prayer for clergy in one district with hopes of other expanding to other districts, 4) will be available for spiritual companionship to the campers and counselors at Camp Blue Lake. Retreats will be available for sustaining Spiritual Directors as well as retreats for sustaining clergy and laity with Centering Prayer, Lectio Divina, and Labyrinth to name a few. Some of our Spiritual Directors have been trained to use the Enneagram as a tool when companionship directees.

District Super Sundays – Two different districts invited Spiritual Directors to lead a spiritual formation information session during their annual Super Sunday. The participants were invited to look at all the ministries as mentioned in this report and possibly include some of the spiritually forming ministries in their own churches.

Education

Elementary Winter Retreat – A group of 396 children and chaperones attended Elementary Winter Retreat on February 7 - 9, 2014 at Blue Lake Camp. The theme was “Follow Me” from Jesus’ calling of the disciples in John 12:26. Our guest speaker and entertainment was Alan Root, a gifted speaker and musicians. Our rotations included the Challenge Course, Crafts and Bible Story at Dogwood, Hayride/ Scavenger Hunt and Prayer Stations at Pinewood and Opening Night and closing Worship were held in Vickers Gym at Oakwood. Participants also contributed over $2,400 to the “Imagine No Malaria Lenten” Project.

The AWF Conference Confirmation Retreat was held February 28 - March 2, 2014 at Blue Lake. There were 150 adults and youth present to “Know, Grow and Show God’s Love.” Activities centered on committing to Christ through prayers, presence, witness, gifts and service as well as through the sacraments. Bishop Leeland joined the group on Saturday morning as he shared with them and allowed them to ask questions. They also contributed $450 to the “Imagine No Malaria” Lenten Project.

Senior Adult

The Older Adult Task Force sponsored the Inspirit Retreat for older adults on April 11 - 13, 2013 at Blue Lake Assembly with approximately 80 people in attendance. This January, they sponsored a new event “One Day” on Saturday, January 25, 2014, also at Blue Lake Assembly. Rev. Walter Albritton was the featured speaker, with approximately 75 in attendance. They will host this year’s Inspirit Retreat on May 8 - 10, at Blue Lake Assembly and appreciate the help of pastors making the retreat available to their congregations. Barbara Wilder, Chairman of the Older Adult Task Force, attended the Grace and Wisdom conference in July, 2013, at Lake Junaluska, completing the professional training track with Dr. Richard Gentzler.

This report is presented with great appreciation for the members of the Board and support staff. Thank you.

AWFC Board of Discipleship

Conference Board of Global Ministries

Division of Advance Specials

The General Advance is the official program of the United Methodist Church created to give churches the opportunity to go the extra mile in giving. We endeavor to continue to communicate the Biblical call for mission and assist all people through training and leadership development to understand how the United Methodist Church ministers to the needs of the world. The Conference Advance Special program is for projects within the bounds of the annual conference, as recommended by the Conference Board of Global Ministries, and is consistent with the goals of the General Advance. (2012 Book of Discipline ¶656)

The Conference Advance Specials are used to feed the hungry, help women and their children who are in need of shelter, minister to our college students, repair homes for the elderly and poor, minister to our Hispanic-Latino members, provide a safe place for children to study and play, and support the camps at blue Lake for adults with special mental and physical conditions, and for inner-city and at-risk children.

When working on your budget or looking for some second-mile giving opportunities, please consider the ministries listed below, which have been approved for Conference Advance Special Status (CASS) by the Conference Board of Global Ministries (CBGM).

The actual money received will depend completely on donor gifts. Extra-mile giving to any of these Conference Advance Specials should be sent to the Conference Treasurer. 100% of every Advance gift is sent directly to the mission or ministry of your choice. Through our Advance giving, we continue to make a positive and enduring impact on the world Christ has called us to serve.

The Conference Board of Global Ministries recently approved a new set of guidelines that will streamline the application process for the participating ministries.

Division of Disaster Response and Recovery Ministry

The continued goal of this ministry is to train and prepare congregations and to collaborate with local communities in response and recovery. It is also a goal to provide resources and leadership in natural disasters as called upon to our sister jurisdictions.

As of January 2014, the Alabama-West Florida Conference Disaster Recovery Ministry remains in response in two districts: Mobile and Marianna/Panama City. Four districts had leadership changes this year and because of the capacity building efforts of the last few years, have been smooth. Many of the trained volunteers attended academies and specialized trainings.

Report of Recovery Efforts for Panhandle Flooding

Since August of 2013, Washington and Walton County Florida have been in active recovery from flooding. An estimated time of six weeks of work in Walton County is still scheduled. The Long Term Recovery Committees have done outstanding ecumenical work led by Ben Tarpley and Gabe Tischler. Many thanks go to Rev. Woody Bollinger for being a vital part of this collaborative effort to repair homes in the Marianna/Panama City District. Thanks also go to Dr. Chris Perry for his help in Walton County, Florida.

Mobile District Recovery and Rebuild from Christmas Day Tornadoes 2012

Repair teams have worked in the Mobile District this year. There continues to be a need for teams to finish 35 homes in this district. Information and forms to work in this effort are on the Conference website. Because the 2012 tornado event has never been federally declared, financial resources have been limited to whatever the non-profits and faith-based communities could provide.

Goals for 2014

The continuation of training and preparedness is central to our future responses. New leadership and participation in the districts will require team-building and refreshing of plans and strategies. Updating of the conference plan is necessary at this point and will be a primary project this year as the landscape of response and recovery both locally and nationally is ever-changing.

Preparedness and response to the many natural disasters that occur is an opportunity to serve and love our neighbor. Many thanks go to the hundreds of hours offered as volunteers share the love of Christ and to the Conference leadership who support the goals of this important ministry.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

Commission on Archives and History (COAH)

A main responsibility and joy for this committee is to serve the Memorial Luncheon for the families of those clergy and clergy spouses who passed on during the year. We also participate in the planning and implementation of the Memorial Service held on Monday at the Annual Conference.

The speaker for 2013 was the Reverend Debora Bishop who provided an uplifting celebratory message honoring our deceased clergy and clergy spouses. We are grateful to her and to all who participated in the service making it truly a special remembrance of those who have served and whom we have loved.

Raleigh Wilkerson and his staff catered the Memorial Luncheon. We served 139 people although only 118 registered! It was a loaves and fishes miracle! The families enjoyed good food and good fellowship.

Our Conference archivist, Sharon Tucker, and her assistant, Mary Ann Pickard, along with student workers continue to receive and file records for our churches. They are available to assist any church with historical records. They are located at Huntingdon College in the library.

There were no applications for church heritage awards this year, so none were given. Every church has the opportunity to be recognized for this honor, so please consider nominating your church. Consider having a special Heritage Sunday, take pictures, tell your stories and submit these for the award. We can all appreciate our heritage as United Methodists.

We encourage each church to have a church historian who will keep in touch with our Archives Center. Plan to visit Huntingdon College and speak with Sharon—she will be happy to serve and guide you.

We mourn the passing of Bob Couch who served very faithfully on this committee. We appreciate all he did and he will be remembered with love.

Our history is not only our story but God's story at work in us and through each of our churches. May God be glorified as we preserve and share these stories.

Respectfully submitted,
Reverend Pamela Avery

Historical Society President’s Report

The discovery and preservation of local church historical records are goals of the Historical Society in support of the Commission on Archives and History of the Conference. Focus continued during 2013 - 2014 on reaching out to and educating local church historians and members of the Society on ways to research and preserve historical records and events in churches across the conference. This goal was facilitated through acquisition of names and addresses of local church historians taken from Quarterly Conference records, mailing these historians informative invitations to the Annual Meeting, and passing out copies of the Newsletter and Brochure at the Commission on Archives and History booth at Annual Conference in June of 2013. The Executive Board, made up of elected officers and Sharon Tucker, Archivist for the Conference Archives Center, meet once during the year with the President representing the Society at Commission Meetings. Assistance was provided to the Commission in conducting the Memorial Service and luncheon for surviving spouses and family members at Annual Conference.

Names and addresses of local church historians were used to mail brochures announcing the Annual Meeting, but this resulted in many returned brochures, indicating local church records are not always up to date. There was a positive response to attending the Annual Meeting, held this year on August 24, 2013, at the First United Methodist Church in Opelika, Alabama. The theme was to study and review the ways this church prepared for and celebrated their 175th year as a Methodist Church. Joe Harrington and Claud Brown led the program that included small group presentations of the church properties, locations, buildings, clergy, and music through those 175 years, starting with the establishment of the church in 1837. There has been three locations and one cemetery during these years. Their celebration included clearing the cemetery and attempting to identify those buried in it. In 1937 the Daughters of the American Revolution commemorated a monument in the cemetery for the American Revolution veterans buried there. A trip was made to the cemetery as part of the Annual Meeting to learn how difficult cleaning, maintaining and preserving a cemetery could be. Lunch was served by the church hostess and members accompanied by live music from members of the resurrected church orchestra. The organist provided music for the opening session and The Rev. Ed Shirley led in singing old hymns of the church. Sharon Tucker presented documents needing to be preserved and time lines for maintaining records and best preservation methods.

Planning for the next Annual Meeting began with the meeting of the Executive Board on November 8, 2013, at the Archives of History located in the Huntingdon College Library. Four invitations to hold the Annual Meeting were reviewed and the Board accepted the one from DeFuniak Springs United Methodist Church. Since the history of that great church is entwined with the historical Chautauqua Circuit of the 19th and early 20th Centuries, the meeting will be held during the Annual Chautauqua Meeting in that town the last weekend January 31, 2015. This will allow Historical Society members and others wishing to attend the opportunities to experience live demonstrations of the settlement of the West Florida area of the Alabama West Florida Conference. Craig Reynolds, Vice President, will coordinate the Historical Society meeting with the church and the Chautauqua planning committee.

Committee on Episcopacy

The mission of the Episcopacy Committee is described in The Book of Discipline and focuses the work of the committee on seven functions. Traditionally, except at the end of a quadrennium, the committee has met twice a year with the resident bishop to fulfill those functions, to be briefed and to offer feedback. As of this year at the recommendation of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy the number of annual meetings will likely increase.

In an effort to develop more consistency among Conferences in their Episcopacy evaluation process, the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy (COE) has developed an Episcopal Review and Evaluation process and survey instrument. Each conference has two representatives on the SEJ COE Committee who are also on their conference COE. For the AWF Conference those representatives are Steve Furr and Larry Bryars and they are responsible for the implementation of the new SEJ Episcopal Review and Evaluation. Eight categories of review have been defined by the SEJ COE for discussion with the resident bishop at least once during the calendar year. At this time SEJ COE has recommended quarterly meetings for those reviews.

The eight categories address: 1) Ongoing Formation, which includes care for the body, mind and spirit as well as family life; 2) Administrative Responsibilities in the Episcopal Area; 3) Leadership; 4) Preaching and Teaching; 5) Appointment-making; 6) Building healthy relationships with laity, clergy, community and specialty groups; 7) Articulates and supports the initiatives of The United Methodist Church; 8) Strengthening the Connection. It is a thorough list and underscores the magnitude of the bishop's responsibilities.

The AWF Committee on Episcopacy has been trained on the SEJ process and survey instrument by Larry Bryars and Steve Furr. Discussions have begun within the committee and with our bishop and will continue through the remainder of 2014.

CONFERENCE AGENCY REPORTS

Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly

The overarching sentiment surrounding Blue Lake for 2013 and 2014 is gratitude. Gratitude for the Board members who commit to serve and to vision the future of our ministry. We are grateful for those who have served well and will rotate off, those who will continue, and those new members who have come with fresh eyes, new ideas, and passion for the next step of progress. This year we were able to begin a new committee to oversee Timber and Land Management as we seek to best care for the bountiful forest and its resources. Timber thinning and controlled burns are taking place and will not only make our forest healthy, but will open access for camp use and provide funding for the site.

We are grateful for our Personnel Committee and search teams who have brought a new face to the ministry with our new Program Director Eric Hindmon, his wife Andrea, and son Liam. We are delighted that they will become a part of this Conference and our camp family, and we look forward to the ways Eric will use his gifts and talents this summer and beyond. Gratitude extends to our Finance Committee who has helped the site staff monitor income and expenses, allowing us to end 2013 in a positive position. Many thanks to our Development team who has spearheaded the 'Raise the Roof' project to fund the replacement of the roof over the Oakwood kitchen, dining, and meeting spaces. We are most excited that giving to Blue Lake is on the rise overall. All of the committees are working hard to stay abreast of best practices and meeting the needs of our community and conference with our facility and programs.

Special gratitude to the United Methodist Men and Women, to the Blue Lake Emmaus community and the NOMADS for their gifts of resources, time and labor as we continue to upgrade areas of the camp. These updates help us to provide the most inviting, comfortable and safe space possible.

We are grateful for the many organizations, families, churches and individuals who come to Blue Lake for worship, recreation, fellowship and respite. And for the parents who trust us to help in the spiritual formation of their children.

We are also, so very grateful for the Bishop, Cabinet, Clergy and members of the Alabama West Florida Conference, who continue to love us, pray for our ministry, support us, and share our space with joy and passion.

In 2013 seven thousand nine hundred and forty nine individuals participated in programs at Blue Lake. Our summer programs continue to attract and excite children and youth. The new Mission Camp in 2013 was a success and will continue in 2014. We are partnering with our neighbors in the Presbyterian Churches in our area to do a combined children's camp in 2014, and a Blue Lake Family Camp is in the planning stages for 2015. The Elementary Winter Retreat had almost four hundred attendees, and other events such as the retreat for Blind and Sight Impaired Adults and the Prayer Shawl Retreat continue to grow and provide wonderful ministry and fellowship. This summer the Coaches Family Camp will feature Dr. John Ed Matheson as the guest speaker, and we are excited for them to hear his message! Change is good, and we will continue to grow and change while keeping true to the original mission of the camp: To be a center of Christian hospitality and learning designed to help people affirm and expand their faith in God and serve as Christian Disciples.

Methodist Homes Corporation PLANTED, GROUNDED AND THRIVING IN CHRIST

In 1956, leaders of the United Methodist Church found the soil rich for planting what is now known as Methodist Homes of Alabama and Northwest Florida, a ministry providing housing and health services for older adults in the North Alabama and Alabama-West Florida conferences. Their first seed flowered into Fair Haven, which opened its doors in Birmingham in 1961. Since that time, Methodist Homes has pioneered elder communities in Decatur, Anniston, Selma, Montgomery, Dothan, Pensacola and Panama City. With deep Wesleyan values, Fair Haven and all of these eventual Methodist Homes would be firmly grounded in Christ, where for the past 53 years they have remained. And despite today's strained economic conditions and uncertain health care climate, Methodist Homes continues to thrive.

Isaiah 46:4 tells us that “[e]ven to your old age, I am He, and even to gray hairs I will carry you! I have made, and I will bear; Even I will carry, and deliver you”. Indeed, since its inception, Methodist Homes has embodied this scripture through a foundational commitment to provide our older adults with care and housing in compassionate and loving communities:

1. Affordable Housing. Methodist Homes first began providing affordable housing services in 1981. Since that time, these communities have grown to include Wesley Acres, Wesley Acres II and Wesley Glen in Decatur, Wesley Apartments and Wesley Park in Anniston, The Epworth House in Selma, and Wesley Scott Place in Pensacola. Each of these environments enables low-income elderly to live in an affordable residential setting surrounded by the love of Christ.
2. Health and Housing Services. Independent retirement living, assisted living, specialty care assisted living, rehabilitation, skilled nursing and dementia care are provided through Fair Haven Retirement Community in Birmingham, Wesley Gardens Retirement Community in Montgomery, Wesley Manor Retirement Community in Dothan, Mathison Retirement Center in Panama City, and Wesley Haven Villa and The Haven in Pensacola. Each community features differing levels of care, but all are uniform in their loving spirit.

The mission of these Methodist Homes communities continually grounds us in core values that mirror those words from Chapter 46 of Isaiah. God teaches us through this scripture that even in our later stages of life, we shall not be forsaken, but He shall watch over us. And we believe that for the more than 1,200 residents of the Methodist Homes, one way in which He watches over us is through the caring hearts and hands of a team over 800 housing and health care professionals who provide care and services in so many ways each and every day.

And in addition to the provision of housing and health services, God has continued to bless residents of the Methodist Homes who are in financial need through the Fountain of Love Fund. In the fiscal year of 2013, the Fountain of Love Fund provided an astonishing $437,438 in financial assistance to 37 different residents of the Methodist Homes! What a testament this is to the mission of Christ as embodied through these communities in Alabama and northwest Florida. We are thankful that more than 17% of these needed funds were contributed directly from congregations within the North Alabama and Alabama-West Florida conferences. And as the number of persons living past their resources continues to increase annually, continued support of the Fountain of Love is critical to this mission. For only through His grace are we able to state that no one has ever been asked to leave a Methodist Home due to an inability to pay. Ever. We as Christians rejoice at that!

We are grateful for the climates of the North Alabama and Alabama-West Florida conferences that allow Methodist Homes to continue its mission and ministry, planted and grounded in Christ, and ever reaching forward. Thank you for your continued support.

The Ark

New and exciting things are happening at The Ark in Panama City Beach! A long-standing institution, The Ark was originally founded with the goal of evangelism and outreach to those on Panama City Beach. There have been many seasons to this ministry through the years and we believe the best days are ahead.

In March 2014, Misty Hicks assumed the position of Executive Director. Misty has a long history in United Methodist ministry having served on staff in several churches of the Alabama-West Florida Conference over the past 30 years. She brings fresh vision and excitement about the potential of The Ark.

Since her induction, many things have happened. There are an estimated 300 foreign students that will stay in the facility over the course of this year as they come to work in the hospitality industry of Panama City Beach. Many of these students are from non-Christian backgrounds so the mission field has come to us!

A transitional housing program has been implemented with a new screening process. Residents abide by house rules, attend worship at Woodlawn UMC, and participate in Celebrate Recovery. These tools, as well as, Life Skills classes are helping move residents forward to a better life once they leave The Ark. The newest addition to programs at The Ark is the opening of a coffee shop estimated for June 1, 2014. Katie Winton has been hired to open the shop in order to fund the ministries of The Ark.

Many improvements have been made and are currently underway throughout the facility including ceiling, roof, and plumbing repairs, as well as, painting and landscaping.

Woodlawn UMC is sponsoring a month-long revitalization of The Ark called Life-Server during April. Many repairs and cosmetic improvements will be made during this time.

As we lay claim to the original vision of evangelism and discipleship, we are eager to be obedient to the call set before us and appreciate your prayers.

Respectfully submitted,
Cameron Winton

United Methodist Children's Home (UMCH)

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The United Methodist Children's Home will enter its 124th year of operation in 2014. I believe we will look back on the year 2013 and note that it was a major turning point in the direction of UMCH. In this brief report I will highlight the vital statistics of our work in 2013, as well as summarize the programmatic highlights and changes.

- In 2013, UMCH served 110 youth through eight Group Homes in Alabama and Northwest Florida. UMCH also served 34 children through its therapeutic foster care program in Alabama. In addition, our Alabama foster care program also took in 20 sibling groups and kept them together. Furthermore, UMCH served 75 children through its Florida Foster Care program.
- With regard to non-residential services, UMCH served 176 families through its Family Preservation Program in Dothan and Andalusia, which represented 674 individuals. This program has a 90 plus % success rate in preventing family dissolution due to child neglect. UMCH also served 48 families through its adoption services program.
- Of the 110 youth served through our Group Homes, twelve of these were young men and women in our new higher education scholarship program. This past fall, UMCH enrolled seven young men at the University of Alabama and five young women at the University of North Alabama. Our young men are housed at our Tuscaloosa group home and our young women are residents of our Florence group home. One hundred percent of the cost of their higher education is being paid for by the generosity of our United Methodist Churches and their members.
- In June of 2013, UMCH sent its first ever foreign mission team of 15 children and staff to the Bahamas Methodist Habitat. Led by Revs. Lawton and Lonna Lynn Higgs, our children and staff grew closer to Christ through service and ministry to the people in Eleuthera.

- In July 2013, UMCH's board voted to transform the Birmingham group home on Overton Road to a facility that will minister to children awaiting life-saving major organ transplants and their families. In collaboration with Children's Harbor, the goal of this program will be to keep families together through this difficult time, minimize the devastating financial circumstances of the child's illness for the family, and use the medical crisis as an opportunity to elevate family functioning for the future. A major renovation of the Overton Road home will take place in 2014, with the new program slated to begin in January of 2015.
- UMCH saw a double digit increase in private and congregational support for the first time since 2008. Many United Methodist churches and institutions were hit very hard by the financial crisis that occurred in late 2008, and UMCH was no exception. However, it appears that UMCH is coming out of the shadow of this difficult period, with private and congregational contributions for 2013 up 25% over 2012.
- These programmatic changes and the increase in private and congregational support have led to a reduction in dependence upon government funding. Heading into budget year 2014, UMCH is projecting a reduction of $800,000 in dependence upon government funding for the care of our children and families as compared to operating totals for 2012. This has been achieved without permanently closing any of our group homes, caring for the same number of children as before, and with less strain on UMCH's endowment fund.

At the heart of this change and all our work is a simple, core principle: UMCH has returned to its rightful and historical place as a ministry as opposed to an agency that merely runs good programs for children and families. UMCH has learned firsthand the difficulties associated with solely developing programs in response to a stated governmental need of the moment. A ministry, while not indifferent to these stated needs, instead orders itself around broader principles from scripture outlining needs people have always had and will always have. In addition, a focus on stewardship is an essential difference between the two. A mere programmatic approach tends to create labor that is non-essential to mission, often requiring the organization to "spend a dollar to chase a dime." Ministry is when a young boy offers his five loaves and two fish to Christ, and through His blessing and touch, it somehow feeds the multitude.

The United Methodist Children's Home is a ministry of the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences of the United Methodist Church to the hurting and forgotten children of Alabama and Northwest Florida. With God's help and the support of our United Methodist churches, we are developing new and creative ways to fulfill the greatest and most ageless mission an organization could hope to have: "To follow the example of Christ by embracing all God's children.....one child, one family at a time."

God bless you, churches and believers of this great annual conference, for seeing the great needs of our children and responding so faithfully!

Grace and Peace,

K. Blake Horne, Ph.D.

United Methodist Connectional Federal Credit Union

During 2013, we continued to enjoy growth in membership and were able to increase the amount placed in undivided earnings which is our net worth. This is important because net worth provides your credit union with a safety net should any unforeseen event occur.

Our other achievements include:

- We welcomed Reverend Jack Hankins of the Alabama-West Florida Conference to our Board of Directors. Now, all four annual conferences we serve have representation on our Board.
- Four $1000.00 college scholarships were awarded to members ages 17 - 24 of the Florida, North Georgia, South Georgia and Alabama-West Florida Conferences.
- We continue to stay involved in community affairs throughout the areas we serve participating in golf tournaments, gifts to children's homes and more.
- We have seen an increase in the number of members participating in all of your Credit Union's planned activities.

During 2014, we plan to introduce more mobile banking features for our members to ensure that doing business with us is as convenient as possible. Also, look for our new theme for 2014, "Love Your Credit Union", as a part of all of our communication efforts with you. And, make sure you let other eligible family members and friends know the value of credit union membership too.

Of course, we once again have to thank our staff for all of the great work they continue to do. I also want to thank my fellow board members, and the other volunteers that helped make 2013 another great year for your Credit union. Most importantly, however, I want to thank you, our members, for continuing to do business with your credit union. Throughout the years, your Board of Directors has adopted strategies for short and long-term goals that insured our future development and growth. We will continue to do what is necessary to maintain this strong financial picture.

We're Safe. We're Secure. We Are Your Credit Union!

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

The Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Foundation is your connection for financial, endowment and investment services for the Conference. We have been providing financial services to guide and strengthen the local churches and agencies in order to fund many different but vital ministries across the Conference. During times of financial uncertainty, our churches are finding great support and many resources available through the Foundation that provides relief and a plan for future financial health. Information on our services can be found on our updated website at www.alwfumf.org.

In 2013 and early 2014, with 10 new Foundation partnerships, our new funds and additional contributions to existing funds totaled over $1.6 million. From scholarships to housing funds, to building and “general use” funds, the Foundation will not only provide investment management of these funds, but we will also provide the accounting and administrative services for easy reporting back to your local committees. The Foundation’s extensive accounting and investment management experience are just a few reasons for our continued growth in partnerships. As of the end of 2013, the Foundation manages assets totaling well over $74 million with an extensive cash flow of income going back into the churches for ministry.

The Foundation’s “Endowment Fund Program” for local churches has been utilized by a great number of churches wanting to provide a framework for planned gifts to the Church. The Foundation provides the documentation and guidelines for a successful Endowment Program that supports future ministry. Please call the Foundation office at (334) 793-6820 for a free brochure.

Investment performance of the Foundation’s diversified funds has proven to be a successful strategy of steady, quality investments over time. With the help of our Investment Committee and our contracted investment consultant, returns are solid and funds are socially screened per The Book of Discipline. Our goal is to provide solid long-term returns on investments in order to avoid the risk associated with historically low interest rates and inflation. We are grateful to all of our church partners for the good stewardship they have shown in managing long-term funds. We also are thankful for the opportunity to assist those donors who established funds to benefit your church or favorite U.M. ministry. Many donors are utilizing the Foundation’s ability to offer Charitable Gift Annuities as a way of making a gift at death, but retaining a cash stream from the asset until death. The Foundation director is available to make a presentation to your church group on any of these topics.

On behalf of the staff and Board of Directors, we say thank you for the opportunity to serve you with our unique ministry of financial services.

Lany Simmons, President
Terri H. Turner, Executive Director

United Methodist Development Fund

The United Methodist Development Fund for our Conference provides sources of financing for church and church organizations' building projects, renovation projects and property purchases. In 2013 the Development Fund partnered with 5 organizations to provide first mortgage loans for various projects. These loans totaled $2,668,000 and bought a new building, refinanced a loan, built a fitness center and replaced air conditioning. Loans are made possible by deposits made from local churches, agencies and church members looking for both competitive rates on liquid funds and the opportunity to participate in church building and growth.

Any church or individual can invest in the United Methodist Development Fund accounts. Applications are available through the United Methodist Foundation of-fice or on our web page, www.alwfumf.org. Interest earned on the deposits may be mailed to you as frequently as quarterly or reinvested into the same.

Loans through the Development Fund are only offered on a first mortgage basis or by assigning assets already held through the United Methodist Foundation. The Development Fund does not charge points or closing costs for establishing a loan; however there are certain filing requirements. The Development Fund staff works diligently to respond promptly to the needs of the church and works as a consultant to determine the financial impact on the church of the debt amount. For information on rates and availability of funds please call Terri Turner at (334)793-6820.

We appreciate the hard work of our Board of Directors and their commitment to providing the services vital to church growth in our Conference.

CONFERENCE MISSIONS and MINSTRIES

Alabama Rural Ministry (ARM)

Goals for 2013

- a. Renovation of Tuskegee First United Methodist into a community center:
 - i. We will be prepared to host teams in the church this spring but still have significant work left. The friable asbestos material has been abated and classrooms framed through the Auburn Building Science framing class. A student is submitting grants specifically for kitchen renovation and local churches are helping with fundraising efforts;
 - ii. Auburn UMC is framing the bath house;
 - iii. St. James UMC has sponsored a classroom that has been framed and is awaiting sheetrock.

- b. Cycle of Service is a three day bicycling trek across the Black Belt of Alabama to raise funds and awareness about poverty and substandard housing in Alabama.

The team of 6 individually rode over 250 miles and raised $15,000. The ride for 2014 is May 2-4th and includes three century rides (rides of 100 miles or more) with the Saturday ride from Tuskegee to Selma being titled “The Freedom Riders Century”. This will be our 5th annual ride. Thanks to several UM churches for helping : Livingston UMC, Memorial UMC (Selma), Aldersgate UMC (Montgomery), Tuskegee First United Methodist, Auburn UMC, and Epworth UMC (Phenix City).

c. Poverty Awareness Week-No More Shacks Campaign was in October of 2013 and had four poverty based seminars, two from ARM and two from other Alabama agencies: IAMBK and the Auburn Civic Engagement Club. The addition of two other shacks allowed more community support in our efforts to raise awareness about poverty housing and how working together can eliminate poverty housing. This initiative raised approximately $40,000, a $9,000 increase from 2012. This year the campaign also received significant media coverage from television stations and news reporters. We appreciate the help of the Auburn Wesley Foundation, Auburn UMC, and Cornerstone Church in helping us set up and plan this endeavor!

d. ARM was awarded a $10,000 grant from Points of Light and the Newman’s Own Foundation for its work with Make A Difference Day in October of each year. We were one of ten organizations recognized nationally and our story was carried in USA Weekend last April. ARM partnered with the Tuskegee Wesley Foundation and both were recognized in Washington DC. This year’s MD DAY hosted over 70 local volunteers, served five families and two local agencies.

e. ARM was part of a six month learning process with the Rural Supportive Housing Institute in Birmingham, AL. This group process with five other agencies working with families in rural communities was an intentional process of developing potential project solutions for families at risk for homelessness. ARM focused on neighborhood revitalization and an emphasis in housing for veterans in the Tuskegee community. We received a $3,500 grant from Home Depot Foundation to renovate a house for a local veteran and have been donated a house to renovate for another veteran this year.

f. We renovated 28 homes in 2013 with nearly 700 volunteers for the year. Our two children’s day camps provided biblical and educational enrichment activities for 54 children. We continue to partner with ministries in the fall providing tutoring for children in Tuskegee.

Main Goals for 2014/2015: (based upon strategic plan)

- a. Tuskegee First United Methodist Church is renovated enough to host summer work teams;
- b. Tuskegee community listening sessions for other ministries which will operate out of the church;
- c. Successful leadership/mission weekend in February 2015;
- d. Start of a student organization at Auburn University (increase volunteer support and build relationships for future staff);

- e. Build better and more transformative relationships with our home repair families and children's families. (difficult to quantify but goes to the heart of being in ministry with these families and helping them foster change in their own lives); and
- f. Develop a business plan for a roving camp and ARM expansion plan into other rural communities.

Dumas Wesley Community Center

Introduction

The Dumas Wesley Community Center (DWCC) is a neighborhood based non-profit organization located in the Crichton community of Mobile, Alabama. DWCC was founded in 1903, by the Woman's Society of Christian Service (present day United Methodist Women). The agency's original mission was to serve poor women and children who worked in the cotton mills of the Crichton community. Over the years DWCC evolved to meet the changing needs of the community, becoming a multi-service center offering after school programs, senior services, neighborhood outreach, transportation services and transitional housing for homeless women and their children.

The majority of households served by the Center are headed by single mothers with an average household income of less than $12,000 per year. Of those served directly by DWCC, 69% are low-income and approximately 95% are minority.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Dumas Wesley Community Center (DWCC) of Mobile, Alabama is to EDUCATE, EMPOWER and ENRICH our local community through collaborative programs that: provide for immediate human needs, strengthen family life, develop leadership and encourage personal responsibility.

Neighborhood Outreach

The intent of our Neighborhood Outreach and Advocacy program is to implement and foster trust and belief in the residents of Crichton, thus serving as a catalyst for the advocacy and betterment of the community. Our major goals are:

- Rehabilitation of family life through education and services that enhance awareness of the needs of self, other family members and neighbors.
- Improve the lives of disadvantaged and underserved area youth, families and senior citizens by ensuring adequate nutrition, healthcare, preventative education, and referrals to area social service agencies and resources.
- A renewal of community interest in the neighborhood as a place of pride, resulting in increased personal self-esteem and security in the home environment.

Youth Programs

The After School Achievement Program (ASAP) provides a safe environment for community youth to participate in age-appropriate activities. Specific programs include:

- Sports - Teens participate in church and city basketball leagues each year.
- “Safe Haven” Daily Recreation - This program gives our community youth a safe place to go after school. We offer two game rooms, outside play and basketball.
- Summer Recreation and Camp – Our summer recreation program offers sports, arts and crafts, a variety of field trips, and a week-long camping experience at Camp Blue Lake.
- Tutoring – Provides weekly tutoring assistance for program participants of all ages.
- Computer lab- Provides weekly supervised access to our computer lab for homework studies, college prep work and games.
- Music Lessons - Provides weekly piano and choir classes for youth.
- Youth Empowered Wednesdays – Led by the Junior League of Mobile, this program offers weekly workshops, speakers, arts and crafts and sports activities led by local volunteers.

Sybil H. Smith Family Village Transitional Housing Program

The Sybil H. Smith Family Village transitional housing program began serving homeless women and their children in July, 1999. To date, the Center has served over 423 women and children from seven Alabama counties, the Mississippi coast area and the Florida panhandle. This unique program provides homeless families with the tools to establish and maintain self-sufficiency. It combines transitional housing of up to 24 months with on-site support services as well as referrals to other community agencies and institutions. 80 percent of our clients successfully complete the program, become gainfully employed, and remain in permanent housing. This percentage is well above the national average for similar transitional housing programs.

Each woman participating in DWCC's Transitional Housing Program:

- will be provided the opportunity to learn the life skills necessary to become independent and obtain permanent housing for herself and her minor children within two years;
- will complete an on-site Life Skills/Employment Readiness Curriculum;
- will be assessed and referred as quickly as possible to all mainstream community resources in accordance with the mandate of Congress that all homeless individuals have access to such resources as expeditiously as possible;
- will be required to be working and/or attending school and/or in a job training program at least 25 hours per week, within three months of entry into the transitional program;
- will be provided with on-site group counseling and substance abuse aftercare group counseling
- will be required to save at least 30% of her income while in transitional living in order to have necessary financial resources to transition into and remain in permanent housing;
- will set specific personal goals regarding her employment, education, health, finances, personal development, and the needs of her children, and will meet those goals in a timely manner. A case manager will monitor the setting and attainment of those goals on a weekly basis;
- will learn to become an advocate for herself and her children; and,
- will become an active community participant by becoming a registered voter, joining and participating in local community and neighborhood advocacy groups, and volunteering in her church, community and local service agencies.

Senior Activities for Independent Living (SAIL) Program

The Dumas Wesley Senior Activities for Independent Living (SAIL) Program provides seniors age 60 and over with a hot congregate meal, daily activities and dependable transportation to medical appointments. Available to senior residents living in Crichton and Toulminville.

Transportation: The purpose of the program is to provide seniors with transportation to doctors, hospitals and other health facilities. There is no set fee, but donations are accepted. Eighty-one percent of those served live alone and are dependent upon Dumas Wesley for this much needed service. Transportation is also provided to Dumas Wesley's SAIL program daily.

SAIL provides daily activities Monday through Friday for an average of 55 seniors. A hot, nutritious meal is served to 20 seniors at the center, and in addition, meals are transported to 35 homebound seniors. Participants enjoy a variety of activities, including games, sing-alongs, nutrition education, speakers, health checks and field trips. Trips to the grocery store are provided one day per week. Information referrals are made on health and wellness issues, Medicare, Social Security, Fair Housing and other social services.

Other Programs

The Joseph Project: A Community Food Pantry

The Joseph Project, named for the Joseph story in Genesis 41, is a partnership between the Ashland Place United Methodist Church and the Dumas Wesley Community Center. Serving an average of 100 individuals each week, the food pantry is open for all in need and completely volunteer-supported and operated.

The University of Mobile ENACTUS Clothing Closet

Dumas Wesley Community Center and The University of Mobile ENACTUS club have partnered together to open a clothing closet for those in need. The ENACTUS club is part of a larger worldwide effort to build a network of business professionals and industry leaders to create positive change in communities through business principles.

Monitoring of Home Day Care Feeding Program

Dumas Wesley staffs the monitoring of the feeding program in 64 home daycares in Mobile and Washington Counties. This program plays a vital role in improving the quality of day care and making it more affordable for local low-income families. Homes must be licensed and approved in order to qualify for meal reimbursements. Dumas Wesley monitors each provider through quarterly on-site visits, in-home trainings and annual workshops.

Wellness Center

In collaboration with the University of South Alabama's College of Nursing, a Wellness Center is now located at Dumas Wesley. Classes, health assessments and referrals to medical services are offered free of charge every Thursday to the families and individuals served by Dumas Wesley.

Assistance to Refugee and Immigrant Populations

Attorney Perry Noble has brought pro bono legal services to Dumas Wesley, serving immigrant and refugee families and individuals. Assistance is provided by appointment only.

How can you participate in the ministry of Dumas Wesley Community Center?

As we all face the financial uncertainty of our times, Dumas Wesley will continue to evaluate and improve our programs and services to assist those who are struggling with loss of employment, homelessness and the personal and familial stress inherent in these situations. Along with all ministries of the Conference, Dumas Wesley is experiencing drastic reductions in funding, while the needs of the people are increasing. We ask for your continued prayers, monetary support and sharing of your talents and skills through volunteerism. Thank you and God bless!

Yours in Service,
Kate Carver
Executive Director
Dumas Wesley Community Center

Golden Cross

Golden Cross is a special fund of the United Methodist Church. It exists in order to:

- Respond to the most pressing health care needs.
- Allow the local church to give with compassion.
- Adhere to the guidelines set forth by the conference.

The Golden Cross represents Christ's healing presence in a hurting world. As United Methodists, we are active in and support the ministries of Christian care by reaching out to those in need. The Golden Cross offering is retained within the conference where it is received. The conference designates the use of the offering. The contributions you give to the Alabama-West Florida Conference provide the opportunity to make available financial aid for medical delinquent expense charges from a hospital, physician or pharmacy. Golden Cross receives no funds from apportioned items; the only source of income is from the people of the local church within our Conference. Please send your offering to the AWF Conference Treasurer.

The First Sunday in May is Golden Cross Sunday. Local churches are encouraged to give on this day – or any day of their choosing – so that the most urgent requests can be fulfilled.

Guidelines used to assist those in need:

- Assistance shall be available for United Methodists of the conference. Payment toward financial assistance shall be made directly to the hospital, physicians, or pharmacy.
- The Director of Golden Cross will provide each applicant with a form that must be filled out in advance of receiving assistance. It is also available on the website of the AWF Conference.
- A copy of the balance with past due, unpaid balances must be provided with the completed application form.
- This information is to be returned to the Director of Golden Cross.
- Assistance will be granted to a person only upon the recommendation of a pastor or District Superintendent who is in a position to know of the need or circumstances. Assistance will be granted for a pastor only on the recommendation of the District Superintendent. Upon receiving a request from a pastor or District Superintendent, an application form will be sent to the person needing assistance. The form is to be filled out by the person or pastor requesting help.

A copy of the past due bills and the completed application form is to be sent to the Golden Cross Director, Julie Terrell, 4570 Sailboat Lane, Pensacola, FL 32514. The amount of assistance granted to any person shall be limited to a total of $1,200.00 for any combination of hospital, physician, or pharmacy bills. There have been no requests made to the Golden Cross fund for the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

Mission u (formerly Cooperative School of Christian Mission)

The 2013 Mission u Event was held August 1 - 4 at Spring Hill College, Mobile, AL. Our theme was "Learning Together for the Transformation of the World." This annual event is cooperatively sponsored by the Conference Board of Church and Society, Conference Board of Global Ministries and the Alabama-West Florida Conference United Methodist Women.

Everyone interested in learning about local and world issues and how we can be involved through mission projects was encouraged to attend. F. Lynn Hamric, representing Conference Board of Global Ministries, served as Dean and Harry Hodges, representing Conference Church and Society, served as Assistant Dean.

In order to learn how these studies impact us locally a distinguished panel of individuals who daily work with a broad spectrum of people spoke extensively on these areas as well as having an invaluable Q&A time. Lending their expertise were Joe Mullins of Pensacola UM Ministries and Martha Rovira, Alabama-West Florida Conference Coordinator of Hispanic/Latino Ministries. Nathan Dickson, an attorney of Union Springs who is involved with immigration issues. David Goolsby, Director of the AU Wesley Foundation. David and a group of AU student had just returned from a trip where they had hands on experience with the problems the Roma face. We were honored to have Michelle Ozier, a mission intern, participate in our informal presentation and Q & A time. Music leaders for this event were the dynamic duo of Paulette Clark and Cris Smith.

Mission u 2014 was held at Dothan First UMC, July 11 - 12, 2014. The studies offered will be: How is it with Your Soul; The Roma of Europe and The Church and People with Disabilities. Our excellent team of study leaders is: Rev. Wesley Wachob, Ruth Ann Powers and Debbie Bracewell. These studies will challenge participants to become more aware of issues that impact not only the local church but our world as a whole. They will challenge each of us to become more involved in the mission work of our church.

Moving Mission u around our conference hopefully introduces this important part of our church learning experience to a broader audience as well as makes accessibility easier for a different segment each year. The flexible schedule this year will allow you to take one or two courses which should better fit our busy lifestyles.

United Methodist Inner City Mission

This past year has been a fruitful one for the United Methodist Inner City Mission and our ministries as we strive to meet the needs of those we serve by living the teachings of Jesus in Matthew 25: 31-42 and sharing God's love. The Mission continues to assist in staffing and operating McKemie Place which is the only emergency overnight shelter for homeless women in a three county area. In 2013, 455 individual women ranging in ages from eighteen to seventy-eight years old were provided shelter with beds filled over 17,200 times. We continue to partner with Goodwill Easter Seals to provide a GED program for the people in our Oakdale-Maysville Community and for the women in the shelter.

Fifteen Place, a center for the homeless, is open weekdays. Therefore, on weekends, many of the women with serious health issues exacerbated by weather, do not have a day center. We now have Safe Haven Ministry where churches open their doors on weekends to host the women from the shelter. Over half of the weekend days are now filled and other churches continue to sign up to participate.

Volunteers play a vital role in our ministry. At Taylor Park Community Center, volunteers are tutoring our children in our After School Tutorial Program, teaching percussion and forming a "Praise Percussion Ensemble", teaching Praise Dance Teams, teaching arts and crafts, and participating with our children and youth on Sunday Afternoons in the Park. One group of young adults refurbished our computer room at the park and provided new computers for the tutorial program. They are also painting and making repairs to the homes of senior citizens, maintaining the grounds of the Mission, and coming on Sunday afternoons to play with the children in the Park and lead them in bible studies. The Mission's Summer Tutorial and Enrichment Programs at Taylor Park continue to provide a safe haven for our children and youth while instilling in them the importance of getting a good education. In the summer of 2013, one hundred and sixty five children participated in our summer programs. This Mission hosted four Quad W college interns who worked with the children and youth in our programs. The college interns were able to experience hands on mission service while at the same time deepening their own faith and growing spiritually. Urban Campers from Government Street Presbyterian Church also assisted with our summer programs.

Drugs remain a problem in our community and throughout Mobile. Each summer, we partner with the Drug Education Council and the Junior Achievement Program to present their curriculum to the children and youth at the park. The Mission and Pro Kids, Inc. work together to provide counseling with a licensed clinical child psychologist to help children with behavioral problems that cause them to have difficulties at school and in the community. This continues to make a tremendous difference in the lives of the children receiving these services.

The Mission now has a community garden at Taylor Park with the help from members from local churches. The children are participating in the planting of the garden. The Bible story of the sower and seeds and other stories from the Bible are shared with the children. The Mission is continuing its full scope of programs to minister to the spiritual, emotional and physical needs of the community. The Mission continues to provide emergency assistance to families in need of food and medicine, or who needed assistance with utilities and rent due to unforeseen emergencies. Our Community Enrichment staff continues to work with senior citizens and youth to improve their quality of life. Many senior citizens in our community live alone and do not have any means of transportation. Transportation and daily activities are provided for the “Taylor Park Seniors” including daily devotionals, recreation, field trips, ceramic classes and monthly luncheons. The staff also works with the Oakdale Community Service Club which is a large group of community residents who address a wide variety of issues in the community from environmental issues to safety issues by working with the Enhanced Neighborhood Policing. The staff ministers to those whose lives are torn apart by drugs and violence by providing assistance in entering rehabilitation programs. Monday through Thursday the Mission serves breakfast for the homeless of our community and other residents who are food challenged.

Our number one purpose for all of our ministries is to love and love unconditionally those we serve as Jesus loves us. We continue to show this love through our deeds, actions, and words so others can see Christ in us. We see first hand how God transforms lives when his unconditional love is shared through us with those we serve.

Please know how much we appreciate and depend on the support of our brothers and sisters throughout the Alabama – West Florida Conference to carry on God’s ministries to the least of these.

Continue to keep us in your prayers.

Rev. Tonny H. Algood, Director
United Methodist Inner City Mission – McKemie Place

OTHER REPORTS

Africa University

Africa University is deeply grateful to the local congregations of the Alabama-West Florida Conference for their contributions to a wonderful investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2013! Overall giving to the AUF reached 91.7% last year, the highest level of any of the general church funds; and a total of 25 annual conferences invested in the AUF at 100% or higher. Thank you, Alabama-West Florida, for your generous support for teaching, learning and the nurture of global leaders at Africa University. The university’s ministry, which emphasizes impactful witness and service, cannot exist without your generosity and prayers. As another decade of life-changing ministry unfolds, we urge you to grow your investment in the AUF to 100% of the asking or higher. This will allow for the university to meet its day-to-day and operational expenses without uncertainty and channel more support to orphans, refugees and other students with extremely limited financial means.

Enrollment: Sustained by the steadfast investment of Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, Africa University’s enrollment grew to 1480 full-time students from 25 African countries in 2013. Female students now account for 53% of that total enrollment.

Scholarships: Second mile giving by individuals and churches enabled Africa University to distribute more than $1.8 million in scholarships and financial aid to its students. In recognition of the particular challenges African women face in accessing higher education, Africa University launched the Girl Child Scholarship Fund. Through new initiatives that include a $50 million Campaign for Endowment and outreach to increase financial contributions from its alumni and others in Africa, the institution is working towards greater sustainability.

Leadership and Service: 450 students were awarded degree certificates in June 2013, growing the number of Africa University graduates currently at work in communities to around 5,000. Every day, these graduates manifest the promise and power of the Gospel to bring light and hope to a troubled world. In August, three 2013 graduates were commissioned as young adult missionaries by the General Board of Global Ministries, pushing the total number of Africa University alumni serving internationally as mission interns to seven in just two years. “I have taken with me a life of service and courage... A life that I saw from all the staff on campus when they went beyond the ordinary to ensure that I had something to eat, a place to sleep, to be safe and to be successful, not just academically but professionally,” said Albert Longe, a mission intern assigned to a community development agency in the Philippines. “That AU experience has become my reference point.”

We thank you for helping to shape Africa University as a place of opportunity, spiritual and professional growth, and transformation. In 2013, local church giving to the AUF in the Alabama-West Florida Conference declined by about 2%. The decline left a shortfall of $9,675 in your total asking—an amount that could provide tuition for almost four students a year.

Your support matters greatly, so please:

- Encourage your local church to set a goal of investing at 100% in the Africa University Fund in 2014.
- Talk to your congregation about a second-mile gift to support one student each year.
- Consider leading an effort to have your church or district invest in an endowed scholarship which can support one student a year in perpetuity.
- Take advantage of our new Dream Insurance program (<http://www.insuring-africauniversity.com/>) and donate all or a portion of the proceeds of an affordable Term Life Insurance plan to Africa University.
- Remember to include Africa University in your will when you make your estate plans.
- Pray for the ongoing success of this important effort to equip disciples who will shape the future of their nations and of our global church.

Together, we are changing Africa: Learning here. Living here. Leading here. Serving God. All the time. Everywhere.

Thank you and God bless you.

Hinton Rural Life Center

“Retreat, Reflect, Renew”

The Hinton Rural Life Center is a mission agency of the SEJ and is located in rural Western North Carolina. The Hinton Center, a year round Christian mission and retreat center, is located on breathe-taking Lake Chatuge on the North Carolina-Georgia line. The retreat has a wide range of accommodations including houses with lake views, the mountain lodge, cottages, group retreat houses, and RV sites. In addition to the accommodations, Hinton hospitality includes an Executive Chef with mouth-watering meals, often straight from the garden, throughout your stay. Whether you're looking for overnight accommodations for private retreat and renewal or seeking facilities for a church group, Hinton is sure to have something for you. Our retreat includes multiple conference rooms, a serene setting for weddings and receptions, a gift shop, dining rooms, trails, complimentary wi-fi service, a lake-side pavilion with dock, indoor and outdoor chapels, and a rocking chair porch overlooking beautiful Lake Chatuge!

Perhaps the best thing about staying at Hinton is your opportunity to pay it forward. The revenue generated through Hinton Center accommodations helps to fund home repairs, ministries to end generational poverty, and programming that focuses on building healthy and effective communities of faith. Our core ministries include Rural and Small Membership Church Vitality, Year-Round Volunteer Missions, Affordable Housing, and Conference and Retreat Center.

For many years, through Rural and Small Membership Church Consultation, Hinton has held a reputation for leading many churches through visioning and planning sessions leading to new life in the church. Our new vitality ministry continues to build on our history of success. With financial support from The Duke Endowment, we are working with district superintendents and districts throughout the SEJ in their role as missional strategist and with small and rural congregations. We facilitate a process of learning, discernment, and planning for transformational ministry and congregational vitality. Each initiative is customized for the unique needs of the district or church. Ministry consultants guide each congregation and/or district through the process and provide follow-up for at least a year to insure ongoing success.

Year-Round Volunteer Missions, referred to as the “Cadillac of mission experiences,” by Rev. Brad Thie of Duke’s Thriving Rural Communities Initiative, includes the repair work, times for spiritual formation and reflection, soft beds, beautiful surroundings, and awesome food! The price for the week-long experience has been reduced to be more in-line with other mission experiences and individualized trips can be designed upon request. Our 2014 summer slots were nearly 100% booked by December of 2013. This spring, we hosted our first interfaith mission experience as well as alternative spring breaks for college students. Hinton hosts over 1,000 volunteers each year with weeks specifically for youth and other weeks for of all ages in mission together. We offered 83 worship services for our summer volunteers alone. Whether working on a home or in our firewood ministry, volunteers are helping to meet the needs of this rural community where 1/5 of the population lives below the poverty line.

As our ministries continue to strengthen, so does our financial position. This strength was evidenced in 2013, as we entered into the black. Hosting nearly 17,000 overnight stays, we have a 24% increase in lodging and continue to grow our volunteer mission ministry into a year-round experience with over 1300 registered for 2014 summer alone. With assistance from the SEJ and donations through our Capital Campaign, we are working on paying down our debt. Furthermore, we are addressing much needed upgrades to our facility, vehicles, and tools. In our Capital Campaign, we are over half-way to our minimum goal of $150,000 and have aspirations to reach our celebration goal of $400,000. Upgrading our facilities, providing fresh, healthy meals, and increasing our marketing will help Hinton become more financially secure, ultimately, providing Hinton with the opportunity to expand its ministries and sharing the Love of Christ.

Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc.

For over 100 years Lake Junaluska has been a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body. How grateful we are that throughout our history we have been inextricably linked to the United Methodist Church of the Southeastern Jurisdiction (and its predecessor bodies). Last year we reflected on the number of people who have come to Lake Junaluska in the last century and whose lives were transformed and renewed. While it would be impossible to come up with an exact number we are confident that it is well over one million people. How many other United Methodist organizations would be able to claim that number? We have absolutely been an integral part of fulfilling the mission of the United Methodist Church, to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

2013 was, arguably, one of the most significant in our history as we celebrated our centennial. Events were planned and carried out throughout the year that celebrated our glorious past and envisioned our very bright future. People are still buzzing about the experiences they had here in 2013. During the week of July 4th we had 59 events scheduled over eight days and while we had 8 ½ inches of rain not one event was cancelled and everyone who came seemed to have a marvelous time.

For the second year in a row, we ended the year “in the black.” This is particularly significant when you realize that in 2009, just four years earlier, we received over 11% of our income for Operations from the Southeastern Jurisdiction through Apportionments and in 2013 we did not receive any Operational Apportionment support. Lake Junaluska has embraced the new financial model that was approved by the 2008 SEJ Conference and will work diligently to always “live within our means.” Not only have we ended the last two years “in the black” but we have shared a majority of our “profits” with our staff. In 2012 every employee, adjusted for percentage of full-time hours worked, received $1,000 (before taxes). In 2013 the average full-time employee received $1,421 in profit sharing, again, regardless of base pay. In 2013 a quarter of the profit shared was adjusted based on work performance. 2013 was another great year for charitable giving. We received $801,519 from 1,226 individuals. This represents a 17.5% increase in total giving over 2012 and a 21% increase in number of donors. Since 2009 our Annual Fund giving has increased by over 400% to $269,633.

Not only was 2013 a great year for Lake Junaluska 2014 promises to be even better. We continue to refine and implement our plans for improvements to our grounds, facilities, and programs. Continued improvements are taking place to the Terrace Hotel. We are making the Jones Dining Hall into a year round facility by replacing windows and adding a heating and air conditioning system. Thanks to the generous support of the Junaluska Associates we are renovating the children’s playground at the Wilson Children’s Building. We are also building a new boat storage area along with a boat dock and fishing pier just to the north of the swimming pool.

As a member of the United Methodist Church within the Southeastern Jurisdiction we want you to know that “your” asset, Lake Junaluska is doing very well. You can be very proud of this important organization within the jurisdiction and the larger United Methodist Church. We are striving to be good stewards of the resources with which you have entrusted us.

Pick up a copy of our 2014 program, Experience Lake Junaluska, if you do not already have one. Peruse its pages to read about the impact of our programs, to learn about new projects we are working on, and our calendar of events.

We do hope you can come and visit us this year to be transformed and renewed in soul, mind, and body.

Schools of Theology

Boston University

Greetings in the Spirit of Jesus Christ! Thank you for your prayers and support for United Methodist theological education. This has been a bountiful year for Boston University School of Theology, beginning with the arrival of a passionate community of students from 35 states and 16 countries. The year has had many highlights.

BREAKING NEWS:

- Doctor of Ministry: The School has unfolded a new Doctor of Ministry program designed to enrich church leaders in traditional and non-traditional settings and to deepen their theological understanding and commitment to the practice of ministry. The DMin focuses on transformational leadership. It includes four intensive seminars on campus in August and January, a series of online courses, and opportunities for students to work closely with faculty as they research their own unique questions and visions.
- Community Center: The School's renovated Community Center has become a favorite gathering space – sustainable, hospitable, and accessible. It is the welcoming home for weekly community lunches, study, conversation, play, seminars, retreats, and parties.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation (RCT) Clinic: The RCT Clinic sponsors projects to address conflict in congregations, interfaith peacebuilding, restorative justice, and mediation.
- Expanded Scholarship Options: The School has expanded its scholarship options to include full tuition scholarships for UMC certified candidates for ordained ministry, African American Thurman scholars, Latino/a Raices scholars, and School of the Prophets scholars.

DEEPENING SPIRITUAL LIFE: The community enhances spiritual growth in many ways.

- Building intentional living communities: The School sponsors and helps support Theology House, Green House, and Beane House of Study, where students live with intentional and communal practices.
- Enhancing spiritual life through weekly worship, reading retreats, winter retreat, daily morning prayer, and small groups.
- Offering spiritual journeys, including the Vocations Vacation to ministry and service sites and the Seminary Singers tour to local churches.

ENGAGING THE WORLD: BU School of Theology students and faculty have traveled and served extensively in the world during the past year:

- Giving hundreds of volunteer hours across the Boston region, U.S. and world in church camps, homeless shelters, peace organizations, global United Methodist programs, and other settings.
- Traveling in study groups to Turkey (Ephesus), Israel & Palestine, Cuba, rural and urban ministry sites, and churches and service organizations across the US

- Sponsoring conferences on global Christianity and the Dictionary of African Christian Biography
- Serving in local churches and community agencies in contextual education placements, courses, and special internships.

PONDERING CRITICAL ISSUES: The School's annual theme was "Free at Last," to honor Martin Luther King, Jr. and his immortal "I Have a Dream" speech. The community engaged in urgent questions regarding race, sexual orientation and gender identity, and poverty, creating open and respectful spaces to discuss themes that are important to, and controversial in, the church and larger society.

The ministry of the Boston University School of Theology is to partner with you in serving the church and in caring for the larger human family and God's precious creation.

Yours with gratitude,

Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean
Boston University School of Theology

Candler

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the metropolitan area of Atlanta, Candler offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler celebrates its Centennial in 2014, marking our 100th anniversary with commemorative events that reflect on our past and a conference on theology and the church that envisions the future. The yearlong celebration begins in August with the opening of the second phase of Candler's new 128,600-square-foot, LEED-certified building, seven years in the making.

Not only is Candler expanding its physical space this year—it is expanding degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler is introducing five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees pairing divinity and social work and divinity and development practice. With these newest additions to our degree programs, Candler graduates truly will be ready to lead wherever God calls.

Candler's student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 441, with 340 seeking the Master of Divinity, 47 the Master of Theological Studies, 21 the Master of Theology, 15 the Doctor of Theology, and 18 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student population is 32 percent U.S. ethnic minority, 49 percent women, and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 39 denominations, with half identifying as United Methodist.

We continue to emphasize preparing our students for leadership in an increasingly global context, and now offer 14 academic exchanges with theology schools in 12 countries across five continents. In addition, Candler has an ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, and participates each year in travel seminars to the Middle East and in World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars, traveling in 2014 to Nigeria, Costa Rica, and Brazil.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

The academic year 2013–2014 has been an exciting year in which we completed an intensive period of hiring new faculty. We believe that a strong faculty is at the heart of any great theological school, and we are thankful that the men and women who have joined us are characterized by excellent scholarship, generous character, and a deep commitment to the church. In the past three years, we have hired 18 new faculty, which means that 36 percent of current faculty have been hired since 2010. Half of those appointments are United Methodist, bringing our total regular-rank faculty to 42 percent Methodist.

Some of our new faculty hires were in response to retirements or departures; others were in response to the growth in our new degree programs, the Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.C.P.), Master of Arts in Christian Studies (M.A.C.S.), and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). Other hires help expand our expertise into crucial areas. Xi Lian, professor of world Christianity, is a leading scholar of Christianity in China; Meredith Riedel, assistant professor of the history of Christianity, studies Byzantine Christianity and its engagement with the Muslim world; and Luke Bretherton, associate professor of theological ethics, works in Christianity and contemporary politics and community-building in a pluralistic culture.

Other new faculty build on our traditions of strength in historical, theological, ministerial, and biblical studies. Ross Wagner and Brittany Wilson both have Wesleyan commitments to reading Scripture that influences their scholarship in New Testament; Valerie Cooper, a self-described “fifth-generation Methodist,” does singular work in historical studies and biblical hermeneutics. Edgardo Colón-Emeric, assistant professor of Christian theology, continues our rich legacy of engagement between Methodist and Catholic theologies; and Jeff Conklin-Miller brings a wealth of experience as a United Methodist minister and youth programs director to his position in Christian formation.

All of our faculty members in all of our academic programs are committed to training talented, committed men and women for ministry. We continue to welcome students from a range of backgrounds who are called to serve God and the church. In 2013, our total enrollment was 635 students: 434 are enrolled in the M.Div. degree program; 60 in the M.T.S.; 18 in the Th.M.; 43 in the Th.D.; 36 in the D.Min.; 25 in the M.A.C.P.; 17 in the M.A.C.S.; and 12 who are special students. Thirty-seven percent of our students are United Methodist, with an additional 4.5 percent from other Wesleyan traditions. Eleven percent are Baptist, 10 percent are Anglican or Episcopal, 6 percent are Roman Catholic, 6 percent are Presbyterian, with the remaining 6 percent from other denominations or nondenominational churches.

In addition to the ongoing excellent academic and field education work done by students each year, several students had notable achievements. Griff Gatewood M.Div.'13 was awarded a fellowship by the Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics, one of only 14 seminarians selected for the award. Andrew Barnhill M.Div.'13 was selected by a Duke University campus committee to deliver the student speech at the university's 161st Commencement Ceremony in May, the first time a Divinity student has been selected for that honor. Two M.Div. students, Kayla Harward and Carmen Gonzalez-McKernie traveled to South Korea to represent the Divinity School at the World Council of Churches 10th Assembly.

Duke Divinity School does not view our work as only academic or “ivory tower.” Our departments, centers, initiatives, and programs continue to engage with the church and social and cultural issues. The important work of the Clergy Health Initiative will be extended, thanks to a $5.74 million grant from The Duke Endowment. In August its research was published in the Journal of Primary Prevention. Findings include that the rate of depression among clergy is nearly double the national rate. Factors contributing to depression include job stress, sense of guilt about not doing enough, and social isolation. In response to these findings, the Clergy Health Initiative has introduced a theologically framed curriculum for United Methodist Churches. Pastor & Parish is designed to strengthen relations between clergy and congregations, and it provides a scriptural foundation for Staff-Parish Relations Committees to engage in constructive ways to promote health and unity for the church and pastor.

Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts (DITA) co-sponsored the Dean's Song-writer Series with the Dean's office. The series promotes an ongoing conversation about songwriting, performance, and music in relation to Christian faith. Guests included singer-songwriter Pierce Pettis and his daughter Grace Pettis, David Wilcox, and Carrie Newcomer. Events include lunch concerts and discussion with students and evening concerts open to the community. DITA also introduced an informal film study for Divinity School students, "Image & Word," hosted by postdoctoral fellow Daniel Train. The study includes short lectures, film viewings, and group discussion in order to deepen imaginative and pastoral acumen.

Leadership Education at Duke Divinity (LEADD) has launched a new website that describes its programs in denominational leadership and resources to strengthen institutional resources: <http://leadership.divinity.duke.edu>. The online journal Faith & Leadership continues to draw hundreds of thousands of readers. Greg Jones, senior strategist for LEADD and professor of theology, has been named to the leadership team for the Duke Innovation and Entrepreneurship Initiative, where he will serve as a senior strategist for education.

The Center for Reconciliation sponsored the fifth annual Summer Institute at Duke Divinity School, hosting nearly 145 Christian leaders involved in diverse reconciliation ministries around the world. Participants included representatives from World Vision International, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, the National Immigrant Youth Alliance, and organizations in South Korea, Japan, Burundi, South Sudan, and Uganda. For the first time the Summer Institute featured a seminar on Muslim-Christian dialogue, led by Professor Ellen Davis and Duke's Muslim chaplain, Abdullah Antepi.

The Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation (DYA) is expanding to a year-long program that combines a week of summer residency at Duke University with a year of ongoing engagement and practice. The new format will allow high-school students to build on the intensive summer residency experience throughout the year with the support of the DYA community and a local mentor. The program includes lectures by Divinity School faculty, workshops, theological reading, online community forums, and a self-directed final project on Christian practice.

The second phase began of Thriving Rural Communities, a partnership between Duke Divinity School, The Duke Endowment, and the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences to help divinity students, pastors, laity, districts, and conferences cultivate and strengthen Christian leadership and United Methodist congregations in rural North Carolina. Eight new partner churches are participating, and over the next five years approximately 70 Thriving Rural Communities Fellows will be serving in United Methodist Churches across North Carolina. Brad Thie has been named the director; he has previously served as pastor of United Methodist churches in Charlotte, Asheboro, and Newton, N.C.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among the United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry.

Perkins

Perkins School of Theology is thankful for our connections with the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, including your welcome of Elaine Heath, McCressless Professor of Evangelism at Perkins, as a guest speaker this year. We also are pleased that enrollment in our D.Min. program currently includes two Alabama-West Florida Conference clergypersons.

Perkins celebrated a record spring 2014 enrollment of 24 new students, in addition to 81 new students who enrolled in fall 2013. Among all Perkins students, approximately two-thirds are United Methodist and more than one-third are ethnic minority students. Our gender balance between male and female students in Master's degree programs remains almost exactly 50%. The Doctor of Ministry program continues to grow with students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and Dallas. Our Ph.D. program includes two Latino Ph.D. students supported through a grant from the Luce Foundation to Perkins' Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions.

Rev. Jeannie Treviño-Teddle was honored for faithful service as director of the Mexican American Program and UM Regional Course of Study School from 2002 until her retirement in 2013. Dr. Philip Wingeier-Rayo, currently professor of Religion at Pfeiffer University in North Carolina, has been named new director of the Mexican American and Hispanic-Latino/a Church Ministries Program, effective June 1, 2014. Dr. Wingeier-Rayo also will be nominated to serve as director of the regional Course of Study School, and will hold the title "Professor of Christian Mission and Intercultural Studies."

Perkins was excited to welcome two new faculty members in fall 2013: Tamara Lewis (Ph.D., Vanderbilt, 2014), instructor, History of Christianity; and Natalia Marandiuc (Ph.D., Yale, 2013), assistant professor of Christian Theology. Perkins recently received two significant grants from the Lilly Endowment. A $500,000 grant will support our newly established Center for Preaching Excellence, with Alyce McKenzie, Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship, serving as director. A second grant of $249,981 will support research to study the indebtedness of theological students and help improve the economic well-being of future ministers.

Perkins is blessed with gifted faculty and staff members, inspiring students, beautiful facilities, and vibrant ministries. We thank our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for continuing generous support, including referrals of prospective students.

Perkins asks for your prayers and support as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and Peace,

Southern Methodist University (SMU)

(Perkins School of Theology is housed on the campus of SMU)

Southern Methodist University (SMU) is commemorating a major milestone as the University celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915.

- SMU's total fall 2013 enrollment was 10,929, including 6,357 undergraduates and 4,572 graduate students. Enrollment continues to increase in ethnic, socio-economic and geographic diversity. Ethnic minority students made up 25 percent of total enrollment in fall 2013. A record international enrollment of 1,445 students represented 97 foreign countries, with the largest numbers coming from China, India and Saudi Arabia.
- SMU consistently ranks in the top one-fourth of "best national universities" in U.S. News & World Report. In 2014, SMU ranks 60th among 281 national universities.
- The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies SMU as a "high research activity" university. During 2012-13, SMU received $19.9 million in external funding for research and sponsored projects worldwide. Current research subjects include natural hazards, water quality, cyber security and treatments for cancer and diabetes.
- Because of the early success of SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, the campaign goal was raised from $750 million to $1 billion. To date, SMU has received more than $844 million in gifts and pledges for scholarships, academic programs, endowed faculty positions and campus improvements and facilities.
- Campaign gifts are helping to fund renovations of existing facilities and new construction. Moody Coliseum reopened in December 2013 after extensive renovation and expansion.
- SMU's new Residential Commons complex, to open in fall 2014, consists of five new residence halls and a dining facility. The complex will enable SMU to implement a residency requirement for sophomores along with first-year students. The new halls will include classrooms and accommodations for live-in faculty. Six other SMU residence halls are being modified as Residential Commons.
- The year 2013 was designated the Year of the Library, marking the 100th anniversary of the beginning of SMU's library collections, which recently passed the four-million-volume mark. Major renovations are planned for Fondren Library Center and Bridwell Library of Perkins School of Theology.

- The George W. Bush Presidential Center, consisting of Library, Museum and independent Institute, was dedicated at SMU in April 2013, with all five living U.S. presidents participating. Under sponsorship of the Bush Institute, symposia have been conducted on subjects that promote economic growth, education reform, global health and human freedom. Dr. Eric Bing, a renowned expert on global health issues, is the first to hold concurrent appointments as a new SMU faculty member and senior fellow of the Bush Institute.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

Is God calling you or someone you know to the ministry of Jesus Christ? If so, we invite you to explore how United can assist you in fulfilling God's purposes for your life and how you can help others in this journey. Come and check us out in person or online at www.united.edu!

United is one of the fastest growing, accredited seminaries in North America. Why are Christian disciples and leaders signing up for our traditional and online programs? They are doing so because United is committed to teaching the Bible and the historic Christian faith, cultivating spiritual formation for personal and social holiness, and renewing the Church for the mission of Jesus Christ in the world. What could be more important or exciting?

In addition to expanding our service in the Midwestern US, United will continue to enhance its use of technology to deliver theological education in underserved regions in North America and beyond. United's hybrid/online UMC FLEX Master of Divinity degree was designed specifically to meet the requirements of the UMC for ordination and it is accessible anywhere with good Internet service. - Wesley was named to Faith3.org's list, Seminaries that Change the World. This list was announced in the Huffington Post on November 12, 2013. One of the several reasons for the attribute was Wesley's Center for the Missional Church, which is headquartered at Wesley Downtown, in the heart of Washington, D.C.

Please be in prayer for Wesley Theological Seminary. We cannot do our ministry alone, and your participation with us in the greater mission of God enhances us mightily. We are striving to provide you with the kinds of educational opportunities that will take your ministry to the next level. In turn, we depend upon your participation in and contribution to our ministry as well. So, pray for us often, avail yourself of the school's offerings, give to Wesley, and identify and send us persons who are called and who have a high capacity for fruitful ministry.

Mrs. Andrews is survived by her daughters, Ginger (Mike) Clemens of Indianapolis, Indiana and Alice Hill (Wilbur) Clopton of Omaha, Nebraska; four grandsons; and five great-grandsons.

Being the daughter of an ordained minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and later the wife of an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church, Sue learned early in her life the skills of moving and making new friends as her father, then her husband lived in many parsonages and served in many churches across the conference.

As her daughters, we learned from Mama the art of change, even when it's difficult; the art of getting along with people, even when we didn't want to; and the art of making a home. She was an example of doing with what we had and being thankful for it. Wherever we were, Mama was involved in the WSCS and taught the kindergarten Sunday School. In Pensacola, she learned sign language in order to communicate with one of the boys in her class. In addition to raising us (we were not easy), she always had time to help others in volunteer positions. She had a wonderful gift of hospitality, and our home was always open to "company". After Ellis's death she went on several European cruises with a cousin.

Mama was first and foremost a pragmatist, "Don't cry over spilled milk." She never wasted time by fretting over the past. Perhaps her greatest gift to us is the one she gave us in the final sixteen years of her life, as deteriorating health slowly reduced her life choices - from her home in Mobile, to assisted living, to a nursing home, then to a nursing community in Indianapolis, Indiana (the North!). During that time she never complained, tried to bargain for more time, or used guilt or anger to influence us. She died as she had lived, with faith, hope and dignity. We pray to do the same. ~ Alice Clopton and Ginger Clemens

Sara Margaret Golden was born in Phenix City, Alabama on August 21, 1919. She was the daughter of Paul Clifford and Margaret Tillis Gunnels Golden. Sara was the oldest of four children having two sisters, Frances and Bettye, and a brother, Jack. Sara attended a Catholic school there in Phenix City for all of her school years.

On April 29, 1938 in Phenix City, Alabama she married Homer Lee Anthony. Together they had two daughters, Nancy Ellen born February 8, 1939 and Carol Leigh born May 28, 1946.

As a minister's wife she served with Rev. Anthony in the following appointments:

1953	Shady Grove	1966	Mt. Hermon
1954	Pike Circuit	1970	Uniontown
1956	Brent	1974	Pine Grove-Ebenezer
1960	Newton	1976	Frisco City
1962	Bagdad	1979	Wesley Memorial
1965	Excel

Reverend Anthony suffered with rheumatoid arthritis for many years but never let this painful and debilitating disease slow him down in his ministry. He developed heart problems later on unknowingly and died from Congestive Heart Failure in 1980. Reverend and Mrs. Anthony were serving at Wesley Memorial, Opelika, Alabama at the time of his death.

Following her husband's death in 1980, Sara moved to Tuscaloosa to be close to her family and begin a new chapter in her life. She joined Alberta United Methodist Church and became an active and contributing member. Years later she became a member of Forest Lake United Methodist Church where her membership remained.

Sara lived with her children for six months after moving to Tuscaloosa but felt the need to live independently later on. She chose an apartment complex especially for retired seniors not far from her children and enjoyed living there for many years. She enjoyed going on many senior trips, both PARA and church trips through the years. She fell in 2001 breaking her hip and after much rehab decided to move in with her younger daughter, Carol and husband Mickey. She enjoyed gardening each day and getting to know each new great grandchild as they were born.

Her health started declining due to aging and she later moved to Forest Manor Nursing home. At the time of her death she was living at Forest Manor where she was loved by all, the residents and staff. She died on January 7, 2014 because of her declining health problems due to old age. She was 95.

Services were held on January 10, 2014 at Lake View Memory Gardens in Phenix City, Alabama. Those officiating were Rev. Melody Taylor, Associate Pastor at Forest Lake United Methodist Church in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and her nephew, Rev. Heath Williamson, a Methodist Pastor in Phenix City. She was buried at Lake View Memory Gardens Cemetery. Mrs. Anthony is survived by her daughters, Nancy Ingram (Leonard) and Carol Lee Whatley (Mickey) both of Tuscaloosa, Alabama; four grandchildren, Kim Ingram Bass, Vicki Ingram Allen (Barry), Michael Whatley (Kim) and Lori Grant (Jeff, deceased); five great grandchildren, John Anthony Allen, Anna Kate Allen, Marin Grant, Julianna Whatley, and James Anthony Whatley; one sister Frances Golden Bush; sister-in-law Dorothy Grimes plus nieces, nephews and many other beloved family members. Sara was laid to rest beside the love of her life and our beloved father/grandfather and great grandfather, Homer L. Anthony. The two of them were inseparable throughout all of their years together and they worked side by side throughout his ministry.

Sara was committed to serving the Lord beside her husband of many years, Rev. Homer L. Anthony. Together they ministered to countless church members, non church people, friends and family for decades.

Sara loved gardening and was born with a "green" thumb! She enjoyed sewing and in her latter years took up the art of painting. She loved cooking and baking and was known for her delicious divinity candy, mostly at Christmas time!

Sara was a role model for selflessness as she often put the needs of others ahead of her own. She was affectionately known as "Nannie" to her grandchildren (and their friends) and loved her family with all of her heart. She made many friends in her new home at Clara Verner Tower and in her church and her door was always open. She will be remembered as a kind and gracious person who loved the Lord with all of her heart, all her soul and all her mind, and who loved her neighbors as herself.

Her daughter, Nancy wrote, "I thank God for a Mother like I had. She was the 'perfect' parent with important values and I was raised with those values. She was honest, loving, caring, sharing, giving and loved the Lord. For everything I am today, her love has shown me the way. I'll always love her for enriching my life in so many ways. She taught me straight and then set me free and I feel her in my heart and her presence lives on. My mother served with my father in Methodist churches for 30 years or so. It was not an easy life back then, not just one church but as many as five at once. She attended services, revivals, and activities plus raising two daughters and keeping house and entertaining. She made the parsonage at the time 'home' for her family. Her wonderful cooking was known throughout the community. She made the best divinity candy you would ever hope to taste in a lifetime. It was a hard life back then, nothing easy about some of the places we lived. She took my misery and made it comfortable and fun."

Bertha Helene Rostron was born in Lowell, MA on November 9, 1917. She was the daughter of Robert and Bertha Helene Waddilove Rostron. She graduated from Ware High School in Ware, MA in 1936. Much later she attended Massey-Draughn Business School.

On November 23, 1938 in Wetumpka, Alabama she married James Herbert Hyland. Together they raised three children: James Robert born June 22, 1941, Patricia Elaine born October 26, 1944, and David Daniel born December 23, 1946. Before marrying she was employed Wetumpka Cotton Mill. She has also been employed Sears and the State of Alabama, Drivers License Division. In later years she was employed as well at Cousins Harris Drug Store in Wetumpka. Her interests and hobbies were music, games, puzzles, and crossword puzzles.

As a minister's wife she served with Rev. Hyland in the following appointments:

1962	Rutledge Charge	1969	Carrville, East Tallassee
1964	Fort Davis-Hopewell	1970	LaPine

Rev. Hyland passed away on February 28, 1971.

At the time of her death she was living at Troy Health and Rehab after thirteen years at John Knox Manor. She died January 9, 2014 because of complications of Leukemia and age. Funeral services were held on January 11, 2014 at the chapel of Cain's Chapel United Methodist Church with Rev. Susan Beeson and Rev. Randy Nix officiating. Interment followed in the church cemetery. Mrs. Bell is survived by three children, six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, infant sister, sister, Anne R. Barrett, husband Rev. James Hyland and second husband, Jim R. Bell.

Bertha left her home in Ware, MA in 1938 to move to Wetumpka, Alabama as her father's job changed and he was sent south. She and her childhood sweetheart, Jim Hyland, were engaged to be married. As they could not afford to marry on the income from the jobs they had in MA, Jim asked her father, Robert Rostron, if he could get him a job in the Cotton Mill where he was being sent as foreman.

Jim and Robert Rostron moved to Wetumpka to find a place for them to live and Bertha, her mother and sister Anne came a few weeks later. Jim always told people that Bertha followed him south!

Bertha and her sister attended Wetumpka First Methodist Church along with their parents. Soon they joined the choir and became well known around the area for their singing voices in solos and duets where they were frequently asked to sing for funerals and weddings.

In 1954 the Hylands moved to their property on Lake Jordan full-time and Bertha became the first choir director at Cain's Chapel Methodist Church. She held this unpaid position for many years until Jim was called into the ministry. She also taught children's Sunday school and vacation Bible school. She served on many committees as well as serving as the secretary of the board of directors for many years. As she had served on so many committees through the years, in later years she would comment that she had done every job in the church except preach.

When their children got to be young teens, she and Jim would become the teachers for the Methodist Youth Fellowship (MYF). Bertha taught the young teens from 12 years old to 15 years old and Jim took the older youth. They often had a house full of teenagers, especially in the summer when they taught many to swim and water ski.

In 1962 Jim Hyland was called into the ministry and Bertha was called to move again, this time as a pastor's wife to five churches. She still had her full time job with the State of Alabama in Montgomery, but always attended every church and church function often playing the piano or singing special music.

Rev. Jim Hyland died in 1971 and Bertha moved back to her lake home. She again became the choir director and she and Anne again sang solos and duets as well as serving on many committees and board positions.

About nine to ten years after the death of Jim Hyland, Bertha married Jim R. Bell. She joked that by marrying another Jim she did not have to worry about calling him by the wrong name, even if she talked in her sleep.

They had a good life together and were able to travel to many places around the country together before his death in 1993. In 2000 Bertha moved to John Knox Manor where she resided until her last illness. Her first year there they held their yearly contest where all residents placed names in a box for the title of the King and Queen of John Knox Manor. Even though she had only lived there for just six months she won by a large majority and became Queen of the Manor. Since they never had the contest again I guess she remained the reigning queen.

Bertha had an outreach at John Knox and made it her purpose to meet any and all new residents and help them find the way around and to introduce them to other residents.

She also started putting together a jigsaw puzzle which soon became the focal point and meeting place in the Great Room and a puzzle could always be found in some partial completion. She also had a passion for playing cards and for several years could be found downstairs in a game of cards. In later years she had a standing date for a complicated form of Rummy each week with three friends.

One rule she had was that she was not to be called or otherwise disturbed while the TV show Jeopardy was on. She would not answer the phone or if you stopped by to visit she might make you sit and wait until it was over.

She was known by everyone at John Knox and at Christmas she had delivered a card to each staff and resident in the whole tower. She would go to each room on all seven floors and slip a card under the door. Each had the person's name and room number as well as a signature and sometimes a personal note. She kept cards for each person's birthday and would slip a card under their door. She would have the cards at Christmas sorted and separated by floor and room number fastened with an elastic band so that the rooms were easily delivered by going down one side of the hall and back up the other instead of walking back and forth the hall as the rooms were numbered odd and even numbers.

As long as she was able Bertha led the arm chair exercises three times a week at John Knox Manor.

She loved being a part of her John Knox family there and often told people how blessed she felt to have made the move to the apartment where she was surrounded by people, residents and staff who became friends.

My dad truly loved his job and he was very loyal to the United Methodist Church as a denomination. I feel that in his humble way my dad made a positive difference in the various churches that he served over the thirty-six years that he was a United Methodist pastor! Likewise, the United Methodist Church as a denomination and the various churches that my dad served really gave back to my dad and to the entire family! I feel that my entire family was enriched over the years through its contact and its association with the United Methodist Church as a denomination. My dad always said that the United Methodist Church was an excellent employer and he was proud to be a part of the United Methodist Church and he said that the United Methodist Church always treated him very well.

I truly am grateful to the United Methodist Church for the generous retirement pension and the excellent health insurance that it provided for my dad after he retired. In addition, I am most appreciative to the United Methodist Church for both the life insurance payout for my dad, along with the generous bereavement payout for my dad's years of service to the United Methodist Church that I received earlier in 2014 after my dad passed away. Thank you very much to the United Methodist Church for your kindness.

Margaret Holler, Nick's wife writes, "As the first Congregational Care Minister of AUMC, Nick provided leadership and started programs which, I believe will continue for years to come. He truly cared about and loved the people he ministered to. So often, I had people tell me how comforting his visits were and how he helped them to heal during difficult times. He touched so many lives within AUMC and beyond. Nick always seemed to know just the right words to say or know when to say nothing at all. I don't think there could have been a more perfect position for him within the church. His prayers, sermons, devotions and the way he lived his life were all reflections of his sincere love for Christ. He often spoke of how we can give our love to our Lord by remembering Jesus' words in Matthew 25:40, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.' I believe Nick saw 'the face of God' throughout his ministry."

Dr. George Mathison, Senior Pastor of Auburn United Methodist Church writes, “Dr. Nick Holler was an esteemed and nationally recognized professor in his field at Auburn University. I remember when Nick came to me and told me of his desire to go into full-time ministry. I remember we went into the sanctuary, knelt together, prayed together, and we felt the presence of God in such a moving way. I remember that experience sealed Brother Nick’s call. Over the past twenty years, he became one of the closest friends I’ve ever had. I loved him like a brother. He so beautifully combined the devotional and intellectual, and in him I saw an example for my life and ministry. We visited together, we served on the board of ordained ministry together, we roomed together, and we traveled together. One of the things about Nick that especially touched me was his love for the United Methodist Church and his love for God’s Holy Word. He always had his Bible with him. He did not carry his Bible to parade his piety, but because his Bible provided the very foundation of who he was, what he believed, and where he was going. Like John Wesley, he knew that Methodists are homo unius libri (people of the book), and his beautiful life reflected the divine truths in that Book. I remember at Annual Conference when our associate pastor told me that Nick had moved his membership from the church militant to the church triumphant. I went into a room alone and cried. I missed and still miss him so much, but I know that some glad day I will see him again. He has now made heaven all the more lovelier with his presence. I thank God every day for the blessing and inspiration he was to the Auburn United Methodist Church and especially to my life.”

Pat Luna writes, “Nick Holler was a leader in spiritual formation, congregational care and stewardship but most of all Nick reflected the heart of God. Nick sought to be shaped and formed in the image of Christ for the sake of others to the very end. His passion for God, generosity, deep compassion, thirst for learning, prayerful spirit, and eagerness to serve the Lord led him to make a difference around the globe and in the lives of all who knew him. I give thanks every time I remember Nick and the difference he made.”

MISCELLANEOUS

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, composed of more than 640 churches with over 145,000 members, passed the following resolutions at its Annual Conference session in Montgomery, Alabama on June 4, 2014:

A Resolution Calling for Prison Reform in Alabama

Remember those who are in prison, as though you were there with them. Remember also those being mistreated, as if you felt their pain in your own bodies.

Hebrews 13:3

WHEREAS, nowhere in scripture do we find a divine endorsement of prisons, but rather we see repeatedly that prisons in the Bible are usually part of a larger apparatus of injustice and oppression, and an extension of the spirit of death, and

WHEREAS, upon visiting Draper Correctional Facility in Elmore County, members of the Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Church & Society found inhumane conditions — specifically, extreme overcrowding (nearly 200% capacity), no air conditioning, inadequate bathroom facilities, limited educational and rehabilitative opportunities, and lack of supervision creating conditions that are dangerous to inmates, employees, and all who enter the facility, and

WHEREAS, the recent Department of Justice report on conditions at Julia Tutwiler Prison for Women and other sources indicate that inhumane and dangerous conditions are pervasive throughout the 29 state facilities run by the Alabama Department of Corrections,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, in the love of Christ, who came to save those who are lost and vulnerable, urges the creation of a genuinely new system for the care and restoration of victims, offenders, criminal justice officials, and the community as a whole, and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church calls upon the Alabama Legislature and Governor, to change mandatory sentencing laws that continually expand prison populations at greater expense than alternatives that have better outcomes for prisoners, victims and citizens, and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED that United Methodists in the Alabama-West Florida Conference who are residents of Alabama be encouraged to contact their state legislators to demand that immediate steps be taken to significantly improve the conditions of Alabama state prisons and to reduce the prison population, and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor of Alabama and every member of the Alabama State Legislature.

Submitted by the Board of Church and Society of the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

A Resolution Concerning Healthcare for the Poor in Alabama

WHEREAS, Jesus requires that we look to the needs of “the least of these,” and

WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states in the Social Principles (Para. 162,V), “Providing the care needed to maintain health, prevent disease, and restore health after injury or illness is a responsibility each person owes others and government owes to all, a responsibility government ignores at its peril,” and

WHEREAS, health insurance remains unaffordable for approximately 200,000 adult Alabamians who do not qualify for current Medicaid coverage and whose income falls below the eligibility threshold for premium subsidies in the Health Insurance Marketplace, which is set at the poverty line (approximately $18,000 for a family of three), and

WHEREAS, 152,000 of these adult Alabamians who do not qualify for current Medicaid coverage are employed in important but low-paying jobs, such as department store clerks, gas station attendants, fast food workers, etc., that do not pay enough to make health insurance affordable, and

WHEREAS, the expansion of the federal Medicaid program would more efficiently meet the healthcare needs of poor Alabamians whose care is now provided mainly in emergency rooms at reduced effectiveness and great cost, and

WHEREAS, after three years of 100 percent federal funding, the state would contribute no more than 10 percent of funding for the expanded coverage in future years, and

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama has chosen to forego millions of federal dollars that Alabamians have paid to the federal government,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church calls upon the Alabama State Legislature and the Governor of Alabama to expand the Medicaid program so that this ready solution can meet the healthcare needs of the poor, and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor of Alabama and every member of the Alabama State Legislature.

Submitted by the Board of Church and Society of the Alabama-West Florida Conference

A Resolution Concerning Predatory Lending in Alabama

WHEREAS, protection of the poor and disadvantaged is a central principle of Christianity, and

WHEREAS, the Bible forbids usury in dozens of passages from Exodus to the Gospels, and

WHEREAS, it is reported in all four canonical Gospels how Jesus overturned the tables of the moneychangers, accusing them of turning the Temple into a den of thieves through their commercial activities, and

WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states in the Social Principles: “Financial institutions serve a vital role in society. They must guard, however, against abusive and deceptive lending practices that take advantage of the neediest among us for the gain of the richest. Banking regulations must prevent the collection of usurious interest that keeps people in cycles of debt.” (Social Principles, 163J Finance), and

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama allows payday lenders to charge as much as 456% APR and auto title lenders are allowed to charge 300% APR, and

WHEREAS, during the 2014 legislative session, efforts to limit these immorally high interest rates received bipartisan support in both houses of the Alabama State Legislature but failed to make their way through the legislative process,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church calls upon the Alabama State Legislature to take up this matter again during the next legislative session and pass appropriate legislation to curb the activities of predatory lenders, and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED that United Methodists in the Alabama-West Florida Conference who are residents of Alabama be encouraged to contact their state legislators to demand that they support these efforts, and
